THE LINCOLN DEMOCRACY. A Grand Rally at Denver. Cor. of the News and Observer. LOUISVILLE, N. C., Sept. 24. The Democracy of Lincoln county held a grand rally last Saturday at Denver, a little over fifteen miles east of Lincoln. Hon. G. W. Sanderlin was the orator of the occasion. He was escorted to the place by a procession half a mile long—the biggest procession he had seen during the campaign. The procession entered the town about 11:30 o'clock, the features of which were flags and bannans waving and enthusiastic shouts echoing and re-echoing from one end of the line to the other.

Judge D. G. Fowle, Democratic candidate for Governor, and Col. O. H. Dockery, Republican candidate for the same office, held a joint discussion in Lenoir, last Wednesday, before quite a large crowd of the citizens of Caldwell. They spoke from a platform raised on the piazza of Deal & Deal's store. Judge Fowle was introduced by Mr. Edmund Jones and spoke for an hour, and was followed by Col. Dockery, who was introduced by Mr. D. M. Piatt and who spoke for the same length of time. Judge Fowle had twenty minutes in which to reply and Col. Dockery had a rejoinder of the same length of time.

In a weak moment Dockery acknowledged that the North Carolina Democracy, through its Governors and Legislatures, had done its duty in regard to the Internal Revenue system and had done all it could to do it. "But," says he, "it is not a State issue, as the Governor of North Carolina has nothing to do with it."

Another Big Loss by the Richmond & Danville. It is stated that the Richmond and Danville proposes to lease the East Tennessee for ninety-nine years, and the details are now being arranged. President George S. Scott, of the Richmond and Danville, has submitted in writing the general outline of a proposition to the East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia, and it is said that the paper is in all material points satisfactory to the East Tennessee managers.

Long Meets Nichols. COR. OF THE NEWS AND OBSERVER. HAY RIVER, Sept. 27, 1888. According to appointment Messrs. Nichols and Purnell arrived here last night, and Jacob A. Long, Esq., came on request from Graham, to divide time with Long, but on seeing that the crowd was bent on hearing him, Nichols yielded.

Mr. Long answered Nichols' arguments most handsomely. Nichols, on two or three occasions, interrupted him with questions, but he got such stinging replies that he gave it up. There were a good many "Nichols" men here last election, but this speaking has turned many from him. Long deserves many compliments and great credit.

One hundred and fifty yards, in thirty-eight seconds! That's what our boys made in Greensboro yesterday. Hurrah for 'em! Let us give them the biggest sort of welcome this morning. They deserve it.

CONGRESS. PROCEEDINGS YESTERDAY IN SENATE AND HOUSE.

THE MATTER OF THE RELIEF OF THE YELLOW FEVER SUFFERERS—THE MATTER OF THE RAILWAY MAIL SERVICE—OTHER NEWS. By Telegraph to the News and Observer. WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—SENATE.—The Chair was occupied today by Mr. Manderson, by designation of the presiding officer, Mr. Lagalle.

Mr. Call offered a resolution instructing the committee on epidemic diseases to consider and report before the adjournment of this session of Congress such additional legislation as may be necessary and useful to prevent the importation of contagious or infectious diseases from foreign countries on the coast or boundary of the United States and to prevent and suppress it in inter-State commerce and in the relations of such persons as may be detained by the public authorities.

Mr. Sherman, from the committee on foreign relations, reported back without any recommendation, the resolution offered by him for an inquiry into the relations between the United States and Great Britain and the Dominion of Canada, and it was placed on the calendar.

Mr. Gibson, of Louisiana, opened the discussion by saying that he was under the impression that the American people were weary of such a constitutional and revolutionary modes to revise the relations between the people of the States and the Federal government.

Mr. Nichols, of Louisiana, said he would rather be a dog and bay the moon than make himself a scoundrel or medium by which the base impulses and neighborhood feuds and difficulties of his countrymen in any State could be brought into such an August place. He had in his desk numerous letters and newspaper extracts alleging to the open public the buying of votes in an election in Rhode Island but he would scorn to bring them before the Senate.

THE YELLOW FEVER. THE MISSISSIPPI VALLEY MEDICAL ASSOCIATION ON THE PLAGUE.

ITS VIEW OF THE QUARANTINE—THE SHOTGUN ON THE MISSISSIPPI RIVER—OTHER NEWS. By Telegraph to the News and Observer. ST. LOUIS, Mo., Sept. 27.—The Mississippi Valley Medical Association which is in session here adopted resolutions which declare that yellow fever is not contagious in the ordinary sense of the term; deprecate the quarantines now existing in many Southern communities; declare the self-imposed quarantine now in force in States north of the infected districts absurd and inhuman; that quarantine should apply to personal effects rather than to the individual; that such effects coming from infected districts should be burned, and that towns in the north may safely provide houses for the care of the sick.

The steamer City of Providence, which runs regularly between this city and Natchez, Miss., arrived here yesterday afternoon with nearly 200 people, chiefly women and children, on board, who have fled from the lower river towns on account of the yellow fever scare. They come principally from Vicksburg, Greenville, Natchez and other points below Memphis. There was no sickness during the trip and none of the passengers are from any of the infected districts.

At six o'clock, while Mr. Spooner was speaking, an unparliamentary contest sprang up between himself and Mr. Coke. Mr. Butler interposed with a motion to adjourn and the Senate at 6 p. m. adjourned till Monday.

In the consideration of the morning hour Mr. Blount, of Georgia, called up the bill providing for general superintendent of railway mail service at a salary of $4,000, assistant superintendent at a salary of $3,000, chief clerk at a salary of $2,000, and as many chief clerks as may be necessary at a salary of $1,500 each.

Mr. Blount congratulated the country upon the growth of the postal service and its increased efficiency. In 1875 the mails were carried over 76,000 miles of railroads, and in 1887 they were carried over 107,000 miles. In 1879 the number of pieces of mail matter handled by the postal clerks was 2,659,000; in 1887 it increased to 5,851,000. The increase of salaries proposed by the bill would amount to $2,300,000 annually.

RAH FOR RALEIGH. SHE WINS THE TWO FIRST HONORS AT GREENSBORO.

THE INDEPENDENTS COVER THEMSELVES WITH GLORY—THEIR SKILL AND GALLANT BEARING—OTHER NEWS. By Telegraph to the News and Observer. GREENSBORO, N. C., Sept. 27.—Raleigh ought to feel proud of the honors which have been won for her today. The second day of the grand Firemen's Tournament, which has been a magnificent success from beginning to end, has just closed. The independent Hose Company of Raleigh held their own gallantly, winning the two most important contests of the day and well may they be proud of their victories, for right nobly were they opposed by numerous competing companies.

The first prize in the Reel Race, one hundred dollars, was won by Raleigh, the distance being 150 yards and the time 38 seconds. Raleigh also won the first prize in the Grab Race, fifty dollars. The foot race was won by T. E. Adams, of Greensboro. Admirable skill and training have been exhibited in all the features of the Tournament. The Raleigh boys won loud applause, and were frequently complimented on their skill, and their handsome and graceful bearing. They appreciate highly the many courtesies shown them by Mr. C. D. Benbow, Secretary of the Tournament, and the members of the Greensboro companies.

In the voting contest, one of the most popular features of the occasion, a handsome basket of flowers was awarded to Miss Annie Tate, of Charlotte, as the most popular young lady, and a similar token to Mr. Tom Boyd as the most popular fireman. Both were presented by Judge Thos. Settle, in his own inimitable and handsome style.

The Tournament winds up tonight with a grand ball complimentary to visiting ladies and gentlemen. The occasion has been a superb success. Greensboro has done the graceful thing throughout, as she always does, and few occasions will ever be remembered more pleasantly either by the thousands of visitors who have been here or by the good people of the "City of Flowers."
