Vance Closes the Campaign at Charlotte—He Made a Ringing Speech Yesterday-Interview with a Prominent Republican. Special to the News and Observer.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., Nov. 3 .- Senator Vance closed the campaign here today with a rousing speech to a big audience o' his fellow citizens. He came in yesterday and will rema:n over tomorrow.

Although there is no Republican county ticket in the field here, the campaign has been a heated one. The Prohibitionists put out candilates for the Legislature and Senate. They have fought to the last ditch. It may be they will win but nobody expects it. They would stand a better chance if it was not for the fact that they are opposed to Sena or Vance succeeding himself in the United States Senate. This, if no hing else, will defeat them. Rev W T. Walker of Guilford county has put in several day in the nterest of the Prohibitionists and for an orga.. the party chartered two columns of Wade Harris' clever paper -the Evening News. All the Charlotte papers have labored long and earnestly for the Democracy and Messrs. E. T. Causler, J. D. Mc-Call, Charley Tillett and Editor Jerome Dowd have made speeches at various points in the county, which have served to arouse much enthusiasm in the party.

Today I asked a prominent Republican what he thought of the out-look? "You will find," he said, "that a very light vote will be polled among the Republicans. In the first place, the unpopularity of Charles Price, and then our people are becoming disgusted with Mott's side show and his son's "hyperian curls." It is just demoralizing us and there will surely be a light vote polled." This same Republican who, by the way is always well posted, said he was not confident of his party electing but two Congressmen from this State, Cheatham and Ewart. He says Brower will have a close rub and McIver and Faucett stand a good fighting chance of being elected. C. F. K.

His brother and friends are now hunting Norgher with the intention of shooting him on sight. His friends have also rallied around Norgher, and as the principals are prominent men in their neighborhood and have many friends, a bloody fight is expected.

THE Judicial ticket, presented by the Democratic party, is worthy of the warm support of the people. Merrimon, for Chief Justice, challenges the admiration of every citizen while Clark has endeaved himself to the people of the State. The nominations for the Superior Court have been equally fortunate. The names presented are worthy of the suffrages of the people. Let our friends acquit themselves like men, and elect the whole ticket.

And shall the hopes of Thompson die?

SENATOR RANSOM.

HIS ADDRESS, A FINAL MAG-NIFICENT STROKE.

Metropolitan Hall Packed to Hear Him--The Senator Speaks Nearly Three Hours and Delivers One of His Most Masterly Efforts.

It was a final fitting stroke that the glorious campaign which has been waged in Wake should have been brought to a close by that peerless son of North Carolina whom every one of her citizens loves and honors, Senator M. W. Ransom.

As Senator Ransom entered Metropolitan Hall last night, escorted by words, introduced Senator Ransom. The Senator expressed his pleasure at once again speaking to a Raleigh audience. He said, as he addressed the audience, his memory brought back forty years of association, which he looked back upon with gratification and pleasure. He said we were tonight on the eave of a great election, a preliminary election to the great Presidential contest

The Senator spoke first of the history of North Carolina under Democratic rule, and the prosperity it had enjoyed. Not one dollar of the peoples money had been lost to the people through Democratic administration. But in the days of the wild delirium of Republican government in North Carolina everything had been lost. We often talk of the glory of Mecklenburg, the Battle of King's Mountain and of Moore's Creek, but the American people, where your when the historian writes of these most sacred rights and liberties have days of Democratic government in North Carolina he will write it down in letters of living fire as an era of honesty and of prosperity. One million and seven hundred thousand citizens of North Carolina sieep tonight knowing that they are safe under this broad shield of Democratic government. The farmers, that honored, that industrious and courageous class, are dissatisfied with the currency. There are 316 millions of silver dollars and silver certificates now in circulation. How much of it was issued by the Republicans? Only four and a half millions. There is where the currency question stands between the two parties. The Republican party in 1873 demonetized silver and kept it so till 1878 when the Bland bill to guard the polls. And the act pro-

Is that all? you ask. Fourteen years ago the Democrats in the Senate stood up day and night in opposition to the civil rights bill and prevented its passage.

For twenty-five years the Republicans had the Presidency and only two Southern men were called into the cabinet. During that time no Southern man was placed upon the Supreme Court bench and only one Southerner was appointed as a foreign minister. Mr. Cleveland's first act was to appoint three Southern statesman in his cabinet. He appointed a Southner upon the Supreme Court beach and appointed Southern men as ministers to Brazil, tained large sums of money from France, Spain, Austria and other But of all the statesmen, patriots, of the men he would not give their placed in his cabinet or elevated to holds an office under Mr. Harrison office is.

My countrymen, pause for an instant and let me ask you how can you support a party that makes a law under which articles of use and necessity can be sold to foreigners by from 25 to 50 per cent cheaper than they can to you. Our farmers have to pay more for their implements than do the Mexicans and the Cubans.

But our country seems prosperous and we are apt to say that it is impossible that we are paying so much tariff duty. The expenditures of the government last year under the Re-Chairman Smith and several distinguished gentlemen, he was greeted with a tremendous outburst of vould all the taxable property in North Carolina is worth. This was paid by much went into the pockets of Northern manufacturers. Mr. Cleveland's administration during any year he was President was 65 millions less.

But there are other matters of greater importance. Look back to dependence which was the foundation of this grand Republic of ours. We have been a free people. But your splendid efforts of his life. have been a free people. But your liberty has been stricken down in the very citadel of its defense.

If the Democrats of the 5th and 9th districts had done their duty Mr. Reed would not have been the Speaker of the House. I only mention this that no man may falter in his duty tomorrow. The House adopted new rules and Mr. Reed began his process of despotism. There in the House of Representatives of been protected, your Democratic representatives have been robbed of their liberties. The supervisors, said the Senator, provided for in this measure are to be appointed for life. They are to have the tenure of a king. They cannot be impeached nor removed. There will be seventy of them in North Carolina. Then three special supervisors may be appointed for every ballot box in your State at the request of fifty men.
