TWO REMEDIES SUGGESTED.

Major Burke Wants to Engage the Messiah and Sitting Bull for His Show.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—Major Burke, of the "Wild West" show, said today that if the department would give him the authority he would settle the trouble in a very short time and without the expense of millions of dollars which might be necessary in case of an Indian outbreak. Major Burke said that if he could get the necessary authority he would go out and find this Messiah, and within twenty-four hours of the first interview he could have him and Sitting Bull under engagement on their way East. He said about $75 a week would pay both their salaries, and that it would settle the Indian war in short order. The officials at the Indian Office regard such a proposition as a joke, but at the War Department one of the officers said that there might be more truth than poetry in that method of settling the difficulty.

The House Appropriation Committee.

By Telegraph to the News and Observer. WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 20.—A call for a meeting of the House Appropriation Committee today was issued some time ago, but Representatives Sawyer, Coggswell and McComas were the only members to put in an appearance, and nothing was done. It is expected that a quorum will be here by Saturday. The same sub-committees will have charge of the various bills and an earnest effort will be made to advance the work on the appropriation bills as much as possible in order that they may be reported soon after Congress meets. The District of Columbia bill will be the first reported, and it is thought this will be ready to report to the full committee the day Congress meets. The annual estimate has been received for the pension fortification and district bills and for a part of the legislative bill. These estimates form a basis on which the appropriation bills are made up.

A Sharper's Trick.

By Telegraph to the News and Observer. ROCHESTER, N. Y., Nov. 20.—Moses S. Marks, who up to one year ago was employed at the Flour City National Bank, this city telegraphed by the Western Union Telegraph line to the National Bank of Commerce, New York, correspondents of the Flour City bank, to send twenty-five thousand dollars in currency. He signed the name of the cashier of the bank, Wm. A. Walters, to the dispatch. This morning the bank received a letter from the National Bank of Commerce in New York saying the money had been sent in $10 and $20 bills. The bank officials at once telephoned to the American Express Company to learn if the money which they had not ordered had been received and learned that Marks had called there at 9 o'clock and received the cash. The Express Company officials knew him and supposed he was still connected with the bank. The police are now looking for Marks. The thief was a young man of the town who has hitherto borne an excellent reputation.

Miss Marlowe's Condition No Better.

By Telegraph to the News and Observer. PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 20.—No change in Miss Marlowe's condition for the past thirty-six hours. The swelling in the glands of her throat is not increased, neither is it diminished. That she has not grown worse is considered by the physicians this morning as a favorable sign, and they think an operation may possibly be avoided. They will hold another consultation this afternoon, and a definite decision as to whether or not the operation is necessary will be arrived at.

Coal Drivers on a Strike.

By Telegraph to the News and Observer. BRAZILL, Ind., Nov. 20.—Drivers in the coal mines here have demanded an advance in wages to $2.00 per day. The operators determined to refuse the demand. General suspension throughout the block coal district is imminent. The yearly rate has been fixed but some operators are paying $2.00. Hence all are asked to.

Rate of Discount Seven Per Cent.

By Cable to the News and Observer. LONDON, Nov. 20.—The regular meeting of the directors of the Bank of England took place today. They made no change in the bank's rate of discount. The rate of discount in open market is nominally 7 per cent.

Failure of Barker Bros. & Co.

By Telegraph to the News and Observer. NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—A dispatch from Philadelphia says: The failure of Barker Bros. & Co. has just been announced on the stock exchange. The announcement of the failure on the stock exchange here had the effect of depressing the market.

INDIANS SCARED.

BEGINNING TO DISPERSE BEFORE THE TROOPS.

It is, However, Feared That They Have Gone to Incite the Northern Cheyennes to Reinforce Them.—An Interview with Sitting Bull.

By Telegraph to the News and Observer.

CHICAGO, Ill., Nov. 20.—A special from Standing Rock agency N. D., says: The news that troops have been ordered to the reservation has spread rapidly among the savages and the general effect has been bad. Several hundred braves have disappeared, with what object and in which direction, cannot at this hour be learned. There is evident fright in some quarters, and the general impression is that the bucks are running away from what they regard as an impending calamity. It may be, however, that they are bent upon pillage and murder and have galloped across the country to incite the Northern Cheyennes, the most excitable band of Indians in the West, to take arms against the whites. The aged warriors and women are frightened over the outlook and profess the warmest friendship for the pale here, faces. Maj. McLaughlin, agent has just returned from Sitting Bull's camp, on Rand river, and reports that dances are still going on, but Sitting Bull's influence has weakened greatly in the last week. Now he has no more than a hundred or so followers. He received Major McLaughlin cordially, but the young bucks scowled at the agent as though he were not welcome. He had a long talk with Sitting Bull, and is satisfied that the old chief's faith in the coming Messiah is on the decline, and that unless something unforeseen occurs, there is no probability of trouble this winter, and possibly none next spring. Gen. Ruger's presence here last week had the effect of reducing Sitting Bull's followers by nearly one-half, so that now he has not enough men to carry on the campaign if he wanted to.

THE GHOST DANCING CONTINUES.

CHICAGO, Nov. 20.—A telegram from Rushville informs Gen. Miles that the troops under Gen. Brooke reached the Pine Ridge agency at 7 o'clock this morning. The Indians are coming in in large numbers from Rosebud. There is much excitement and the ghost dancing continues.

THE INDIANS SHOWING EXCITEMENT.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—A dispatch to the Indian Commissioner from Special Agent Cooper, at Pine Ridge Agency, says: "Indians very much excited. They still continue to dance. Gen. Brooke, with five companies of infantry, three troops of cavalry, one Hotchkiss and one Gatling gun, have just arrived at the Agency."

The East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia.

By Telegraph to the News and Observer. KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Nov. 20.—The annual meeting of the stockholders of the East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia Railway Company was held here yesterday. The old board of directors was re-elected. These will meet in New York in a few days and elect officers. Out of 500,000 shares, 65 per cent. was represented nearly all by proxy. It was expected that some announcement in regard to the purchase of the Cincinnati, New Orleans and Texas Pacific system would be made, but there was not.

All His Possessions Lost in a Twink.

GALLATIN, Tenn., Nov. 19.—R. T. Meadows, of Bledsoe, having sold his farm and stock, was seated by the fire last night talking to his wife of their contemplated trip to Texas, whither they were going to make their future home. Mr. Meadows pulled out his money, which was in large bills, and proceeded to count it. When he had laid down his last bill on the hearth some one opened the door, and a gust of wind carried his all in the fire. Before Mr. Meadows could rescue any of his currency it was in ashes. He had converted all his possessions into cash, and in a twinkling all was lost.

Pork Packers Make an Assignment.

By Telegraph to the News and Observer. CINCINNATI, O., Nov. 20.—Chas. Jacobs & Co., pork and beef packers, at Plum and Findlay streets, assigned this morning to Geo. C. Jacobs. Liabilities, $60,000; assets, $40,000, with preferences given in favor of Geo. Wuest for $17,500.

CARDINAL GIBBONS RILED.

A Book Dedicated to Him Is Not Acceptable, and He Will Start a Libel Suit.

By Telegraph to the News and Observer. NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 20.—Cardinal Gibbons today served papers on Hyacinthe Archibald Ringrose, of Yale University, summoning him to appear in a Federal Court of the Eastern District of Maryland, on January 25, next, to answer in a suit of damages presumably on a charge of libel. Ringrose's book, "The Poor Man's Priest," which is the life and endorsement of Dr. McGlynn, is dedicated to Cardinal Gibbons, it now appears with the Cardinal's consent. The Cardinal has also communicated with the publishers here restraining the use of his name in connection with the book. Ringrose is a communicant of the Catholic Church, and has a brother who is a Priest.

Failure of a Banking Firm.

By Telegraph to the News and Observer. PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Nov. 20.—The failure of Barker Bros. & Co., bankers and brokers, was announced on the stock exchange this afternoon. The firm is composed of Able & Wharton Barker. The firm at 1 o'clock stopped receiving deposits at their offices on Fourth and Chestnut streets, and at 1:15 o'clock the doors were closed. The members of the firm refused to make any explanation of their trouble. The firm has of late been doing very little business through the stock exchange. An assignment has been made to Edward Mellor, who is a son-in-law of Wharton Barker.

The failure has been caused largely by various unprofitable railroad investments. Barker Bros. & Co. were identified with a number of railroad schemes which the prudent financiers and capitalists avoided, and when the money stringency came they found it impossible to realize upon them. Among the railroad securities with which this firm were identified in recent years, were the Ohio & Northwestern, the Oregon, Pacific, San Antonio and Arkansas Passenger and the Charleston, Cincinnati and Chicago, all of which have drawn heavily upon the resources of the bankers. Wharton Barker was president of a finance company of Pennsylvania and was director of an investment company of Philadelphia, of which latter company he was formerly vice-president. Just before Barker's suspension was announced today a meeting of the directors of these companies were called, apparently with haste. What action was taken by the directors of either of the two corporations was kept inviolably secret.

At the finance company immediate preparations were made for the anticipated run on its deposits and the subsequent developments showed that the precaution was well taken. A number checks were presented during the last hour of the day's business and some accounts drawn out. All drafts made up were promptly met and Treasurer Stern assured a number of persons who had accounts there that the company was entirely solvent and would pay everything presented in the form of a check or other demand. In the office of the company after three o'clock Charlemagne Tower, Jr., vice-President of the company said that the finance company was under no stress; that it could pay every obligation against them and that the meeting of director had no reference to the Barker failure. At the investment company meeting, President Hogg said that there was no action taken at the meeting of the Directors that could interest the public in any way and that it had no reference to the Barker failure.

The W. C. T. U.

By Telegraph to the News and Observer. ATLANTA, Nov. 20.—Miss Willard today sent the following telegram to the convention in session at North Avenue M. E. Church, Allegheny City: To Miss E. U. Phinney:—Believing that it is legally and morally wrong for any body to take the name of the National Women's Christian Temperance Union, with the prefix non-partisan, we ask you as Christian sisters to discontinue the use of the same. (Signed) FRANCES E. WILLARD, Pres. MARY A. WOODBRIDGE, Sec'y.

A Millionaire's Small Wages.

"How much do you make a day, my lad?" asked ex-Commissioner O. B. Potter of the newsboy from whom he was waiting to receive change. "About fifty cents," the boy answered. "That's just twice as much as I could earn when I was thirteen years old," said the millionaire. "I might have been a rich man now if I had only had the start that you are getting."—New York Times.

The New Orleans city council has appropriated $15,000 to defray the expense of bringing the assassins of Chief of Police Hennessy to justice. The money is to be disbursed by the mayor as he may deem best. The preliminary examination of the men held as accessories to the crime has been fixed for Saturday next.

POLICE CALLED ON.

PANICKY DEPOSITORS BECOME UNMANAGEABLE.

The Run in New York and Newark Continues Unabated and the Financial Depositors Have to be Restraind by Officers.

By Telegraph to the News and Observer.

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—The run which was begun yesterday on the Citizens' Savings Bank here continued this morning. As early as 9 o'clock from 15,000 to 16,000 excited people gathered in the vicinity. In fact the number of unfortunate people who have fears they have lost all their hard earnings paraded up and down the neighborhood all night. Within the bank President Quintard and the cashier sat watching the preparations for the day. The president said to a reporter: "We made about a thousand dollars in interest money yesterday lost by the frightened depositors. In all we paid out over $113,000 and took in about $16,000. The run will probably continue today and tomorrow, but we expect all the money back next week. There are plenty of police present to keep the agitated depositors in order." When the bank officials were ready to begin their day's work such a crowd gathered about the doors as would be entirely unmanageable, so word was sent to the nearest police station and reserves were at once ordered out with Capt. McCullough at their head. After a good deal of trouble the crowd was got into single file which extended around from the bank doors, on Canal street, and down to Elizabeth street. As soon as order was restored depositors were admitted to the bank in squads of fifteen. The president of the bank had offered of assistance today from kindred organizations. They were respectfully declined, saying there was enough cash on hand to meet the run. Mr. Quintard said that it would take at least a week to settle up with those already in line today. There is no known reason for the run except that ignorant foreign depositors became distrustful.

The Run Still on in Newark.

By Telegraph to the News and Observer. NEWARK, N. J., Nov. 20.—A big crowd than on the two previous days shivered outside of the Howard Savings bank this morning. Long before the bank opened hundreds of women surrounded the bank to withdraw their money. Most of the withdrawals were by Poles, Italians and other foreigners. There were many women to every man. Many business men are making deposits as usual, to allay feelings of suspicion. President Frelinghuysen says he has plenty of money to pay off depositors and if every depositor should withdraw, the bank would still have over $500,000 left. The business community is not worried over the run on the bank.

Hinton Helper's Meanness.

ROANOKE, Va., Nov. 19.—About a year ago Hinton Helper, a well-known newspaper man, came to Roanoke and was instrumental in organizing the Commercial Club, of which he was made secretary at a good salary. About the 1st of October Helper left for the North, ostensibly for medical treatment. While away the Philadelphia papers published among hotel arrivals "Mr. and Mrs. Hinton Helper." As Mrs. Helper was at her home in Roanoke at the time, the Philadelphia publication aroused her suspicion of her husband's fidelity. Mrs. Helper was confirmed in her suspicions by the discovery of affectionate letters to her absent lord, written from New York, and signed "Madeline" and "Dollie."

Two weeks ago Helper sent in his resignation as secretary of the Commercial Club, giving ill health as the reason for his action. He went to New York, and today a cousin who succeeded him as secretary received a letter from him in which he said life had been a disappointment. He sent a check to his wife for $60, but he had only $20 in the bank.

Several letters from his wife elicited no response, and tonight Mrs. Helper left her home in Savannah, having become convinced that her husband had abandoned her. Mr. Helper's conduct has caused a sensation in business and social circles. He is a nephew of Hinton Helper, author of "Impending Crises."

HOW GLASGOW IS GROWING.

The Progress It Has Made in the Last Six Months.

ITS BEAUTIFUL LOCATION ON THE JAMES AND NORTH RIVERS—ITS FINE NEW HOTEL—ITS TWO FURNACES, STOVE FOUNDRY, ROLLING MILLS AND POWDER MILLS—WHAT EX-GOVERNOR LEE IS DOING.

Glasgow is within four miles of the world-renowned Natural Bridge, and twenty miles of Lexington, and is located on a beautiful plain just where the James and North rivers join together, and with their united efforts burst through the lofty Blue Ridge, forming a picture so beautiful that no pen can describe it.

On this plain is located what is destined in the near future to be one of the largest and most important manufacturing cities of the South. Glasgow will certainly become one of the most popular summer resorts in the State. The hills and mountains adjacent to the town are rich in the best quality of ores, cement, glass sand, mineral paints, slate, marble, fire and brick clays, all of which can be worked at a minimum cost. The excellent railroad facilities, and low cost of raw material, enables every article to be manufactured at so low a cost as to favorably compete with the world.

These properties have been thoroughly examined by some of the most eminent experts, such as Prof. John R. Proctor, State geologist of Kentucky; Ralph Moore, one of the most distinguished experts of Scotland and England, and others, and their report showed these properties to be unusually rich in the above named articles.

Gov. Fitz Lee, the ex-Governor of Virginia, is president of the company which owns and controls the town site, and adjacent mineral lands consisting of about fifty thousand acres. Surrounded as it is with so many natural advantages, and under the leadership of that gallant soldier and distinguished statesman, in whom every one has the most implicit confidence, Glasgow is bound to succeed.

Glasgow is triangulated by railroads, having on one side the Shenandoah Valley, which is controlled by the Norfolk and Western; on another the Richmond and Alleghany, which belongs to the Chesapeake and Ohio system, and on the third by the Lexington Branch of the Richmond and Alleghany, connecting with the Baltimore and Ohio at Lexington, a point about twenty miles distant. In addition to this it is proposed to build a road from Pittsburg, Pa., to Glasgow, and extend it on to Atlanta.

Glasgow's existence may be said to date from March 5th, 1890. Since then it has secured industries to the amount of $2,085,000, which will employ as soon as completed 3,000 men, which means a great increase in population, and a busy and prosperous city.

Among its industries now building are the largest stove works in the South, two one hundred ton iron furnaces, large rolling mills, large carriage factories and powder mills and others.

Three building companies are under contract to build $125,000 worth of houses. A bank building and Masonic Temple to cost about $10,000 each, and several brick stores, will soon be erected. Beside these several hundred other houses will be built at once.

In addition to all the above, one of the finest hotels in the South is being built. It is next in size to the Hygiea. It will have a ball room and music pavilion annexed costing $20,000.

Glasgow has also a belt line railroad, with industries all along the line. The city may justly be termed the iron and steel city of the Shenandoah Valley. The deposits of ore are inexhaustible, averaging almost 50 per cent. of pure iron.

The company makes the very liberal proposition at its sale of the 25th and 26th of returning fares to all purchasers. The sale is expected to be alarge one as lots are selling at very moderate prices.

THE FAVORABLE IMPRESSION produced on the first appearance of the agreeable liquid fruit remedy, Syrup of Figs, a few years ago has been more than confirmed by the pleasant experience of all who have used it, and the success of the proprietors and manufacturers of the California Fig Syrup Company.

Headache almost always yields to the simultaneous application of hot water to the feet and back of the neck.
