No Leap Year in 1900.

Although the year 1900 will be divisible by four without a remainder, event takes place, but it was just the same in 1800 and 1700, but not in 1600, for that was a leap year, and the year 2000 will be a leap year also. Why this should be is a problem. To explain in detail would be a tiresome task, but it rests on the principle that 3651 days, three years being 365 days long and the fourth year 366 days. In fact the year is 365 days, 5 hours leap year every four years is said to have been an invention of Julius Cosar's. NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE

NEW BERNE, N. C., Dec. 3, '88.

OF THE METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH,

in the chair. The following telegram was presented:

WINNSBORO, S. C., Nov. 20. To Bishop Granbery:

The South Carolina Conference. Bishop Keener presiding, to the N. C. Conference—Christian isalutation God is with us.

J. C. KRENER, President. H. F. CHREITZBERG, Secretary.

to make suitable response, which they did as follows: NEW BERNE, N. C., Dec. 1, 1888.

To Bishop Keener: The N. C. Conference, Bishop Gran bery presiding, returns Christian salutations and brotherly love. God is our refuge and strength. J. C. GRANBERY, President. D. W. BAIR, Secretary. T. B. Weeks and T. W. Smith passed the examination of character and their applications for supernumerary relation were referred to the committee on conference relations. E. A. Yates presented a certificate of the restoration of L. W. Pigott, a local deacon who had voluntarily surrendered his credentiale, by the Quarterly Conference of the Shelby Station, Shelby District, and moved that his credentials be restored to him. The credentials not being in the possession of the Annual Conference it was ordered that the secretary furnish a certificate.

Rev. G. W. Sanderlin, of the Baptist church, was introduced to the Conference and made a short speech setting forth his brotherly feeling it will not be leap year. Twelve years for the Methodist people and the must elapse before the interesting great responsibility resting upon the event takes place, but it was just the people called Methodist to conserve the life of this country. N. A. Hooker moved to reconsider the vote by which the motion to appoint a committee to prepare a pastoral address was rejected on yesterday, which was agreed to. After disa difference of 11 minutes per day ex- cussion, the motion to prepare said ists between actual time and calendar address was rejected. It was thought that the position it was designed set forth in such an address, the position of the Methodist church on the questions of worldliness and other and 45 minutes long, or 11 min-matters that hinder the progress of proved that it is not a vain thing to utes short of 3651 days. The religious and spiritual life, was well serve God. After the sermon the religious and spiritual life, was well understood, and it could be better emphacised by the preachers in their pulpits than in a printed address.

F. L. Reid presented the creden-tials of Rev. E. G. Pusey, who was ordained an elder in the N. C. and Virginia Conference of the Christian church, who had joined our church with his application for admission into this Conference, and the Conference being satisfied of his gifts, grace and usefulness, and he having subscribed to the doctrine and discipline and taken the vows of the M. E. Church, South, was admitted into full connection as an elder.

Rev. J. F. Crowell, President of Conference.

Tee following preachers were admitted into the Conference on trial: Geo. T. Simmons, R. W. Bailey, H. Cole, A. B. Crumpler, J. J. Parker, year. J. H. Shore, H. L. Adkins, M. H. l'uttle, W. E. Edmonson, J. M. Price, A. Falls, S. B. Turrentine, D. M. Litaker, E. C. Sell, C. F. Sherrill, J. H. M. Giles, L. S. Ethredge, N. M. Watson, M. A. Perkins, E. C. Glenn, Wm. Lowe.

On motion of J. A. Cuninggim the presiding Bishop was requested to draw a draft on the treasurer of the Board of Conference Trustees in favor of the chairman of the joint board of to go to the fund for superannuated preachers and widows and orphans of preachers. L. W. Crawford and J. T. Harris were elected members of the Board of Trustees to fill vacancies caused by the death of other members. The Conference proceeded to the selection of place for holding the next session of the Conference. Winston, Raleigh, Greensboro and Wilson were put in nomination. After Reid, W. G. Burklesd, W. R. Odell, much discussion Greensboro was selected.

A collection was taken for the benefit of Payne Institute in Augusta, Ga., a school for training colored teachers and preachers.

An enthusiastic missionary meeting was held at night. Rev. J. A. Cuninggim represented the Woman's Missionary Society, showing that in ten years, the whole time of its existence. as it was begun in 1878, there had been organized 2,399 auxiliary societies, of which 52 were in the bounds of the North Carolina Conference; there were 56,780 members, of which behind the times in all forms of 1,400 were in the North Carolina Conference; had raised $355,345 77. of which $15,000 had been raised by the North Carolina society. The society had at work in foreign fields 34 missionaries, 39 teachers of boarding schools, 19 day schools, 871 pupils. But the sad fact was set forth that North Carolina Methodism had no missionary in foreign fields. How-Never before offered on holiday ever, some are preparing to go, and goods. and instructive speech. A collection was taken. The amount I could not learn. NEW BERNE, Dec. 4.

Sunday was a full and fruitful day The conference opened Saturday at for New Berne and North Carolina the usual hour with Bishop Granbery Methodism. The love feast at 9:30 o'clock, conducted by Rev. F. L. Reid, was a rich season of experiencegiving and gracious manifestation of the Holy Spirit.

At 11 o'clock a full house greeted the eye of Bishop Granbery, who preached from the 28th verse of the 20th chapter of the Acts of the Apostles. His sermon was to the preachers, their position in relation to the church, as elders, overseers, bishops, superintendents, shepherds, The conference by a rising vote re-quested the president and secretary rect, lead, protect from danger the flock, being prompted thereto by the Holy Spirit, because the flock had been purchased with His blood. This sermon was full of deep and high thought, and .. practical wisdom, such as ought to stir every preacher's heart and fire him with zeal and enthusiasm for earnest work in the cause of Christ. Bishop Granbery has done grand work in preaching and in the various addresses he has made to the North Carolina Conference; he has indeed been a seed-sower of the highest order. If there have been prepared hearts, then we may expect fruitful harvests in the days to come from the visitation of this ripe scholar, clear thinker, profound theologian, and earnest Christian minister. North Carolina Methodists will gladly welcome him at all times.

After the sermon the Bishop ordained the following ministers to deacon's orders: D. C. Geddie, J. D. Pegram, C. W. Robinson, T. N. Ivey, Z. J. Needham, M. T. Steele, Z. Paris, J. G. Johnston, G. F. Smith, H. B. Anderson, R. W. Townsend, E. H. Davis, S. Y. Brown, B. F. Fincher, J. M. Marlow, J. A. Edwards, S. P. Douglass and L. M. Chaffin.

In the afternoon several hundred Christian ministers and people entered with heartiness in the communion of the Lord's Supper. It was a season of profoundest religious enjoyment. These rare seasons come but seldom in the experience of men; they are foretastes of Heavenly communion
