platform. Dr. York has announced himself as the Republican candidate against Col. Cowles for Congress. Everybody knows Dr. York. He is the man Gen. Scales beat so badly for Governor.

THE tariff bill, having gone to the House, will be up for consideration there. Verbal or unimportant amendments made in the Senate will be agreed to, and the House will disagree to the others, and send the bill into conference.

WE bespeak attention to the article from the Lenoir Topic about the actings and doings of S. Otho Wilson in Lenoir. That man is a paid agent of the State Alliance. How do the Democratic members of the Alliance like the way he mixes politics with his business? Do the Democratic members of the Alliance propose for the bureau officers of the organization to engage in such work? It is their matter, not ours. We merely print the item with the further suggestion that there is a great deal going on that the honest, State do not know aware of the

WE have received a letter from Prof. Alexander McIver, the Republican nominee for Congress, in which he answers the questions conto return to the Union on the best terms that could be got, lest some-thing worse might befall us. His reply as to how he came to be appointed Professor at the University in substance is a statement of facts not at all to his discredit. He corrects a statement we made about there having been negro students at Chapel Hill. There never was a negro student at the University.

And the Professor says that the students who were there while he was a Professor have in their subsequent career reflected credit on the

With regard to the negroes at the University, the Superintendent of Public Education desired to have a colored department there; but the opposition was so great to the negroes occupying the buildings that the project was not carried out. We suppose the University was organized under Republican auspices about the first of 1869. It was closed by the first of 1871-after two years had elapsed, and remained closed until reorganized on its present basis.

WE regret very much to see that the Alliance of Duplin county has adopted the following resolutions: Whereas certain newspapers in the State of North Carolina, and among them the Wilmington Messenger, have, while professing friendship to to the principles of the Farmers' Alliance, seemingly sought every opportunity to misrepresent the pur-poses of the Alliance and its offi-

Resolved, That Duplin county Alliance recommend to the members of the sub-Alliances in the county not to patronize any newspaper that pursues such a course.

We are very free to say that if a newspaper starts out on a course of misrepresentation of a man or set of men, or organization, they ought to strike back in self-defence. But we have read the Messenger daily and we have not observed a spirit of misrepresentation manifested by it calling for such positive action. We hope that President Carr, of the Alliance, will investigate the matter and seek to bring about amity, friendship and concord between the Messenger and the Alliance of Duplin county.

Just at the beginning of a great and important campaign, it seems too bad to have ill-will engendered between the Democrats of Duplin and such a valuable paper as the Messenger, and we trust that all dif-

Men drift along lazily in the current of the world's affairs, and often nations move on so swiftly that, the chart being forgotten, the ship of State runs among the breakers and is cast away. But not so, if the chart he heeded. There the helmsman finds safe guidance, and by observing it, the perils and dangers of the treacherous rocks will be avoide 1.

Just now it does seem indeed as if the public mind were utterly indifferent to the chart which the | atriot fathers adopted for the guidance of the people. To invoke the Constitution of our country has become so reprehensible that one hardly dare do it for the taunts that surely follow. It is esteemed a vicious thing to call attention to the fact that there is a Constitution of the United States of America. The next we may hear along the line of pestiferous demagogues and criminal agitators may be "Down with the Constitution." Who can tell! Shall it not come? Who will give bond against the fu-When the Constitution loses its sanctity and the people are taught to ignore it, why should not some agitators go beyond others and proclaim it, as we have heard it proclaimed—a league with hell—an execrable thing—a thing to bind and to stifle the people, instead of giving them life, securing their welfare and promoting their prosperity? Once destroy the Constitution and anarchy and politiadopting the platform we drafted for cal chaos will come rushing on like our State Convention. It is a good the devastating cyclone, and with a power that human hands cannot control. We lift up our voice to the people and warn them not to ignore the chart of their liberties, not to depart from the old paths with which we and our fathers have been familiar. And in this connection, we reprint from an exchange some words uttered by Samuel J. Tilden. They are stronger and better than we can

"The Democracy advances to fight anew the battle against centralism and corruption, to which it was first led by Thomas Jefferson in the nation and by George Clinton in the State of New York.

The equilibrium of our political system is in danger of being overthrown and a despotic and corrupt centralism established.

The creed of the Democratic party is comprised in two ideas: First, to limit as much as possible all governmental power, enlarging always and everywhere the domain of iudividual judgment and action; secondly, to throw back the governmental powers necessary to be exercised as much as possible upon the States and the localities, approaching in every case the individuals to be affected.

"These ideas dominate over the best representative. 'The opposite ideas, to meddle with everything be longing to the individual, and to centralize all governmental powers, express the tendencies of the Republican party. "Under this inspiration the Fedsuffrage and threatens to take control of all elections.

"I oppose centralism because it is incompatible with civil liberty. "I oppose centralism because it creates an irresponsible power, and an irresponsible power is always corrupt. A government ruling all the affairs of individuals and localities, from the Atlantic to the Pacific, from the great lakes to the Gulf of Mexico, would be the most incompetent for what it would undertake, ernment of which history affords any example. "And now, in your name and in the name of the voters we represent we declare that in the great work we will take no step backward. Come weal or come woe, we will not lower our flag. We will go forward until a political revolution shall be worked out, and the principles of Jefferson and Jackson shall rule in the administration of the Federal Government." A Dangerous Sign.

Intelligencer One of the most dangerous signs of the times is the disposition to treat lightly constitutional objections to bills that apparently would relieve pressing embarrassments, and to construe opposition on such grounds as unfriendliness. This is an error which unthoughtful public men quickly seize upon and utilize to their advantage. They do not care for the Constitution. So far as they are concerned it is no more than any other paper writing, for they only seem to covet the popularity of the hour. Not so with the thoughtful statesman, for he knows that every violation of the Constitution endangers the general safety, and is sure to be attended with greater embarrass-ments, and made a precedent of far reaching dangers. It is for this reason that he braves partizan excitement in the discharge of his duty, trusting that any displeasures growing out of it will prove but temporary, and content to await the approval which never fails to encourage to conscientious acts.

To preserve the Republic and perpetuate its glories, the Constitution must be our guide, and it must be committed to the keeping of a patriotic and faithful guardianship. Otherwise all becomes confusion.

The Fife Meeting at Newton. During the Fife meeting at Newton, there were 500 conversions. Four of these were distillers, who immediately closed up their business. ferences can be reconciled by the The people of Newton showed their have heard in a month of Sundays is that one, picked up on the streets, of the decent manner in which the Caldwell alliancemen trimmed down a fellow by the name of Wilson--S. Otho Wilson-at a secret meeting held in the court house Wednesday night. His ostensible business was to show samples of goods furnished by the State agent, W. H. Worth, but his secret mission-perhaps selfconstituted and doubtless unauthorized by the central officers-was to stir up strife among Democrats and, if possible, to organize a fight in each county against Senator Vance. He is the same bird of gaudy plumage, who has gotten so much cheap advertising for his fruit nursery near Raleigh out of the press of the State and who was so well castigated by farmer James Norwood of Orange, when he opposed the Vance resolutions in the Durham Congressional Convention. He claims to be a Democrat but we heard it generally charged at Durham that he has been for years a sore-head and an assistant-Republican. But it doesn't signify what he has been. He is no Democrat now. He predicted-and the wish was father to the thought—that Vance would be defeated, as the Republicans would capture the legislature; that Ewart had surrendered his law license and would join the Alliance and be elected; that, although Bunn had signed all the Alliance demands, he would be defeated. He was particularly severe upon the Caldwell county Alliance for disapproving the sub-Treasury bill and insolently proclaimed that any individual Alliancemen who would dare oppose a measure sent down for ratification by the central power at St. Louis ought to kicked out of the order. All of this talk met with the strongest condemnation from the great mass of the Alliancemen of this county and they called a meeting for Wednesday night and gave him a chance to air his incendiary views. The Alliancemen took occasion to defend their cause, and in doing so, they removed their gloves and called a spade a spade. They denounced him roundly and strongly intimated that he was an emissary of the Republican party. Several speeches were made and not a voice was raised upon the side of Mr. Wilson except his own. This is the version of the affair as heard upon the streets and is about correct. At any rate Mr. S. Otho Wilson left bright and early next morning, discovering perhaps that there was less need of his "Samples" in this county than he had supposed there was. We speak of this matter thus fully because the Topic stands ready to defend the patiotic action of the Caldwell county Alliance in oppos-ing the sub-Treasury bill against the machinations of the world, the further moved of values and to warf the Democrats of this county against what they must be ready to meet in this campaign. While here this fel-low Wilson consorted to a great extent with Republicans, Democrats of tained in a recent editorial about him. He says that the reason he be- eral government is rapidly seizing with him. But the Republican concame a Republican was that he believed it would be best for the State ety. It has assumed to regulate the plauded every lick he gave the Dome plauded every lick he gave the Democracy. The Democrats of Caldwell county are not blind and they are not fools. They use the Alli-ance—that is, the Democratic Alliancemen do-for what good it can do, but they will not allow it to be used to do an injury to the country. To turn over the Legislature to the Republicans, or to defeat Senator Vance, would be an injury of incalculable extent. The conspiracy has been organized, chiefly if not altogether, among Republicans to run an anti-Vance Alliance candidate for the most oppressive, the most irresponsible, and the most corrupt govthe Legislature. Fore-warned and fore-armed. Keep your eyes skinned.

A Wealthy Smuggler. A New York special says: W. H. Medhurst, a wealthy young Englishman, who some time ago received a legacy of $500,000 from a rich uncle who had died in Australia, and who came to "do" America, was a passenger on the steamer Tower Hill, which arrived yesterday from Liverpool. He brought his horses, ponies, dog-cart, phaeton, etc., with grooms and equeries to attend to them on the way out. Special Agent Wilbur, of the Treasury, ordered a careful investigation of his baggage, and the result of this examination is that there is now in the seizure-room of the custom house about $9,000 worth of diamonds and jewels in setting of exquisite workmanship. One of the seized articles is a pearl and diamond necklace worth $7,500. Mr. Medhurst took the seizure very coolly, and simply informed the custom officers that whenever they were put up at auction he would buy them in.

Notes From Trinity College.

Greensboro Workman. From a private source it is learned that there were over one hundred matriculates at Trinity last weeknearly all new boys. By the time the old students return, and the expected new ones come in, there will probably be 150 to 175. Dr. Crowell said yesterday that he knew of more who are yet to come. Every boarding place is full to the utmost capacity. Two young lady matriculates: Misses. Nellie Edwards and Carrie Carpenter, both graduates of Greensboro Female College are taking special courses,-studies chiefly in the Junior class.

Prof. English says it is the most propituous opening the college has known in twelve years.

They Are Gradually Disappearing From th One of the prettiest stories we Sight of Man. London Daily News.

The lions of India appear to be going the way of the great bustard and the dodo, and the reason is found in the extension of railways, for the monarch of the forest shares with Mr. Ruskin a mortal antipathy to the smoke and screams of locomotives. Within the memory of many persons lions were common enough in Rajputana, and even now the roar of one may be heard occasionally in the wildest parts of Central India; but the new railway from Nagpur is now being constructed through this country, and this is practically a notice to quit served upon the few remaining lions in the central provinces.

Practically the only lions now remaining that are worth mentioning seem to be the race existing in Kattywar, which was visited by Prince Albert Victor the other day. Their numbers remain, it is believed, pretty stationary It is strictly forbidden to shoot them save by way of the grand sport; but many conditions are unfavorable to their multiplication, and even the Kattywar lions are clearly doomed ere long to dis-

The Cause of Pain,

The Cause of Pain,

An ache or pain is not of itself a disease; it is but a symptom, and warns the sufferer that there is something the matter with his physical organization. Weak kidneys, bad blood, and nervousness are frequently the source or cause of the many mysterious aching sensations that afflict the body. You can remove the cause of such distress by using B. B. (Botanic Blood Balm).

C. H. Robetts, Atlanta, Ga., writes: "My kidneys were disordered and gave me exernciating pain. A single bottle of B. B. B. helped me wonderfully."

Wm N. Nelson, McDonough, Ga., writes: "B. B. B. has benefited my daughter very much. She was afflicted with severe nervousness. I think it the best family medicine."

W. R. Ellis, Brunswick, Ga., writes: "I have tried B B B and it is a great thing for the blood. It also cured me of rheumatic pains."
