

ROYAL BAKING POWDER Absolutely Pure.

This powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness.

WOOLCOTT & SON, 14 East Martin Street.

Our stock of FAUST & SON'S CELEBRATED SCHOOL SHOES.

Is complete and comprises all sizes and widths, and we warm every pair.

Turkish Towels, 10, 15 and 17 1/2.

Special bargains in all wool Hosiery.

Cross Bargains in Damask Table Linens.

Trimming, Laces, Embroideries, Millinery, Ribbons, etc.

For School Children: Writing Pad, 1, 4, 5, and 10 each.

OUR GOODS ARE MARKED IN PLAIN FIGURES.

EDWARD FASNACH, JEWELER & OPTICIAN.

Optical Department.

OUR ARTIFICIAL Human Eyes.

Raleigh Marble Works.

Branch Yard, Lawler's Old Stand.

DESIGNS.

Chas. A. Goodwin.

Wilmington, N. C. Oct. 1, 1888. If that city does not double its population in ten years I shall be greatly surprised.

THE CLEARING. Three years ago cleared off a large amount of rubbish. If the city had been doomed you would have seen no recovery.

THE WILMINGTON SEACOAST RAILROAD is another grand enterprise for the city. This runs to Wrightsville and is well equipped with fine rolling stock.

CAROLINA BEACH. Fifteen miles below Wilmington, reached by an hour's ride on a pleasant steamer.

THE BEACH. The harbor has greatly improved and the treatment has also dredged the channel until steamers drawing 18 or 20 feet of water now come up the river.

CORROX COMPRESSION. run by steam, and convenient to ship the cotton at once either by rail or by steamer.

At the lower end of town you find the Carolina Crocoite Company. This has a capital of half a million dollars.

for making pine hair, pine matting, and lately cotton bagging of better and cheaper quality than the jute bagging of hemp.

In addition to all these signs of improvement, they have three live daily newspapers, all helping to build and boom the city.

Then I should mention the fact that the railroad from Fayetteville to the city is being rapidly pushed forward to completion.

M. E. Bida, a French lion-tamer, tells a remarkable story. A lion and lioness dwelt together for years in harmony.

Hon. F. M. Simmons, Democratic candidate for Congress, will address the people of the 2d district as follows: Snow Hill, Wednesday, Oct. 3d.

Chas. A. Goodwin.

CONGRESS. PROCEEDINGS YESTERDAY IN SENATE AND HOUSE.

THE JOINT RESOLUTION FOR THE AID OF YELLOW FEVER SUFFERERS—THE DEFICIENCY BILL.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2.—SENATE.—The resolution offered by Mr. Call on the 27th September instructing the committee on epidemic diseases to consider and report before the adjournment of this session of Congress, additional legislation to prevent the importation thereof on the coasts and boundaries of the United States, was taken up and Mr. Call proceeded to speak upon it.

After discussion by Messrs. Call, Blair, Pascoe, Chandler, Berry and Morgan, the resolution and amendment were referred to the committee on epidemic diseases.

The conference report on the deficiency bill was presented by Mr. Hale and explained by him. After discussion the conference report was agreed to and the Senate insisted on its disagreements to the items still in controversy.

The conference report on the joint resolution in aid of the sufferers from yellow fever was presented and agreed to after some explanatory remarks by Mr. Edwards.

Mr. Edwards. The House confers upon the same thing. The Senate confers thought that they had accomplished the end without wounding the Constitutional sensibilities of anybody.

Mr. Jones, of Nevada, offered a resolution (which was referred to the committee on foreign relations) requesting the President to negotiate treaties with the government of Her Britannic Majesty and with the Republic of Mexico respectively for the exclusion of Chinese laborers from the North American continent.

A resolution was reported and adopted authorizing Mr. Hale's committee on civil service reform to continue its session during the recess.

On motion of Mr. Forney, of Alabama, a bill was passed authorizing the construction of a bridge across the Coosa River, Ala.

Mr. Barnes, of Missouri, presented the conference report on the joint resolution in aid of the yellow fever sufferers. (As agreed to in conference the resolution appropriates $100,000 to be expended under the direction of the President whenever in his opinion such expenditure will tend to the eradication of the epidemic of yellow fever now existing in the United States or prevent its spread from State to State.)

Mr. Kilgore, of Texas, raised a point of order that the resolution was not properly in conference. He had objected to the consideration of the Senate resolution because he considered it out of whack with the Constitution. The resolution had gone to the committee on appropriations, which had reported back an original resolution which was supposed to be in harmony with the constitution, and that resolution the House had passed.

Mr. Wheeler, of Alabama, hoped that the report would be agreed to. The resolution was intended not only to aid the people of the stricken districts, but to protect all the people of the country, including the people of the State of Texas.

Mr. Dougherty, of Florida, expressed the thanks of the people of Florida for the liberal spirit exhibited by Congress in providing money for the handling of the scourge of fever. The report was agreed to.

Mr. Milliken, of Maine, introduced a joint resolution granting a month's extra salary to the House and Senate employees. The resolution provoked debate, several members objecting to it. Pending a vote the House, at 1:55, adjourned.

COOL WEATHER. A SLIGHT COLD WAVE PREDICTED FOR THIS REGION.

A STORM WARNING ALSO GIVEN—A HEAVY SNOWFALL IN MICHIGAN—OTHER NEWS.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2.—A decided fall in temperature, constituting a slight cold wave, is expected, and cold wave signals are ordered for Southern New England, the Middle Atlantic States, Kentucky and Northern Arkansas.

OLD HUTCH' AS SEEN IN THE CHICAGO BOARD OF TRADE. For three fourths of the year the markets on the Board of Trade here are dominated, controlled and dictated by one man—B. P. Hutchinson, or "Old Hutch," as he is more familiarly called.

A few weeks ago, while coming down the steps leading from the rooms of the Century Club, in a building opposite the Board of Trade, the old man fell down the whole flight, alighting on a stone floor, where he remained some hours until discovered by the janitor.

"I'm glad to see you out, Mr. Hutchinson," said an operator cheerily, as the master of the board put in an appearance.

"Well, you won't be so glad in an hour or so as you are now," growled the old man as he took his accustomed seat. In a few moments the market felt the influence of "Hutch's" presence, and the men who, in his absence, had been thrashing around as whales found themselves reduced to their normal size as minnows.

In trading the old man is singularly independent. Other operators will chase each other around the chamber with cablesgrams from Europe and telegrams from all parts of the continent regarding the state of the crops, but Hutchinson never gets any advice from anywhere.

His favorite way of trading is to pass his card around the pit, with the remark, "Here, boys, put down what you want to buy or sell; I'll accommodate you." Bulges and slumps are alike to him; he is a bull and a bear; he usually makes money on what breaks traders, who have to all appearances been trading right along with him.

Once and awhile he is caught in this way, but so shrewd is the old man and so "cute" it is hard to corner him. He will make trades and realize on a fluctuation of a sixteenth of a cent. Some days his operations are so vast and multitudinous that his settling clerks are well-nigh driven crazy by the amount of scribbles and yet there is not a trade the aged speculator has not in hand.

Some days when the humor strikes him he will hold the market within narrow limits and enjoy the discomfiture of the chronic bulls and bears who vainly endeavor to get prices out of the rut. On such days as this the old man is commendably industrious and busy as a bee.

A Young Author—Damage to the Tobacco Crops of a New Railroad. RUFFIN, N. C., Oct. 1, 1888. It is reported that Mr. W. B. Edmondson, a young lawyer of this county, is the author of a most humorous oration on American politics.

THE PEOPLE OF THE ENTIRE STATE will cordially unite with me in the earnest prayer that the survivor of that oration of eminent North Carolinians may be spared to honor the high office that Henderson and Ruffin, Nash and Pearson have graced with their learning and virtue.

Heavy frosts are reported in many sections of Virginia, and snow in the southwestern portion of the State.

Salvation Oil is the celebrated American remedy for cuts, bruises, sprains, burns, scalds, chilblains, etc.

REMARKS OF MR. F. M. SIMMONS.

On Presenting the Portrait of Chief Justice Frederick Nash to the Supreme Court of North Carolina.

THE BROTHER OF ABNER NASH was the intrepid General Francis Nash, decidedly the most renowned soldier that the State contributed to the Continental army, whose life's blood was poured out upon the disastrous field of Germantown.

Complaints are sometimes heard that certain counties have been too highly favored in the preference of their sons; but I imagine that few patriotic and intelligent North Carolinians would care to read the earlier history of the State if the record of the lives and deeds of the sons of Craven, Halifax, Warren and Orange were stricken from its pages.

After considerable success at the bar, the young lawyer was again elected to the House of Commons in 1814, and chosen as Speaker. He possessed rare qualifications for this position.

In 1818 he was elected one of the Judges of the Superior Court and rode the various circuits until 1826, when he resigned to re-enter upon the practice of his profession.

Such is the bare skeleton of the services of a man who was indeed a model judge. Not possessed of the oratorical genius of Gaston, nor endowed with the massive force of Ruffin, yet to fill all the manifold requirements demanded of a judge of an appellate court, Chief Justice Nash was as well fitted as either.

Clear in his conception of the law, well versed in its precedents, of singular felicity of language and chasteness of expression, with a simplicity and terseness that would have honored Westminster Hall, he has left opinions which may well bear comparison with those of his great co-laborer.

As a man and a life-long christian he was pre-eminently attractive.

His manner was the perfection of an old-time courtier that has so few representatives left. To the young he was patient and marvelously considerate, and he was generous to a degree that impoverished his estate.

The local committees are urgently requested to advertise these appointments by hand-bills and otherwise.

THE LOCAL COMMITTEES are urgently requested to advertise these appointments by hand-bills and otherwise.

THE LOCAL COMMITTEES are urgently requested to advertise these appointments by hand-bills and otherwise.

THE LOCAL COMMITTEES are urgently requested to advertise these appointments by hand-bills and otherwise.

THE LOCAL COMMITTEES are urgently requested to advertise these appointments by hand-bills and otherwise.

THE LOCAL COMMITTEES are urgently requested to advertise these appointments by hand-bills and otherwise.

THE R. & D. WILL LEASE THE EAST TENNESSEE.

THE LEASE TO BE MADE UP AND FINALY RATIFIED ON TUESDAY NEXT.

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—The directors of the East Tennessee Railroad met today and received a proposition from the directors of the Richmond & Danville Railroad to lease the East Tennessee property for a period of twenty years on a per centage of the earnings.

A Norfolk, Va., special of Sunday says: Norfolk society is greatly agitated over the elopement of Miss Lillie B. Leigh with Mr. Geoffrey Morgan, son of Sir Walter Morgan, late A. C. J. of Madras, Naiah House, Nalaise, a young gentleman who has been in this country for only a short time.

Today it is the principal topic of conversation in social circles, and on account of the social standing of the bride and groom is much talked of.

Public Speaking. Hon. F. N. Stridwick, Democratic candidate for Governor for the State at Large, and Hon. W. H. Kitchin, will address the people on the issues of the campaign at the following times and places:

Wednesday, 3d Oct., Kernersville, Forsyth county.

Thursday, 4th Oct., Jonesboro, Moore county.

Saturday, 6th Oct., Hope Mills, Cumberland county.

Monday, 8th Oct., Laurel Hill Church, Richmond county.

Tuesday, 9th Oct., Polkton, Anson county.

Wednesday, 10th Oct., Lumberton, Robeson county.

Thursday, 11th Oct., Bladenboro, Bladen county.

Friday, 12th Oct., Wilmington, New Hanover county.

Saturday, 13th Oct., South Washington, Fender county.

Monday, 15th Oct., Faison, Duplin county.

Some Good Advice.

During the present Congress Mr. Henderson has been representing three districts, his own, the fourth and the fifth. The Raleigh and Greensboro districts failed to elect Representatives two years ago, when the opportunity to do so was offered them, and then turned to Mr. Henderson to represent them; but he is one of the most obliging of gentlemen, as well as one of the most industrious, and has cared of course to two persons for each of them with pleasure to himself and satisfaction to them.

The burden of doing so would have been very great to an indolent man, but he is a tireless worker, and has found time to meet all the demands upon him, and to meet them well. It is none of our business to be sure, nevertheless we take the liberty to suggest very respectfully to the voters of the fourth and fifth congressional districts that inasmuch as the government is paying for their salaries a chair each in the House of Representatives, those chairs had as well be occupied by gentlemen who would give Mr. Henderson a little assistance occasionally.

Measrs. B. H. Bunn and J. T. Morehead would be about the right men for the fourth and fifth districts think well of the suggestion we would be pleased to see them act upon it in November.

APPOINTMENTS. For Hon. D. G. Fowle and Hon. T. F. Deane. Hon. Daniel G. Fowle, Democratic candidate for Governor, and Hon. T. F. Davidson, Democratic candidate for Attorney General, will address the people on the issues of the campaign at the following times and places:

Wednesday, Oct. 3, Nashville, Nash Co.

Friday, Oct. 5, Wilson, Wilson Co.

Saturday, Oct. 6, Smithfield, Johnston Co.

Monday, Oct. 8, Fayetteville, Cumberland Co.

Tuesday, Oct. 9, Dunn, Harnett Co.

Thursday, Oct. 11, Carthage, Moore Co.

Friday, Oct. 12, Rockingham, Richmond Co.

Saturday, Oct. 13, Maxton, Robeson Co.

Monday, Oct. 15, Elizabethtown, Bladen Co.

Tuesday, Oct. 16, Whiteville, Columbus Co.

Thursday, Oct. 18, Burgaw, Pamlico Co.

Bull's Baby Syrup.

Facilitates Teething! First only 25 cents. Sold at druggists. Regulates the Bowels!

Day's Horse POWDER.

For the cure of Coughs, Colds, Croup, Hoarseness, Asthma, Whooping Cough, Indigestion, Bronchitis, and for the relief of all Consumptive Persons. At druggists, 25 cents.

35 SALVATION OIL.

BULL'S COUGH SYRUP.

For the cure of Coughs, Colds, Croup, Hoarseness, Asthma, Whooping Cough, Indigestion, Bronchitis, and for the relief of all Consumptive Persons. At druggists, 25 cents.

THE REASON WHY.—First Poetical At Piran's (second ditto) "So you say you've sent off more than a hundred poems and none had one returned!" Second P. A.—"That's what I said." First P. A.—"That's a phenomenal success! I wish I knew the secret." Second P. A.—"Well, I've sometimes thought it was because I never enclosed any postage stamps."—Life.

THE REASON WHY.—First Poetical At Piran's (second ditto) "So you say you've sent off more than a hundred poems and none had one returned!" Second P. A.—"That's what I said." First P. A.—"That's a phenomenal success! I wish I knew the secret." Second P. A.—"Well, I've sometimes thought it was because I never enclosed any postage stamps."—Life.

THE REASON WHY.—First Poetical At Piran's (second ditto) "So you say you've sent off more than a hundred poems and none had one returned!" Second P. A.—"That's what I said." First P. A.—"That's a phenomenal success! I wish I knew the secret." Second P. A.—"Well, I've sometimes thought it was because I never enclosed any postage stamps."—Life.

THE REASON WHY.—First Poetical At Piran's (second ditto) "So you say you've sent off more than a hundred poems and none had one returned!" Second P. A.—"That's what I said." First P. A.—"That's a phenomenal success! I wish I knew the secret." Second P. A.—"Well, I've sometimes thought it was because I never enclosed any postage stamps."—Life.

THE REASON WHY.—First Poetical At Piran's (second ditto) "So you say you've sent off more than a hundred poems and none had one returned!" Second P. A.—"That's what I said." First P. A.—"That's a phenomenal success! I wish I knew the secret." Second P. A.—"Well, I've sometimes thought it was because I never enclosed any postage stamps."—Life.

THE REASON WHY.—First Poetical At Piran's (second ditto) "So you say you've sent off more than a hundred poems and none had one returned!" Second P. A.—"That's what I said." First P. A.—"That's a phenomenal success! I wish I knew the secret." Second P. A.—"Well, I've sometimes thought it was because I never enclosed any postage stamps."—Life.

THE REASON WHY.—First Poetical At Piran's (second ditto) "So you say you've sent off more than a hundred poems and none had one returned!" Second P. A.—"That's what I said." First P. A.—"That's a phenomenal success! I wish I knew the secret." Second P. A.—"Well, I've sometimes thought it was because I never enclosed any postage stamps."—Life.

THE REASON WHY.—First Poetical At Piran's (second ditto) "So you say you've sent off more than a hundred poems and none had one returned!" Second P. A.—"That's what I said." First P. A.—"That's a phenomenal success! I wish I knew the secret." Second P. A.—"Well, I've sometimes thought it was because I never enclosed any postage stamps."—Life.

THE REASON WHY.—First Poetical At Piran's (second ditto) "So you say you've sent off more than a hundred poems and none had one returned!" Second P. A.—"That's what I said." First P. A.—"That's a phenomenal success! I wish I knew the secret." Second P. A.—"Well, I've sometimes thought it was because I never enclosed any postage stamps."—Life.