

ROYAL BAKING POWDER Absolutely Pure. This powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness.

WOOLCOTT & SON, 14 East Martin Street.

For Early Fall Trade.

We have received direct from France all shades of

HENRIETTA CLOTH.

2,000 yards double width cashmere as wide as yard.

10 pieces black cashmere. 88 inches wide, 2 1/2, worth 80c.

Our stock of shoes is complete and cannot be excelled in quality or price.

All goods marked in plain figures and no price to all.

EDWARD FASNACH, JEWELER & OPTICIAN.

SOLITAIRE and CLUSTER DIAMONDS.

Jar Optical Department.

OUR ARTIFICIAL Human Eyes.

Raleigh Marble Works.

DESIGNS. Of all descriptions kept on hand and sent to any address upon application.

LYNCHED. THREE MEN SWUNG UP AT OXFORD—TWO FOR THE MURDER OF A NEGRO—THE THIRD FOR ARSON.

OXFORD, N. C., Sept. 2.—Three negroes, Henry Tanner and John Tanner, his son, and Alonzo Smith, were taken from the jail here this morning about two o'clock and lynched.

There have for some time past been threats of lynching and the Grayville Grays were for a while placed on guard at the jail, but a few days ago they were notified that their services would no longer be necessary and discontinued their watch.

Shelby News. Truth is often stranger than fiction and it is a positive fact that there are only six candidates for office in Cleveland county.

Mr. J. P. Leeper, of Gaston, has been nominated, and from present indications he will have no opposition.

Mr. George—Has the bill been referred to the committee on foreign relations?

Mr. Sherman—I think that the bill is inconsistent with the treaty, but as the Chinese government declines to make the proposed changes we have unquestioned right to pass this bill.

Mr. Sherman—Undoubtedly, because under it, it is provided that for a certain time and under certain circumstances, Chinese laborers who have been here have the right to come back, and it is only because its provisions have been violated by fraud and perjury that such a law as that is justifiable.

Mr. Sherman—Undoubtedly, because under it, it is provided that for a certain time and under certain circumstances, Chinese laborers who have been here have the right to come back, and it is only because its provisions have been violated by fraud and perjury that such a law as that is justifiable.

Mr. Sherman—Undoubtedly, because under it, it is provided that for a certain time and under certain circumstances, Chinese laborers who have been here have the right to come back, and it is only because its provisions have been violated by fraud and perjury that such a law as that is justifiable.

Mr. Sherman—Undoubtedly, because under it, it is provided that for a certain time and under certain circumstances, Chinese laborers who have been here have the right to come back, and it is only because its provisions have been violated by fraud and perjury that such a law as that is justifiable.

Mr. Sherman—Undoubtedly, because under it, it is provided that for a certain time and under certain circumstances, Chinese laborers who have been here have the right to come back, and it is only because its provisions have been violated by fraud and perjury that such a law as that is justifiable.

Mr. Sherman—Undoubtedly, because under it, it is provided that for a certain time and under certain circumstances, Chinese laborers who have been here have the right to come back, and it is only because its provisions have been violated by fraud and perjury that such a law as that is justifiable.

Mr. Sherman—Undoubtedly, because under it, it is provided that for a certain time and under certain circumstances, Chinese laborers who have been here have the right to come back, and it is only because its provisions have been violated by fraud and perjury that such a law as that is justifiable.

Mr. Sherman—Undoubtedly, because under it, it is provided that for a certain time and under certain circumstances, Chinese laborers who have been here have the right to come back, and it is only because its provisions have been violated by fraud and perjury that such a law as that is justifiable.

Mr. Sherman—Undoubtedly, because under it, it is provided that for a certain time and under certain circumstances, Chinese laborers who have been here have the right to come back, and it is only because its provisions have been violated by fraud and perjury that such a law as that is justifiable.

CONGRESS. PROCEEDINGS YESTERDAY IN SENATE AND HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 3.—SENATE.—Mr. Hoar sent to the clerk's desk and had read a letter received by him from Charles Arpin, of Quebec, suggesting that if certain hay claims held by Canadians against the government of the United States were allowed and paid at this time the Republican party could be assured of support from Canada.

Mr. Hoar remarked that such letters (we had no doubt) were occasionally received by Senators from men as ignorant as they were base, but the man who had written this letter had been a candidate for the Canadian parliament and was a man of considerable intelligence and good address.

On this motion no quorum voted and a call of the House was ordered, which developed a quorum which immediately disappeared when the vote was again taken.

Mr. Forney, of Alabama, interrupted the proceedings by calling up the conference report on the sundry civil appropriation bill, but Mr. Townsend raised the question of consideration and in his opposition to the conference report he was sustained by Mr. Breckinridge, of Arkansas, who declared an opportunity to call up the bill for free cotton bagging.

Mr. Sherman—I think that the bill is inconsistent with the treaty, but as the Chinese government declines to make the proposed changes we have unquestioned right to pass this bill.

Mr. Sherman—Undoubtedly, because under it, it is provided that for a certain time and under certain circumstances, Chinese laborers who have been here have the right to come back, and it is only because its provisions have been violated by fraud and perjury that such a law as that is justifiable.

Mr. Sherman—Undoubtedly, because under it, it is provided that for a certain time and under certain circumstances, Chinese laborers who have been here have the right to come back, and it is only because its provisions have been violated by fraud and perjury that such a law as that is justifiable.

Mr. Sherman—Undoubtedly, because under it, it is provided that for a certain time and under certain circumstances, Chinese laborers who have been here have the right to come back, and it is only because its provisions have been violated by fraud and perjury that such a law as that is justifiable.

Mr. Sherman—Undoubtedly, because under it, it is provided that for a certain time and under certain circumstances, Chinese laborers who have been here have the right to come back, and it is only because its provisions have been violated by fraud and perjury that such a law as that is justifiable.

Mr. Sherman—Undoubtedly, because under it, it is provided that for a certain time and under certain circumstances, Chinese laborers who have been here have the right to come back, and it is only because its provisions have been violated by fraud and perjury that such a law as that is justifiable.

Mr. Sherman—Undoubtedly, because under it, it is provided that for a certain time and under certain circumstances, Chinese laborers who have been here have the right to come back, and it is only because its provisions have been violated by fraud and perjury that such a law as that is justifiable.

Mr. Sherman—Undoubtedly, because under it, it is provided that for a certain time and under certain circumstances, Chinese laborers who have been here have the right to come back, and it is only because its provisions have been violated by fraud and perjury that such a law as that is justifiable.

Mr. Sherman—Undoubtedly, because under it, it is provided that for a certain time and under certain circumstances, Chinese laborers who have been here have the right to come back, and it is only because its provisions have been violated by fraud and perjury that such a law as that is justifiable.

Mr. Sherman—Undoubtedly, because under it, it is provided that for a certain time and under certain circumstances, Chinese laborers who have been here have the right to come back, and it is only because its provisions have been violated by fraud and perjury that such a law as that is justifiable.

Mr. Sherman—Undoubtedly, because under it, it is provided that for a certain time and under certain circumstances, Chinese laborers who have been here have the right to come back, and it is only because its provisions have been violated by fraud and perjury that such a law as that is justifiable.

AT TROY. THE JOINT DISCUSSION BETWEEN FOWLE AND DOCKERY.

THE DAY AGAIN CARRIED BY THE DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE—ALL THE ENTHUSIASM IN HIS BEHALF—DOCKERY A DEMOCRATIC VOTE-MAKING INSTITUTION.

Troy, N. C., August 31, 1888. Yesterday was a gala day for the Democracy of Montgomery county.

At seven o'clock the people began to pour in from every portion of the county till at 12 o'clock the crowd was estimated at 2,000 or 2,500.

Judge Fowle was met a mile from town by a procession of horse-back riders, and conducted through the town, and to the Covington House, through the shouts and huzzas of the people.

The procession was half a mile long, and was headed by three magnificent flags, carried by men on horse back; then came the Bellefonte Brass Band, in a beautifully decorated band wagon, followed by four horses, then came the riders, two and two, Judge Fowle, after a few minutes' rest was escorted to the Speaker's stand, which had been erected in the Academy Grove by the solid Democrats (white men) of Montgomery.

In a few moments a shout went up from Allen's Hotel where Dockery had stopped, and in a short while old man Oliver hove in sight followed by the bootlegs, rag-tags and negroes yelling at the top of their voices.

Mr. Forney, of Alabama, interrupted the proceedings by calling up the conference report on the sundry civil appropriation bill, but Mr. Townsend raised the question of consideration and in his opposition to the conference report he was sustained by Mr. Breckinridge, of Arkansas, who declared an opportunity to call up the bill for free cotton bagging.

Mr. Sherman—I think that the bill is inconsistent with the treaty, but as the Chinese government declines to make the proposed changes we have unquestioned right to pass this bill.

Mr. Sherman—Undoubtedly, because under it, it is provided that for a certain time and under certain circumstances, Chinese laborers who have been here have the right to come back, and it is only because its provisions have been violated by fraud and perjury that such a law as that is justifiable.

Mr. Sherman—Undoubtedly, because under it, it is provided that for a certain time and under certain circumstances, Chinese laborers who have been here have the right to come back, and it is only because its provisions have been violated by fraud and perjury that such a law as that is justifiable.

Mr. Sherman—Undoubtedly, because under it, it is provided that for a certain time and under certain circumstances, Chinese laborers who have been here have the right to come back, and it is only because its provisions have been violated by fraud and perjury that such a law as that is justifiable.

Mr. Sherman—Undoubtedly, because under it, it is provided that for a certain time and under certain circumstances, Chinese laborers who have been here have the right to come back, and it is only because its provisions have been violated by fraud and perjury that such a law as that is justifiable.

Mr. Sherman—Undoubtedly, because under it, it is provided that for a certain time and under certain circumstances, Chinese laborers who have been here have the right to come back, and it is only because its provisions have been violated by fraud and perjury that such a law as that is justifiable.

Mr. Sherman—Undoubtedly, because under it, it is provided that for a certain time and under certain circumstances, Chinese laborers who have been here have the right to come back, and it is only because its provisions have been violated by fraud and perjury that such a law as that is justifiable.

Mr. Sherman—Undoubtedly, because under it, it is provided that for a certain time and under certain circumstances, Chinese laborers who have been here have the right to come back, and it is only because its provisions have been violated by fraud and perjury that such a law as that is justifiable.

LABOR DAY. GRAND DEMONSTRATION AT NEW YORK.

AN INTERESTING PROGRAMME OF DEMONSTRATIONS AND DEMONSTRATIONS—THE CITY IN HOLIDAY ATTIRE.

New York, Sept. 3.—There was magnificent weather today for the celebration of labor day. The city at large put on a holiday appearance and residents were astir early.

The grand parade was the particular feature of the day, and was estimated that 4,000 persons were in line. The means for the thorough enjoyment of the day were ample and included a mammoth picnic at Phoenix Park, the annual races of six different yacht clubs, the canoe club trial races and the athletic club games in plenty between this and adjacent towns, games of ball between the New York and Philadelphia clubs and the Brooklyn and St. Louis clubs and numerous other ball games less pretentious, the Volunteer Veterans' jollification and matinees at most of the theatres in this city and Brooklyn.

There was also a Knights of Labor picnic at Salvers Harlem River Park, a picnic of the Ancient Order of Hibernians at Jones Wood, besides innumerable other games and festivities of every conceivable description. Courts, public offices, all exchanges Democratic and Republican national headquarters were closed all day.

The display made in the parade by Typographical Union, No. six with Began 60th regiment at the head and various chapters of the morning and evening newspapers elected commentators everywhere. Work for the day in most of the large establishments and factories throughout the city and adjacent towns was suspended. It took nearly an hour and a half for the parade to pass a given point.

Mr. C. A. Sheldon, of Evansville, Ind., while representing a colored man's newspaper in Princeton, had the indiscretion to utter some straight Democratic sentiments. He thereupon had thrust into his hand this note, to which the attention of Mr. Murat Halstead is kindly invited:

If you come here to make a Democratic speech you had better take the first train home, or by G— we will hang you.—N. Y. Herald.

The Seventh District Democrats met at Rocky Mount yesterday, and nominated Mr. Jas. G. Sills, of Nashville and Dr. W. J. King, of Wilson, for the Senate. There was a big turnout and such enthusiasm, as it did a party man's heart good to see. Everything was harmonious and the ticket nominated will win by a large majority.

Mr. C. A. Sheldon, of Evansville, Ind., while representing a colored man's newspaper in Princeton, had the indiscretion to utter some straight Democratic sentiments. He thereupon had thrust into his hand this note, to which the attention of Mr. Murat Halstead is kindly invited:

If you come here to make a Democratic speech you had better take the first train home, or by G— we will hang you.—N. Y. Herald.

Mr. C. A. Sheldon, of Evansville, Ind., while representing a colored man's newspaper in Princeton, had the indiscretion to utter some straight Democratic sentiments. He thereupon had thrust into his hand this note, to which the attention of Mr. Murat Halstead is kindly invited:

If you come here to make a Democratic speech you had better take the first train home, or by G— we will hang you.—N. Y. Herald.

Mr. C. A. Sheldon, of Evansville, Ind., while representing a colored man's newspaper in Princeton, had the indiscretion to utter some straight Democratic sentiments. He thereupon had thrust into his hand this note, to which the attention of Mr. Murat Halstead is kindly invited:

If you come here to make a Democratic speech you had better take the first train home, or by G— we will hang you.—N. Y. Herald.

Mr. C. A. Sheldon, of Evansville, Ind., while representing a colored man's newspaper in Princeton, had the indiscretion to utter some straight Democratic sentiments. He thereupon had thrust into his hand this note, to which the attention of Mr. Murat Halstead is kindly invited:

W. H. & R. S. TUCKER & CO. Fall Trade. Autumn and winter shades in the new Faillies Francaise dress silks with novelties and accessories to retail in new autumn and winter shades with plushes to match.

DR. PRICE'S CREAM BAKING POWDER. FULL WEIGHT PURE. Its superior excellence proven in millions of homes for more than a quarter of a century.

W. H. & R. S. TUCKER & CO. Fall Trade. Autumn and winter shades in the new Faillies Francaise dress silks with novelties and accessories to retail in new autumn and winter shades with plushes to match.

W. H. & R. S. TUCKER & CO. Fall Trade. Autumn and winter shades in the new Faillies Francaise dress silks with novelties and accessories to retail in new autumn and winter shades with plushes to match.

PHIL. H. ANDREWS & CO. HEADQUARTERS. Office No. 18, telephone No. 79, East Martin Street, Adams Building.

COAL. Anthracite.—White and red ash, broken, egg and nut, for grates and stoves.

WOOD. Illuminating oil, from a quart to a barrel, from 12 1/2 to the highest grade.

WINKELMANN'S DIARRHEA, DYSENTERY, CHOLERA REMEDY. AN UNEXCELLED SPECIFIC IN CASES OF DIARRHEA, CHOLERA, SUMMER COMPLAINT, DYSENTERY AND OTHER AFFECTIONS OF THE STOMACH AND BOWELS.