PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 10.—Alexander Hester, senior member of the firm of Hester & Bro., clothing manufacturers, 432 Market street, was ascending by the elevator today in his own business house. He was in the elevator going up when he thoughtlessly stooped over with his head out of the door to speak to an employee when his head was caught between the ceiling and the elevator and severed from his body.

Lynchers Foiled. By Telegraph to the News and Observer.

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Nov. 10.—Ernest Farbes, the colored youth who is under arrest on the charge of assaulting Bertha Phipps, white, aged 15 years, was secretly removed last night to Baltimore, where he will be safe from the lynchers and secure from release. The intended lynchings of Farbes reached Camp Parole, two miles from Annapolis, last night, but their advance guard could not find a safe way to pass the troops, which the Governor had collected there to prevent the anticipated lynching, and get into the city, to say nothing of getting inside the jail.

Attacked and Robbed.

WARRENTON GAZETTE. An outrage upon the good standing and safety of our town was perpetrated last night. Mr. A. Plummer, who lives near Middleburg, was walking up Main street when he was assaulted and robbed by a negro, who has only been out of the penitentiary a few months, and arrived here from Norfolk only two or three days ago. Jones is a negro of bad character, and a heavy weight of evidence against him has been gathered. When arrested this morning he had Plummer's knife, pocket-book, and several other articles belonging to the same on his person.

A Daring Train Robber Captured.

CHICAGO, Ill., Nov. 10.—Tonight Postoffice Inspector Watkins will arrive here having in custody William E. Newberry who is said to be the leader of one of the most daring train robberies of recent years; June 6th a Northern Pacific train was stopped at New Salem, N. D., by highwaymen. Two masked men climbed upon the engine and compelled the engineer and fireman to detach the engine from the train and then to pull out. Having taken the engine about twenty rods the engineer and fireman were taken back to the train where they were ordered to batter down the door of the express car. With the first attack on the car the express clerk escaped from it, and saved the contents of the safe, since he carried with him their keys. Having entered the car the two robbers compelled the engineer, fireman and postal clerk to cut open the mail pouches and carry first-class registered mail matter to the robbers on horses. About 500 packages, containing $45,000 in cash were secured. G. E. Bailey, one of the highwaymen, was subsequently captured. He is now serving a term in North Dakota penitentiary. A search for Newberry has been carried on by the postal authorities ever since, and he was arrested at Plains, Va., Saturday. Newberry comes of an excellent Virginia family.

THE CROP RETURNS.

THE COTTON AND GRAIN OF THE SOUTH.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—The cotton returns for November to the Department of Agriculture are on the county estimates of the yield per acre. A consolidation of the areas with the rates of yield, with corrections only of obvious errors, makes the average yield 187 pounds of lint per acre. It is about the same as the yield of last year and better than the returns of the yield of last November, which were exceeded by the results of a final investigation. Some of the returns report killing frosts which did not extend to the large area on the southern side of the cotton belt.
