A SPAT IN PARLIAMENT.

A MEMBER ORDERED TO LEAVE THE HOUSE. LONDON, Dec. 1.—In the House of Commons today the Speaker ordered Canningham Graham (Advanced Liberal), member for the northwest division of Lancashire, to withdraw from the House because he had accused Mr. Smith, government leader, of conniving at a trick and had refused to retract the accusation. As Mr. Graham was leaving the House, a member shouted, "Bravo, Graham." In an interview Mr. Graham explained that the trouble arose over the action of Brooke Robinson, Conservative member for Dudley, in putting a motion on paper to prevent a discussion on the cabinet makers' grievances. Graham had characterized this as a dishonorable trick and had expressed the belief that the government had instigated Robinson to perform it. He had refused to withdraw this statement and hence his dismissal. Graham says he will not apologize, no matter what the result may be.

Walter F. Caldwell Dead.

The Greensboro Workman contains this notice of the death of Walter F. Caldwell: "Died in this city on Tuesday, 27th inst., Walter F. Caldwell, Esq., after a protracted illness, in the 75th year of his age. Mr. Caldwell was a son of Rev. Samuel Caldwell, and grandson of Rev. David Caldwell, D. D., a learned and devout clergyman. He was born in the county of Mecklenburg, in 1823, and received his education at Davidson College.

Christian Thought for December is a strong number. Prof. John J. Tigert, D. D., of Vanderbilt University, in the first paper on "Philosophical Philosophy," most ably demolishes Max Muller's doctrine that "man is rational because he is loquacious, and that mind itself is only an aspect of language." Rev. Francis A. Henry, of Bridgefield, Conn., follows with a clear and strong article on the "Ethics of the Gospel." The "Concept of Law," by Rev. J. Q. Adams, of San Francisco, is an able discussion of an important subject. Rev. Dr. Wm. Tucker contributes a timely paper on the "Relation of Brain to Mind, as it affects man's Personality, Responsibility, and Immortality." He demonstrates that "the mind or soul, as a spiritual entity and personality, is immortal, for no real entity and essential being is ever destroyed or annihilated. No atom of matter or pulsation of force is ever lost." "The existence of a machine proves that there is a machinist for whose use it was made; the existence of a musical instrument proves the existence of a musician who can use it; so the existence of the brain proves the existence of the rational person and agent who uses it in thought, feeling and action. This conclusion is rational, logical and true. The very use of the brain as a part of the nervous mechanism proves that there is a rational mind and free will to back it."

The "Views and Reviews," and the notices of books, are very instructive.

ANARCHISM

REARING ITS HORRID FRONT AGAIN.

PREPARATIONS FOR REVOLUTION—HATED OF THE LAW AND LAW OFFICERS TAUGHT—OTHER NEWS.

By Telegraph to the News and Observer. CHICAGO, Dec. 1.—A local paper referring to the revival of anarchistic agitation in this city, says: "So much has been written during the past two years in wholesale denunciation of anarchists that the public may have become accustomed, if not insensible, to statements that would otherwise have been alarming. For this reason this paper has confined its statements concerning these meetings to the bare, unvarnished announcement of them until practical investigations warranted more. The result of inquiries goes to show that history is rapidly repeating itself so far as socialistic revolution is concerned. Already at least another date for its inauguration has been fixed by anarchists all over the country. The movement is local, national and international. According to information fully authenticated, now in the hands of the Chicago police, not very long ago a committee of six was appointed in this city to take into consideration ways and means for reviving the revolutionary cause. No one at present knows how this committee originated. It was less than three days ago that the names of these six propagandists reached the private drawer of Inspector Bonfield, but he has them, and unless the policy of the city government intervenes, they will be placed under arrest within, possibly, 24 hours. They are known as the "Invisible Committee," that is, they are supposed to be unknown to the mass of the anarchists in Chicago, notwithstanding they have sole control and direction of the movements of the organization. They work with other anarchists individually, and not as a body, and hold their identity secretly. This plan was adopted because of the failure of the central organization plan, which brought Spies and Parsons and the others to the gallows. This sort of "invisible" head work was begun about a year ago and progressed very slowly at first, but as soon as the revolutionists fully realized that there was a directing fountain-head they rallied around the revolutionary standard, and during the past few months the work of "preparing for revolution" has been going forward with great activity. Aside from a majority of the thirty-two organizations affiliated with the Central Labor Union the Invisible Committee has been propagating the revolutionary cause through a number of anarchistic societies, prominent among which is the "Newly Formed A. B. R. Party." The "A. B. R. Party" is a reorganization of the expelled Knights of Labor Assembly No. 1,307, of which Parsons was a leading member; the "Socialistic Publishing Society," which owns and controls the "Arbeiter Zeitung" on the communistic plan, and the "Workingmen's Defense Association," which raised the money to defend Hronek and his fellow conspirators, are also active in the work. The plan of campaign, as nearly as it has been comprehended by the police, is, so far as public associations and meetings are concerned, to teach the anarchists to create in the minds of socialists hatred of law and law officers, and to inspire a spirit of revenge for the execution of Spies and his comrades. Their teachings are carried out by speeches more or less incendiary. The movement is growing bolder every day. The "Arbeiter Bund" is the latest form of revolutionary agitation, and at its last public meeting, on Thanksgiving Day, a circular, the substance of which was given in these despatches last night, was secretly distributed among those present who were supposed to be in sympathy with them. It is said to have been printed in 1883, in Pittsburg, but is a deception. The original was issued by a congress of the "International Working-people's Association" October 16, 1883, but those editions were exhausted long ago. A new batch has been printed in close imitation of the old ones and is being distributed in the interests of anarchy. The "Arbeiter Bund" has a public career of less than ten days, but its projects have been at work for some time and have matured a plan of propagating anarchism under cover of the labor movement very much on the plan of two years ago which culminated in the terrible slaughter at the Haymarket. Then it was that the reds sequestered the eight hour movement, not because they believed in it but because it was the sensation of the day and they were compelled to fall in with it. It was then arranged for a general strike on May 1, in the eight hour cause and the anarchists prepared their bombs and got ready for the inauguration of a social revolution on that day. The result is fresh in the minds of all. History is repeating itself in this respect. The American Federation of Trades will hold a convention in St. Louis this month, at which its delegates, representing the various trades assemblies throughout the country, will endeavor to fix upon some day in 1889 for another 8 hour strike. The anarchists appear to have already foreseen their opportunity, and besides doing all they can to foment the strike into national disorder, they will no doubt be ready with their bombs and other machines

The Yellow Fever.

By Telegraph to the News and Observer. GAINESVILLE, Fla., Dec. 1.—Surgeon Martin reports no new cases since last Wednesday. The weather is warmer. If there is no new outbreak Gainesville will need no more aid. The people are waiting anxiously for Surgeon General Hamilton to provide for destroying infected bedding.

They tell of a new argument adduced by an Ironside preacher. Standing by the stream, just before administering the ordinance, he said, "The Scripture says: 'When they came to a certain water.' I have been crossing it for forty years, summer and winter, and never knew it to run dry. Now, when you bring water in a bottle or a bowl, it is uncertain. The vessel may be upset or broken and the water lost. But this stream, brethren, is 'a certain water.'"

Pimples, Bored, Aches and Pains. When a hundred bottles of sarsaparilla or other pretentious specific fails to eradicate in-born scrofula or contagious blood poison, remember that B. B. B. (Botanic Blood Balm) has gained many thousand victories, in as many seemingly incurable instances. Send to the Blood Balm Co., Atlanta, for "Book of Wonders," and be convinced. It is the only true blood purifier.

G. W. Messer, Howell's X Roads, Ga., writes: "I was afflicted nine years with sores. All the medicine I could take did me no good. I then tried B. B. B., and eight bottles cured me sound."

Mr. S. M. Wilson, Round Mountain, Texas, writes: "A lady friend of mine was troubled with bumps and pimples on her face and neck. She took three bottles of B. B. B., and her skin got soft and smooth, pimples disappeared, and her health improved greatly."

THE OPERA NEXT WEEK.

The most elaborate production of comic opera ever presented to the citizens of Raleigh will be the presentation by the "The Hamilton Church Choir Opera Company of 'Bohemian Girl' and 'The Mascot' next Tuesday and Wednesday, December 4th and 5th, at Metropolitan Hall. It is seldom our people have an opportunity of witnessing a company of such sterling merit as this one. The voices are the best to be culled from the leading church choirs and opera companies of the country; the costumes are appropriate in every detail and the operas selected for this engagement are the choicest gems of the comic operas now before the public. The company has recently given performances in Norfolk, Richmond, New Bern and other places; the press, with one accord, giving them the highest approval.
