A Burglar Killed.

Charlotte Chronicle. On Christmas morning, at 4 o'clock, M. M. Kirk, a citizen of China Grove, M. M. Kirk, a citizen of China Grove, was waked by a noise at his window. Getting out of bed, and dreeping noiselessly to the window from which the sound came, he perceived that a negro was trying to break into his house. As quick as thought, Mr. Kirk secured his gun, and presenting it at the negro's head, informed him that, unless he desisted at once and infi the premises, he would blow his brains out. This seemed to convince the negro, for he ran as fast as his the negro, for he ran as fast as his legs would carry him. Mr. Kirk then went out on the porch, and it suddenly occurred to him that he had driven away the burglar with an to load his gun, and, while thus engaged, he heard a slight noise behind him. He turned around just in the nick of time, for the black ruffian, who had been lurking near the house, was stealthily moving towards him reported the worst hurt by a strained with a drawn bowie knife, and in the back, but it was not thought to be senext instant, would have plunged it rious. AND MIS TROUBLES WITH HIS BISHOP AND OTHERS. By Telegraph to the News and Observer

Dubuque, Iows, Dec. 28.—Father F O. Jean about ten years ago was removed from the pastorate of St. frenaeus' Catholie church at Lyons by Bishop Hennesey. He brought unt to recover damages from the Bisnop on the ground that the renov I was megal, in which suit Fath-t Jean was defeated. He has now ned with the clerk of the District Jourt a petition asking damages from Bishop Hennesey, W. J. Knight and W. J. Oantillon jointly in the oum of $300,000. He charges them with having conspired to have his name dropped from the Oatholic di-rectories. Father Jean was removed at the instance of the Catholics of uis parish on a charge which was sustained by Bishop Hennesey upon earning the facts in the case. A question of property ownership is involved. Father Jean claims that his personal funds were invested in property the church has deprived aim of by legal process and asthough defeated in every tribunal he still in sists that he is wrongfully deprived of his property, and although silenced from preaching he is beut upon fighting it out in any court which takes the case. A LUNATIC DELUD & A TOWN.

How James Sykes Victimised Promine People at Hot Springs, Ark. Springfield Republican An escaped lunstic played a good joke on prominent peacole at Hot Spings, Ark., the other day. He entered the town representing himself as a millionaire from California and wanting to engage a dozen persons for good positions at salaries of from $4,000 to $6,000 a year. This talk was eagerly swallowed by the people and they became closely attached to the old man, who said his name was Harper. A grand supper was given in his beess than a month ago the press of half by about 50 men, and there were the State has been vigorously urging flowers, wines, and music. At the ban the need of revision of the banking quet the old man said he wished to and opened her envelope. More Cabinet Sumors, The New York Commercial Adveriser says: "From all that can be learned, it appears that Mr. Morton brought back from Indianapolis this ultimatum of Gen. Harrison: New York can have a cabinet officer if she presents a candidate on whom all the eaders are united. Otherwise, New York will be left out of the cabinet. Mr. Morton is also said to have brought the positive announcement that Senator Sherman had been offored and had accepted the secretaryship of State, and that any New Yorker who aspired to a cabinet was obtaining $80 from Squire Witter. It developed that the old man from as good an authority as ex-Gov. Porter, who told a friend Wednesday that there was no doubt that Senator Sherman would be the next Secretary of State. From the manner in which this information was given there is no opportunity to doubt that Gov. Porter believed what he said, and he is a man not likely to be mistaken in such a matter. The talk now is that the whole cabinet is likely to be settled within two weeks."

The Philadelphia North American edited by Clayton McMichael, says it has excellent authority for making the positive statement that President elect Harrison has decided to appoint John Wanamaker Postmaster General The information comes from one of Philadelphia's best known business men, who is a warm friendof Gen. The Truth (1) About Stanley Washington Post.

Cape. Montgomery James, an Eng lish officer, who is stopping in Phil adelphia, and who accompanied Stan-ley on his Congo expedition of 1888, does not take the hopeful view of the great explorer's safety that is gener-ally entertained; in fact, he thinks Stanley is dead.

In an interview published by Philadelphia paper, Capt. James states that he bases this belief on the fact that Stanley has been unheard of so much longer than is reasonably necessary. He says it is only 260 miles from the Yambuya Camp on the Aru-whimi Biver to Wadelai on Lake Albert, and that Stanley ought to have gone to the latter place and returned in a little over six months if he could do it at all. He was gone more than a year before the recent reports were received of his return to the Arn-

The country, says Capt. James, through which Stanley had to pass in order to reach Wadelai, where he was to find Emin Pasha, is one vast bog or quagmire and infested with hostile cannibalistic tribes, and his theory is that Stanley perished long ago from swamp fever or from the hands of the

We doubt if any special weight is to be attached to these views notwithstanding his partial acqueintance with the country through which Stanley is supposed to have been traveling. The North Carelina Millstone Company. Ten years ago this company was organized under the general law for the manufacture of corn mills, at Parkewood, in Moore county. In 1885 it was re organized with Mr. James E. Taylor as president. The business was prosecuted with energy and success, and the company sold one of the best corn mills in the country. The quarry from which they obtained these millstones afforded the finest grit for grinding corn to be found anywhere in the world, being superior for this purpose to the eso-pus or French buhr. In 1885 the company made a mortgage to secure $30,000 of bonds, upon which they borrowed money to extend and prosecute their business.
