THE PORTSMOUTH RIOT. The City Quiet After the Riot. By Telegraph to the News and Observer. Norfolk, Va., Nov. 8.—Portsmouth is apparently quiet after last night's excitement. The authorities feel secure in their ability to preserve the peace. [Wednesday night the Legation of Portsmouth had an impromptu celebration of the Republican victory by arming themselves with clubs and marching through the city, shouting and yelling, and insulting women and children. In the suburbs they took possession of the streets, cars and drove the drivers out. Marching down town in front of the Democratic headquarters on High street the procession halted where a crowd of whites were congregated, and gave three cheers for Harrison and Morton. With this a white man and negro got to fighting, and a lively row ensued, pistol shots being rapid on both sides. The negroes scattered quickly in every direction, when it was ascertained that three white men were wounded—Frank Reiger, a ball through the thigh; Samuel W. Oast, a gunshot in the body. A tremendous excitement followed, and the streets were filled with people. Mayor Baird ordered out the Old Dominion Guard, Captain James M. Binford, to preserve the peace, and the troops were soon on duty on the streets. The Mayor, then telegraphed to Governor Lee as follows: PORTSMOUTH, Va., Nov. 7, 1888. His Excellency Gov. Fitzhugh Lee: An emergency has caused me to order the Old Dominion Guard military to suppress riot, and I am apprehensive of trouble here tonight, the negroes being on the rampage and having already wounded two of our citizens. Our women and children are in abject terror. Please telegraph your approval. With great consideration, I have the honor to be, J. THOMPSON BAIRD, Mayor.

By Telegraph to the News and Observer. WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 8.—The Treasury today accepted tenders of $1,250,450, four and one-half per cent. bonds at 108 1/2. Total aggregating $610,000 were rejected. Gen. Wheeler Re-Elected. By Telegraph to the News and Observer. CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Nov. 8.—Gen. Joe Wheeler is re-elected in the 8th Alabama district by an increased majority. Cleveland and How It Takes His Defeat. By Telegraph to the News and Observer. Washington Post, 10. The President talked quite freely yesterday about the returns and the increased Republican vote, but expressed not the slightest regret in the world at any action he had taken during his administration. He is willing to admit that his position on the tariff, and the approved stand he took in favor of revenue reduction, may have lost him a good many votes; but he still maintains that if it were to do over again, he would follow the dictates of his convictions. The bitter pill the President has to swallow is the partisan action of a number of Republicans whom he kept in office, and who voted and worked against him with all their power. Their department towards the administration is a source of great disappointment to him. The President has received no telegrams from New York City later than early in the afternoon. Later than he has heard, however, he concedes that he is defeated. No man ever took defeat more emphatically. He lays his defeat on no one. Hill and Tammany Hall, he says, treated him perfectly square, and he has no fault to find against them at all. NORTH CAROLINA NEWS. HAPPENINGS AS TOLD BY THE STATE PRESS. Wilmington Star: Major W. L. Young, Democratic candidate for surveyor, is the only man elected on the county ticket. The Democratic gain in this county is about 500. Mr. Congdon, of Georgetown, S. C., on Wednesday organized a branch of the United States Marine Engineers' Benevolent Association. Asheville Citizen: The full registration of the city was 1,681, and the vote was the fullest ever polled. Mayor Hill telegraphs that Hot Springs, Madison county, has gone Democratic by a large majority. A feature of the election in the west ward was the substitution of a coffee pot for the ballot box. Greensboro Patriot: Mr. C. F. King was married on Wednesday to Miss Mattie L. McRae. How Col. Wm. Johnston Voted. Charlotte Chronicle. The Chronicle was in error in saying Col. Wm. Johnston voted the Democratic ticket. The gentleman who placed Col. Johnston's ballots in the boxes for Governor and electors, says positively that the Colonel voted for Harrison and for Dockery. Of course this makes Col. Johnston solidly in line with the Republican party, and as the Chronicle had given a rumor to the contrary, it cheerfully makes this correction. The Coalition is Craven. The Coalition ticket in this county is again defeated, and this, we suppose, put an end to all efforts to secure such representation in the General Assembly as will prove beneficial to the county. The Republicans did not keep the faith as well as they did two years ago. On the night before the election the most bitter partisan speeches were made and the prejudices of the negro aroused, which told at the polls the next day. When old Judge Jowser was tucked in his little bed by Mrs. Jowser he couldn't sleep a wink until the excellent woman had brought a bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.
