

DOCKERY VOTING FOR NEGRO NOMINEES.

Like a bound slave Dockery votes as his negro masters order, and so must all other Radicals do. The reason why is the Radical party has 105,000 negroes to only 20,000 white men in it. Of course the negroes rule it.

DOCKERY'S TICKET IN 1884.
At the election in Richmond county in 1884 Oliver H. Dockery, the present Republican candidate for Governor, voted as follows:
To represent the public in the Legislature he voted for Harvey Quick, a negro lawyer, against John W. Sneed, one of the best white farmers of Richmond county.
For Coroner he voted for Felix Jacobs, a negro man, against Daniel Gay, a one-legged Confederate soldier.
For Register of Deeds he voted for one N. W. Harlee, a negro man, against Alexander L. McDonald, a white man competent to fill the office, and universally esteemed in the county for his courteous bearing.

THE ANNIVERSARY OF KING GEORGE'S ACCESSION TO THE THRONE
CELEBRATED ON A GRAND SCALE - CONGRATULATIONS SENT BY PRESIDENT CLEVELAND - OTHER NEWS.

By Cable to the News and Observer.
ATHENS, Nov. 1.—The festivities yesterday in honor of the twenty-fifth anniversary of King George's accession to the throne were celebrated on a grand scale. The weather was splendid. The buildings of the city were profusely decorated and the streets were thronged with visitors. The native population were dressed in picturesque costumes. In the morning the King and the Duke of Sparta, the Crown Prince, rode on horseback at the head of a grand procession to the cathedral, where a Te Deum was celebrated in the presence of the Royal family and many distinguished guests. At the conclusion of the services a salute of 100 guns was fired. Returning to the Palace the King addressed the people from a balcony thanking them for their expressions of loyalty.
A reception followed in the throne room and ministers, diplomats and other notable persons offered their felicitations to the King. Mr. Fearn, U. S. Minister, presented a telegram of congratulations from President Cleveland. The rulers of all the European countries sent similar messages and a special envoy presented a letter from the Shah of Persia. There was a torchlight procession in the evening and the city was brilliantly illuminated. A royal decree has been issued promoting the Duke of Sparta to captain of infantry. The anniversary was celebrated by festivities throughout the province.

Refused to Pay Taxes.
By Telegraph to the News and Observer.
CHARLESTON, Nov. 1.—Last April a number of citizens refused to pay the municipal license tax on the ground that it was double tax and unconstitutional. The city court tried sixty or seventy cases and condemned the defendants to pay a fine, or in default, to imprisonment. An appeal was taken to the Supreme Court, which affirmed the constitutionality of the license law. Today twelve executions were issued by the city sheriff and five served. The defendants refused to pay the fine and were committed to jail.

London, Nov. 1.—At the sitting of the Parnell commission today, Chas. O'Shea was recalled to the witness stand. He submitted the protest referred to in his evidence yesterday regarding his exclusion from Parliament by Mr. Parnell. The taking of the evidence of the policemen who had taken short-hand reports as to the correctness of their notes was then resumed.

MAKES A GRAND SPEECH—GATES

GATEVILLE, N. C., Nov. 1.—Senator Ransom, if possible, recalled himself here today. Everybody says it was the grandest speech they ever heard. The crowd was large and from necessity attentive. Gates is aroused. He was escorted into town by a large procession of horsemen, and at the close of his speech was presented by Senator Shaw, of Hertford, in behalf of the ladies of Gates, with a beautiful bouquet.

A TITLED BRIDE.
The Newly Married Count de Gontaut-Herbert's His American Wife.

Another failure must be added to the long list of unhappy unions between European titles and American dollars. Paris is talking here tonight about the sudden termination of the honeymoon of Count and Countess de Montalieri, nee Miss Virginia Knox, of Pittsburg. Their marriage was celebrated about a fortnight ago in Pittsburg with great éclat. The bridal couple arrived in Paris last Sunday and engaged a suite of rooms at the Hotel Bellevue in the Avenue de l'Opera, preparatory to continuing their journey to the castle which the Count said his mother possessed on the Adriatic.

It was apparent that the bride was not happy, and early on Monday morning the guests were aroused by shrieks from the Countess's chamber, followed by cries for help. Some guests dressed hastily and ran into the corridors. The manager of the hotel burst open the door and found the Countess struggling with her brutal husband, her hair disheveled, her night dress torn and her body bruised.

The Count released his victim, who rushed to the manager, crying help help help. "Save me from him. Turn him out of the hotel, he has got no money. He can't pay you. Turn him out!"

The Count protested against the interference and attempted to pull his wife back, whereupon she gave him a stinging blow in the face with her clenched fist. He tried to return the blow, but was prevented by the manager and the male guests.
The unfortunate bride told the manager she had been thoroughly deceived in her husband. She believed him to be a man of means, but learned to late that he was not only penniless but an inhuman brute. At first she supplied him liberally with money, but nothing seemed to satisfy him.
When she refused to give him more he commenced beating her. The manager told the couple he could not allow guests to be disturbed and that they must leave the hotel immediately. The unfortunate wife, who deeply felt the disgrace, burst into tears and pleaded to be allowed to remain, but the manager was inexorable.
They were obliged to leave and took the early train for Italy.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.—Constant thanksgiving and gratitude are due from the American people to Almighty God for His goodness and mercy, which have followed them since the day He made them, and vouchsafed to them a free government. With loving kindness He has continually led us in the way of prosperity and greatness. He has not visited with swift punishment our shortcomings, but with gracious care He has warned us of our dependence upon His forbearance and has taught us that obedience to His holy law is the price of a continuance of His precious gifts. In acknowledgment of all that God has done for us as a nation and to the end that on an appointed day the united prayers and praise of a grateful country may reach the Throne of Grace, I, Grover Cleveland, President of the United States, do hereby designate and set apart Thursday, the twenty-ninth day of November, instant, as a day of thanksgiving and prayer; to be kept and observed throughout the land.

On that day let all our people suspend their ordinary work and occupations, and in their accustomed places of worship with prayer and songs of praise, render thanks to God for all His mercies, for the abundant harvests which have rewarded the toil of the husbandman the year that has passed, and that have followed the labors of our people in their shops and their markets and traffic. Let us give thanks for peace and for the social order and contentment within our borders, and for our advancement in all that adds to national greatness.

Mindful of the affliction which a portion of our land has been visited, let us, while we humble ourselves before the power of God, acknowledge His mercy in setting bounds to the deadly march of the pestilence, and let our hearts be chastened by sympathy with our fellow countrymen, who have suffered and who mourn. And as we return thanks for all the blessings which we have received from the hands of our Heavenly Father, let us not forget that He has enjoined upon us charity; and on this day of thanksgiving let us generously remember the poor and needy, so that our tribute of praise and gratitude may be acceptable in the sight of the Lord.

Done at the city of Washington, on the first day of November, eighteen hundred and eighty-eight, in the year of the Independence of the United States the one hundred and thirtieth.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto signed my name and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

WARRENTON, N. C., Nov. 1.—Today's mail from your city brought to the judges of election at this place the most unprincipled and insulting sheet that ever came under a gentleman's observation. It is headed "Republican State Executive Committee" and signed by J. B. Eaves, chairman. I will not enumerate his villainous threats, for I am sure you have seen one ere this. I will say that the gentlemen for whom his threats were intended are thoroughly aroused and that Eaves had better keep his detestable and "Reliable" around him instead of at the ballot-box.

Fowle in Greenville.
Special to the News and Observer.

GREENVILLE, N. C., Nov. 1.—Judge Fowle was met today by a cavalcade of more than five hundred mounted Democrats about one mile from town and was welcomed to Greenville and Pitt county in a beautiful speech by Mr. F. G. James. The procession was led by a brass band and a wagon full of school girls, over whose head was a banner bearing this inscription: "We the Democratic ticket and protect us." The principal streets of the town were paraded amidst loud and enthusiastic cheers. Judge Fowle spoke from a beautifully decorated stand on the Court House square. The vast crowd cheered him throughout. His speech was magnificent and great good was done to the Democratic cause. At its conclusion Mr. J. B. Yellowly, in behalf of the large number of ladies present, presented him with an exquisite bouquet. Colonel Harry Skinner was then called upon and responded in an eloquent and patriotic speech.

The crowd was estimated at fully 3,000. A large torchlight procession, nearly half a mile long, is parading tonight.

Such a demonstration was never before known in Greenville. Pitt county is thoroughly aroused and will give a good report next Tuesday.

A Blaine Rev. Wav.
By Telegraph to the News and Observer.

NOVEMBER, Conn., November 1.—The largest political demonstration ever known in this part of Connecticut was made today. Mr. Blaine, accompanied by Adam King, of Baltimore, arrived from New York, by a special train about noon. He was driven to Washington Square in the centre of the city, accompanied by a reception committee headed by Hon. T. W. H. and Hon. H. H. O. Morgan G. Bulkeley, of Hartford, and Hon. Charles A. Russell, of Killingly. A procession of 2,000 men escorted the party to William's Park where an audience of 25,000 had gathered from all parts of eastern Connecticut. Addresses were made by Messrs. Blaine, King, Bulkeley and Russell.

LONDON, November 1.—It is stated that the Sackville incident is considered ended in government circles. Lord Sackville has not yet advised the government as to the date of his return. It is possible that some time may elapse before a new minister is sent to Washington. American circles here are anxious that Lord Dufferin should be appointed to the post.

The Cockney's View.
By Cable to the News and Observer.

LONDON, Nov. 1.—The St. James Gazette, referring to the action of the United States government in the case of Lord Sackville says: "It would be most creditable to England if Secretary Bayard's insolence is treated with contempt. The American eagle is screeching. Let him screech. We are not exactly prepared to send iron-clads to Long Island because Mr. Bayard is outrageously offensive. Respectable Americans, who stand in neither with Mr. Cleveland nor Mr. Harrison, are nearly as much disgusted with the affair as Englishmen are."

Public Debt Statement.

BERLIN, November 1.—The National Zeitung says: "The frivolity with which international difficulties are provoked by political factions in America is especially evident in the Sackville affair. After the Republicans set a trap to catch the strikingly harmless English Minister and discredit Mr. Cleveland as the candidate of a foreigner, Mr. Cleveland himself tries to cross this maneuver by exaggerated severity against Lord Sackville. This conduct appears comical from the fact that Mr. Cleveland does not leave England in doubt as to his aim in so acting. This kind of thing is scarcely calculated to raise the reputation of the American Republic."

REPUBLICAN STATE EX. COM.
JOHN B. EAVES, CHM'N.
RALEIGH, N. C., Oct. 29, '88.
J. G. Young, Winston, N. C.:
DEAR SIR:—You are, I believe, the registrar of the precinct. I desire to have a few words with you. I will speak very plainly, in order that we may not misunderstand each other. I learn that you are refusing to register voters which may prove interesting reading. I commend to your careful consideration sections 2007, 2008, 5506 and 5515 of the Revised Statutes of the United States. The course which you are pursuing is one which will land you in the Federal penitentiary at Albany at an early day, and we shall take very early steps to place you there, unless you conduct yourself in a proper manner. These are very plain words and we do not think it will take you long to understand them. You can now do as you please.
Yours truly,
J. B. Eaves.

ANSWER OF MAL. YOUNG.
WINSTON, N. C., Oct. 31, 1888.
J. B. Eaves, Esq.,
Chairman Rep. Ex. Com.,
Raleigh, N. C.:—

SIR: Yours of the 29th inst. has been received and found me surrounded by a gang of ex-penitentiary convicts whose names your benchmen here are trying to force me to place upon the registration books of Winston. You are correct in your belief that I am the registrar in Winston precinct. I have no objection to your having a "few words" with me, and I am in no danger of misunderstanding you. I want it distinctly understood by you and your committee that I am not to be swayed from my duty by any such impudent and impertinent threats as you dare to make against me. You have received your information from some men here belonging to your party organization who are without character and who have no regard for the solemn obligations of an oath, and who, if they had their just deserts, would long since have been under the disqualification which you have been convicted of an infamous offense. I have refused no man the right to register at this precinct who is a bona fide resident and voter of Winston, and shall not do so. I have, as I have since ascertained, allowed some men to register who have served a term in the penitentiary, and who have since been challenged by gentlemen who are acquainted with the facts. In conclusion, I again desire to remind you that I am not to be intimidated from doing my whole duty by any idle threats of yours of "landing" me in the Federal penitentiary at Albany, but I would as the same time quietly intimate to you and your informers at this precinct that the continued, willful violation of the registration laws of our State will "land" some of your voters in the State penitentiary at Raleigh, and I desire to warn you and those who are aiding these attempted violators of the law that you and they had best keep a close lookout for yourselves. I conclude, as you did, that these are plain words,

WADDELL AND SANDERLIN.
A BIG DAY FOR THE DEMOCRAT OF GATES.
By Cable to the News and Observer.
GATEVILLE, N. C., Oct. 29, '88.
This has been a big day for the Democracy of Gates. Waddell and Sanderlin spoke here today to a large and appreciative crowd. It is a rare thing for the same audience to hear on the same day two such speeches as the people of Gates listened to today. The speakers each occupied nearly two hours, with an intermission of half an hour, and held the crowd throughout as attentively as if they had been listening to a sermon.

What a splendid team, Waddell and Sanderlin! One on the national side and the other on the State side of the pale of the Democratic chariot. The tariff is no day subject in the hands of the polished, scholarly, gifted and fluent Waddell. A plain, honest, hard-working farmer expressed the sentiment of many, when he said, soon after the speaking: "Well, I never heard the tariff made so plain in my life. I am just beginning to understand it. I wish I could vote a thousand Democratic votes."

The faces of the record of the Republican party in North Carolina loses none of its hideousness when portrayed by the cultured, humorous and brilliant Christian gentleman, who is going to be the next Auditor of North Carolina. An intelligent man remarked, in commenting upon Dr. Sanderlin's speech, that he never in all his life saw the color blue so decently and yet so effectually drawn.

Much good was done by these speeches, and we are going to give Senator Ransom a rousing time on Thursday.
The Democrats of Gates are now aroused and determined, and strong hopes are entertained that we will this year beat our former Democratic record. So mote it be.
