THE EVENT.

THE GAME OF FOOT-BALL THURSDAY BE-TWEEN TRINITY COLLEGE AND

CHAPEL HILL. Rarely has anything been looked forward to with so much interest as the coming trial of skill between the Trinity College and Chapel Hill football teams on Thursday next. We are in receipt of a special telegram from Mr. J. F. Jones, captain of the Trinity team, stating that a large delegation from both Chapel Hill and Trinity College will attend the game, and that the game will be called at 2:30, instead of 3 p. m, as announced. "The North Carolina Inter-Collegiate Foot-Ball Association" will be organized Thursday night at the Yarboro House parlors. Wake Forest, the University and Trinity will send full delegations. An article setting forth the rules and mode of playing the game according to the inter-collegiate rules, will appear in Tuesday morning's Niws and Observer. Of course inst. After that date he can be seen Raleigh will turn out to see the on sale yesterday and will be sold up game, which is undoubtedly going ing. to the 30th, good to return until Deseason. The boys expect to have an audience of several thousand. It is hoped that the gate receipts will be large, as the expense to the teams will be heavy. It being Thanksgiving day, places of business will be closed and everybody can go and see the game and spend an enjoyable

A special meeting of Ruth Lodge, No. 4, Degree of Rebekab, is hereby called at 730 o'clock Monday evening, the 26th inst. It is earnestly desired that every member be present. An entertainment will be held on Wednesday evening, the 28th.

Quick Time on the S. A. L.

The suthorities of the Seaboard Air-Line contemplate putting on a something unusual in the musical fast through train that will make the line. It is phenomenal that any music distance between Portsmouth and at all should be gotten out of rock, Charlotte in thirteen hours, including Charlotte in thirteen hours, including but that the sweetest of music with all stoppages. The day train from great volume of sound should be so Portsmouth will arrive here earlier, probably as early as 2 p. m., and will leave for Portsmouth later in the morning. Trains on the R. & A. and C. O will run accordingly. The gain of time will be a great convenience to the traveling public, and is another evidence of the progressiveness of the Seabord Air-Line.

It should not only be the duty but the pleasure of every one to aid those men who suffered for a cause that we all thought right. Their numbers are growing less year by year, and ere long we will not have any of the one-legged and one-armed soldier boys who followed Lee and Jackson. We hope that the people will not only make their stay pleasant while in this city, but aid them in securing a larger pension from our State. We are able to give these man more than eight or ten dollars per year. We are surely able to tax ourselves five cents each, in addition to which we now pay. This would be a small amount to each man, woman and child in the State, but it would add materially to pensions now given the old soldiers
