AGAIN, POSSIBLY, THE WHITE-GHAPEL MURDER FIEND.

THE MURDERER FOILED IN HIS PLAN-THE SPORT OF THE WOMAN AT-TACKED-OTHER NEWS

By Cab's to the News and Observer-

LONDON, Nov. 21.—Great excitement was occasioned this morning when it was reported that another woman had been murdered and mutilated in Whiteshapel. The police immediately formed a cordon around the premises and an enormous crowd soon gathered. It was learned that another murder had been tempted by a man upon a low woman who had accompanied her to her lodgings, but that in this instance his work had been frustrated. According to the woman's story the man had seized her and struck her once in the throat with a knife. She had struggled desperately and had succeeded in freeing herself from the man's grasp and had screamed for help. Her cries had alarmed the man and he had fled without attempting any further violence. Some of the neighbors who heard the woman's screams followed the murderer for about three hundred yards, when he disappeared from their sight. The woman says she is fully able to identify the man and gave a description of him to the police. The police are hopeful of soon capturing him.

I p. m.—After the investigation of the facts the police are of the opinion that the attempted nurder in Whitechapel this morning was not the work of the man who committed the atrocious murders in that vicinity recently. No arrest has been made. The excitement among the people

By Cable to the News and Observer. LORDON, Nov. 21 —At a meeting of the Parnell Commission today, Mr. Reid, counsel for Mr. Edward Harrington, stated that Mr. Harrington did not choose to adopt the course he had advised in relation to an article abusing the commission which had appeared in Mr. Harrington's paper, the Kerry Sentine. Therefore he (Mr. Reid) was not in a position to say anything. Presiding Justice Han-nen asked Mr. Harrington if he had anything to say. Mr. Harrington re-plied that he had no statement to make except that he would accept the responsibility for what had appeared in his paper.

The judges retired and Mr. Harrington conversed unconcernedly with his brother Timothy until their return. In ten minutes the judges reappeared and Judge Hannen said Harrington had refused to adopt Reids advice. It would be wasting words to indicate how serious was the contempt of court of which his paper had been guilty. It was necessary that the authority of the court should be maintained and therefore such things must be scopped. He then

A NORPOLK BANK SUSPENDS. BUT THE FAILURE CAUSES NO ALARM IN

NEWS

BUSINESS CIRCLES By Telegraph to the News and Observer.

NORFOLK, Va., Nov. 21.—The Home Savings Bank of this city suspended this morning. The reason assigned for the failure by the board of directors is that reports recently circulated affecting its credit produced a run on the bank. The published statement giving its condition, Octo-ber 4th, states among the resources, loans and discounts $276,487, overdrafts $3,172; and among liabilities, capital stock paid in $50,000, individual deposits subject to check $265,589, demand certificates of deposit $1,115 and bills payable $5,000.

The directors stated this morning that from the cashier's statement made last night the board of direc-tors hoped the depositors would lose little if anything. The Home Savings Bank was founded upon the ruins of the old Freedmen's Savings Bank here and had among its depositors a number of colored people. Its New York correspondents were the Merchants' Exchange National and Continental banks. The failure has caused no alarm in banking and business

The Mortons to Visit the Harrisons. By Telegraph to the News and Observer.

Indianapolis, Nov. 21.-There seems to be practically no foundation for the published report that ex-Senator Warner Miller, ex-Senator Platt, Senator Frank Hiscock and Chauncey M. Depew will accompany Vice President elect Morton and wife on their coming visit to General and Mrs. Harrison.

Mr. Morton's contemplated visit is looked upon as an interchange of social amenities and no unusual political significance is, at this juncture, associated with his visit, the date of which will probably be announced at an early day. It is reliably stated that General Harrison has determined

Alexander county showed up on the 6th with four hundred democratic majority, casting a few more democratic votes than she did for Gov. Scales four years ago and showing Deserter Linney that he could not deliver us over to the radical party as he had promised. We had more to fight than most any other countynot only the republicans of old but R. Z. Linney, his brother and others that he could influence, yet we showed them that we could not be handed over by him or any one else. Think we deserve something for our good work and we shall present one who assisted as much as any other to bring about this democratic majority, to the next House of Representatives, for enrolling clerk. His name is A. O McIntosh, Jr., of this place. Iredell and Wilkes counties have the Senators from this district and we don't think they ought to ask more. Mr. McIntosh is a promising young lawyer and did noble work for our party in Alexander county, speaking in almost every township in the county. Hope the democratic caucus will carefully consider Alexander's claim and will give the place of enrolling clerk to A. C. McIntosh, Jr. "ALECK."

The Bloodhound as he Is.

The facts about the bloodhounds are sadly out of harmony with the romantic pictures that have been painted about his doings. Neither ink nor idea that this dog has long been in broupractical use in the old countries, and ter. south of Mason and Dixon's line in this country he was supposed to have flourished before the war. In the Northern States it is a common belief that the race of "coon-hunting bloodmatter is that there never were any bloodhounds in use among the Southern planters during the days of slavery, and the very few bloodhounds that have found their way into this country have been imported from England since the war. Today there are not a round dozen of bloodhounds in America, and the few which are here never have followed a track of any kind. More than this, their ancestors for many generations have not been put to any practical use, so that the instincts of the bloodhound of today have become very weak from disuse through a long line of ances-

DEATH BY ELECTRICITY.

MEDICAL MEN PREPARE A METHOD FOR THE NEW YORK AUTHORITIES.

As criminal executions in New York will take place after January by electricity, the Medico Legal Society has determined upon a method which will, in all probability, be adopted by the authorities. The process is described in the following report by the committee which had the matter in charge "The electric current, in passing through the body from one pole to another, undergoes more or less diffusion through the tissues. A current passing from the top of the head to the small of the back will be diffused throughout a great part of the brain and all of the tissues of the neck. The medulla oblongata-a part of the brain which is most vital together with all of the great nerves of the neck and the spinal cord, which exercise jurisdiction over the movements of the lungs and heart will be thoroughly permeated by the current applied in this way. As the seat of consciousness is in the brain, and perticularly in the cortex of the cerebrum, it is clear that this faculty of the mind will suffer at once if the current be sufficiently strong. The electric stream flows from the positive to the negative pole, and there might be some possible advantage in placing the positive pole on the vertex of the head, nearest the centre of consciousness, although death in any case will be instantaneous. After mature deliberation we recommend that t he death current be administered to the criminal in the following manner: "A stout table covered with rubber cloth, and having holes along its borders for binding for a strong chair, should be procured. The prisoner lying on his back or sitting should be firmly bound upon this table or in the chair. One electrode should be so inserted into the table, or into the back of the chair, that it will impinge upon the spine between the shoul ders. The head should be secured by means of a sort of helmet fastened to the table or back of chair, and to this helmet the other pole should be so joined as to press firmly with its ends upon the top of the head. We think a chair is preferable to a table. The rheophores can be led off the dynamo through the floor or to another room, and the instrument for closing the circuit can be attached to the wall. "The electrodes should be of metal not over one inch in diameter, somewhat ovodal in shape, and covered with a thick layer of sponge or chamois skin. The poles and the skin and hair at the point of contact should be thoroughly wet with warm water. The hair should be cut short.

motive force of at least 3,000 volts be used, but preferably the latter. The current should be allowed to pass for thirty seconds."

NORTH CAROLINA'S NEW CONGRESS-MEN.

BRIEF SKETCHES OF THEM AS PUBLISHED IN THE WORLD. The New York World of Friday

published a special from Raleigh giving sketches of the newly elected Congressmen from North Carolina, "There will be four new members from North Carolina in the next House of Representatives. Thomas G. Skinner, from the first district, has none of the manners or appearance of a Congressman, but is certainly a man of affairs. He served in the Forty-seventh and Forty-eighth Congresses, is a man of the people, and is extremely popular in his district. He had to beat White, the republican candidate. Skinner is 46 years old and left the State University to enter the Confederate army as a private in the First North Carolina Regiment and won the rank of Lieutenant. After the war he practiced law. He is witty, and this and his plain ways make his people sometimes call him the Nat Macon of this generation. He is an inveterate fisherman. "The other new republican member is Hamilton G. Ewart from the ninth district. He is a tall stout man. Like Skinner, he cares little for dress, and looks like a cattle raiser. He is about forty years old. Two years ago he was in the legislature and was the brains of his part there. He was the especial observior of the railway commission bill, which failed to pass. Among democrats Ewart is regarded as one of the ablest and best men in his party. Though nat urally indolent he is a man of force" Is he the Whitechapel Murderer! A special to the Baltimore Sun from Washington, D. C. Says: Dr. Francis Tumblety, said to have been arrested in London on account of the Whitechapel murders, has lived in Wa hingtonand also in San Francisco and other places. During the war he was arrested here by order of Secretary Stanton on the charge of being concerned in the Blackburn plot to spread contagion in the North through infected rage. He was afterwards released. He was looked upon as an eccentric man, as he affected oddities in dress and speech. He was last here about eighteen months since. He always appeared to have plenty of money, but no one knew how he came by it, except perhaps through a preparation for the removal of pimples of which he was the proprietor.

A Dr. Tumblety had an office on Baitimore street, near Calvert, in this city, some ten years ago for a few weeks. He was a large man, with a very florid face and black hair and beard, and claimed to have been on intimate terms with royal personages, among them the Emperor Napoleon. He gave evidence of considerable native shrewdness, but was very eccentric in manner and appearance, and wore while here, a semi-military dress with brass buttons.]-Sun.

Over 5,000 invitations have been issued by the local committee, and it is announced that Texas alone will be represented by a delegation of several hundred, embracing the most progressive men of the Lone Star State. An effort is being made to get the Governors of all the Southern States to [attend, and some of them have already accepted the invi-tation to do so. In this connection it may be mentioned that the immigration statistics of the port of New Orleans for the month of October show the very respectable number of 1,093 arrivals, more than for over three years past. These immigrants have been satisfactorily settled, and have found work from the very moment of their arrival. Some have remained in New Orleans; others have been distributed through the South and West, or sent even as far away as California.
