Confederate Veterans. To the Ex-Confederate Soldiers of North Carolina:

In token of respect for the lamented Jefferson Davis, I request that you wear on the left arm for ten days, beginning on Wednesday, the day when his body will be interred, a band of black crepe, three inches wide, the usual badge of mourning.

J. S. CABE, Pres. N. C. Vet. Assn. State papers please copy.

HEADQUARTERS CONFEDERATE VETERANS' ASSOCIATION, RALEIGH, N. C., Dec. 9, 1889

To the People of North Carolina: It has been brought to the attention of the Governor of the State and of the Confederate Veterans' Association, that a movement has been inaugurated to raise a fund for the proper maintenance and support of the widow and daughter of Jefferson Davis.

No language of ours can add force to an appeal for an object like this, which comes so near to the hearts of all who suffered with him for the cause of which he was the greatest representative, and of all whose fathers or relatives illustrated Southern valor during the war.

Committees will be appointed for each county, whose names will be hereafter announced, for the purpose of soliciting contributions.

J. S. CABE, President N. C. Veterans' Assn. W. C. STONACRE, Sec'y and Treas. A. B. ANDREWS, F. E. BARNES, S. A. ARNE, Wm. L. SANDERS, Com. mittee.

Cotton Report. By Telegraph to the News and Observer.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—The December cotton report of the department of agriculture relates to prices on plantations. Correspondents refer incidentally to the progress of harvesting and the status of ungathered crops. All report late maturity. In the Northern belt early frosts arrested the development of the bolls and seriously reduced the harvest. In the larger and more Southern areas, while killing frosts were reported in some localities in October, losses were neither severe nor general from that cause. In the most productive portion of the belt killing frosts are rarely mentioned as occurring until the last week in November. The season may therefore be considered a long one, counterbalancing measures by the late development of the plant. The top bolls must be considered fairly abundant, and very general mention is made in the lower latitudes of the number of the bolls yet unopened, which may open with the continuance of weather as good as that of the first week of December. The weather for pick ng has been comparatively favorable, and the lint is generally bright and clean, though not everywhere of full length. Prices are a little better than those of last December. Farm prices averaged as follows: Virginia 8.3 cents per pound; North Carolina 8.5; South Carolina 8.6; Georgia 8.6; Florida (upland) 8.5; Alabama 8.6; Mississippi 8.6; Louisiana 8.7; Texas 8.4; Arkansas 8.5; Tennessee 8.3. The quality and nearness to the market affect the average slightly on the small farms. Cotton is sometimes sold in the seed at relatively lower prices, especially in parts of Florida and Texas.

The Only Genuine Accommodation Train. Greenville News.

Superintendent Byrd, of the Carolina, Knoxville and Western Railroad, which runs between here and Marietta, declares that his is the only genuine accommodation train now running. The passengers get on and off at any of the cross-roads, and when, this summer, a large turtle was stopped and the passengers, engineer and conductor all took a hand in the capture of the slow traveler. A few days ago, while going up the road, a lady passenger dropped her pocket book out of the window of the car. Before she could notify the conductor the train had gone a quarter of a mile, but the conductor gallantly stopped his train, backed it to where the pocket book was lost and assisted in finding it. Little instances of that kind is why the Superintendent says it is strictly an accommodation train. The O, K. and W. does a fair business, too, and yesterday brought down over twenty people who wanted to come to the city to trade. On salesdays it always has a large crowd of passengers and reduced rates are given. The colored people on the line refer to the engine and train as the "swamp rabbit," and its real name is seldom called by that.

Washington News. By Telegraph to the News and Observer.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—Bond offerings today aggregated $1,470,500. All accepted at 1.29 for fours and 1.04 for four and a half.

Since the inauguration of Secretary Windom's policy of reducing the amount of government deposits in the national banks, on the second instant, $4,182,000 of bonds have been surrendered by the banks.

Contributions for the Suffering Exodusters. The police department has received from Mr. B. B. Haney, of the Yarbrough House, two sacks of meal and a side of meat, to be distributed among the suffering exodusters, now congregated around the Union depot. These supplies will be issued judiciously by an officer. Any other supplies that the charitably disposed may see fit to donate will be properly given out. C. D. HANNEY, Chief of Police.

BEFORE THE FUNERAL

ELABORATE PREPARATIONS AT NEW ORLEANS.

ARRANGEMENTS FOR THE SOLEMN CELEBRATION OVER THE LAMENTED CONFEDERATE PRESIDENT TODAY—TO BE THE LARGEST DEMONSTRATION EVER SEEN IN THE SOUTH.

By Telegraph to the News and Observer. NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 10.—Throng of people continue to pour through City Hall during this morning embracing besides the common multitude, numerous organizations, schools and societies. Many distinguished gentlemen from the leading cities of the section were also among the visitors. Gen. Stephen D. Lee, of Mississippi; ex-Governor Lubbeck, of Texas; Gen. P. M. E. Young, Cavalry Leader in the Confederacy, paid their respect.

The funeral will be the largest demonstration ever seen in the South. Every benevolent organization in the city, military schools, athletic clubs, commercial bodies, shipmasters, fire departments and clergy will be largely represented. The route will be about four miles long. The procession will move sharply at 12 o'clock and will go up town past the Lee circle.

The funeral ceremonies will be conducted in front of City Hall by Bishops Gallaher of Louisiana, and Wilmer of Alabama, and five officiating clergymen of the various denominations—Father Herbert, Rev. Thompson M. Davis, Rector at Biloxi, Rev. Dr. Markham, of Lafayette Presbyterian Church, and Rev. Messrs Bakewell and Martin, of the Episcopal Diocese of New Orleans. There will be ten surpliced clergymen from the Episcopal Church and other denominations assisting. A surpliced choir of 86, accompanied by an organ, will sing the anthem, "Though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death."

At the grave the ceremonies will be conducted by Bishops Gallagher and Hugh Miller Thompson, of Mississippi. Minute guns will be fired at the head of Canal street and at Claiborne and Canal all day and at the grave there will be proper guns and bugle calls as becomes a military funeral. Visiting military organizations will come from Mississippi, Alabama, Texas and country parishes of Louisiana. Floral tributes from different sections of the South were received today and the mortuary chamber is filled to overflowing with beautiful designs. A caisson is being prepared and will be suitably draped. It is learned that the route has been so arranged that the funeral car will have smooth passage along the streets. The ceremonies are to be very brief and will not occupy more than a few minutes at the hall. Three divisions will march out to the cemetery; the remainder will take the funeral cars at Claiborne street. Gov. Buckner, of Kentucky, is among the survivors today.

Terrible Explosion. By Telegraph to the News and Observer.

BUFFALO, Pa., Dec. 10.—At a quarter past 9 o'clock this morning Butler was shaken up by a nitro glycerine explosion at the Butler Torpedo Company's magazine two miles South of town. The explosion occurred when the cans were being put into wagons at the factory of James O. Woods, and Wm. Medill and their wagon and team were blown into unrecognizable fragments. The woods in the vicinity of the magazine are being searched by hundreds of men for the remains of the men. The larger part of the factory buildings are demolished. The factory was crushed down and only the smoke stack remains intact. The rafters of the magazine fell down over the glycerine there, but it did not explode. Woods' shoulder and right arm have been found twenty rods away. A small part of Medill's trunk was taken from the top of a tree. The theory is that Woods let the can of explosive drop when handing it up to Medill who was in the wagon. A great hole was made in the ground where the wagon stood.

Mrs. Harrison's Sister Dead. By Telegraph to the News and Observer.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—Mrs. Scott Lord, sister of Mrs. Harrison died this morning at 8:30 o'clock. Nobody outside of the family in the house where she was stopping, was present when Mrs. Lord died. It was known that the case was hopeless, but still she was expected to soon. Mrs. Harrison and Dr. Scott Lord are now in the house with the remains. No arrangements for the funeral has yet been made.

A SHORT SESSION OF THE SENATE YESTERDAY.

THE PROGRAMME FOR THE EXERCISES COMMEMORATIVE OF THE INAUGURATION OF GEORGE WASHINGTON WHICH TAKES PLACE TODAY—A BILL TO HOLD THE WORLD'S FAIR IN NEW YORK.

By Telegraph to the News and Observer. WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—SENATE—Mr. Morrill, from the finance committee reported back and orally the bills to provide for the organization of national banks with less capital than $50,000, and it was indefinitely postponed.

Among the bills introduced and referred was one by Mr. Chandler to amend the laws relative to the elective franchise. The resolution offered yesterday by Mr. Turpie as to trusts, was taken up, and Mr. Turpie proceeded to address the Senate, upon it. At the close of Mr. Turpie's speech the bill for celebrating the four hundred anniversary of the discovery of America by holding an exposition in the city of New York was introduced by Mr. Evans and read first and second time. The programme for the ceremonies in the House tomorrow in commemoration of the anniversary of the first inauguration of George Washington was presented and adopted. The Senate then proceeded to the consideration of executive business, and at 1:35 adjourned till tomorrow.

CONTINUED BY THE SENATE. The Senate this afternoon confirmed the following nominations: Robert P. Porter of New York to be Superintendent of census; Lewis A. Groff, of Nebraska, to be Commissioner of the general land office; Wm. M. Stone, of Iowa, Assistant Commissioner of the general land office; James M. Townsend, of Indiana, Recorder of the general land office. The nomination of Mr. Green B. Baum, Illinois, to be Commissioner of Pensions, was reported favorably by the committee on pensions.

Want Him to be Interred in Richmond. By Telegraph to the News and Observer.

Richmond, Va., Dec. 10.—The legislative body today passed joint resolutions requesting Mrs. Jefferson Davis to allow the remains of her husband to be interred in this city.

The Australian Ballot System. The New York Herald has been interviewing prominent men in every State on the Australian ballot system and publishes the following from North Carolina:

Governor Fowle said he had not given the question the consideration which its importance demanded. S. M. Finger, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, said:—"The principle commends itself to my judgment. Whether it is best to put it into immediate operation, to apply to persons who cannot read and write, or to ray it shall apply only to those who come of age hereafter, is a question which may well be considered, in view of the fact that it would be a great hardship to disfranchise people who have long had the ballot. The new system would wonderfully stimulate public education."

J. O. H. Harris, secretary of the Republican State Executive Committee, said:—"I have no objection to the system. It has some very powerful advantages."

R. H. Battle, ex-chairman of the Democratic State Executive Committee, said:—"It is exceedingly desirable to adopt it. I think highly of it, and think it should be adopted all over our country. My own opinion is that it will be adopted. I do not know, however, that it will be by the next legislature, as our people take hold of new ideas slowly."

T. G. Fuller, a prominent lawyer, said:—"I think very favorably of it, for it provides the best safeguards for a fair election of all the systems with which I have any acquaintance."

E. P. Moses, city superintendent of public schools:—"It is the salvation of our people."

Several other gentlemen said the system is right in itself and in the long run it will prevail. It holds out an inducement to elevation to the people. Some did not think that at present the system could be applied to North Carolina.

Memorial Services in Richmond. A Richmond special says: Wednesday, the day of the funeral of Hon. Jefferson Davis, business here will be generally suspended, and at the hour these services begin in New Orleans memorial services will be held by all the congregations here. The Episcopal churches will hold union services in St. Paul's. During his residence here the ex-President had a pew in and was a regular communicant of that church. He was attending service there on that memorable Sabbath day when it was known that the Confederate government had determined to abandon this city. The day was bright and beautiful—the first Sabbath in April, 1865, and communion day. Davis' pew was about midway of the middle aisle of the church, and now rented by Edwin T. James. The venerable rector, Rev. Dr. Chas. Minnegerode, had proceeded with his discourse when a telegram, handed Mr. Davis by a messenger, informed him of the condition of Gen. Lee's army. The President left the church and the government at once began preparations for the evacuation.
