Death of Dr. Parker. The Elizabeth City Economist, referring to the death of the late Dr. Parker, of this city, says :

"Dr. Joseph Parker, who died very suddenly in Raleigh early in September, was long a resident of Gates county and a conspicuous citizen of the Albemarle section. He was the oldest son of the late David Parker. of Gates county, who, after the burden of old age had overcome his energies, made his eldest son his confidential and trusted agent in his widely extended business. This trust

A Life on the Ocean Wave

Indurates the stomach against sea sickness, but a single or occasional transit across the "illimi-table wetness" is productive of grievous qualms, especially when it is stormy. Uccan travelers, yatchmen, ship srugcens, commercial buyers sent abroad, voyagers by steamboat, and all who are occasionally or frequently called upon to be where "billows are buffeted," should take along Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, the finest known antidote for sea sickness, malaria, billousness, and disorders of the stomach and bowels, Many travelers by railroad, with delicate stomachs and nerves, likewise suffer severely en routs. These will find the Bitters surely hopeful and comsola-tory. Travelling, even in swift, stea y and com-modious steamships and sumptuous palace cars, is not always a source of unnixed joy and de-light, and the Bitters does much to counteract the discomforts attending it, agravated by deli-cate health. Rheumatism, brought on by damp weather, kidney troubles and debility, are effec-tually relieved by the Bitters. Indurates the stomach against sea sickness, but

The Supreme Court has decided that to levy more taxes than is necessary for the expense of the government is robbery pure and simple. This cry of the Republican party that the tarif makes men's wages higher is all tosh. No man, however much his interest is protected, pays more wages than his neighbor who has no protection.-Hon. D. G. Fowle.
