Over Seven Hundred Barrels Destroyed by Fire.

By Telegraph to the News and Observer. NASHVILLE, Dec. 24 .- The warehouse and distillery of Stephens & tion. burned last night, together with 750 barrels of whisky. Loss about $18,000 in whisky and $2,000 on house incendiary. The government revenue tax on the whisky destroyed would have amounted to about $28,000.

Mass Meeting of Strikers.

By Cable to the News and Observer. EDINBURGH, Dec. 24.-A mass meeting of railroad strikers of this neighborhood was held here today. Pickets reported that the strike continued to extend in all directions and it was resolved to continue the struggle until the employees' demands were granted. The police are taking precautions to protect railroad property-

Christmas Presents Smashed. By Telegraph to the News and Observer.

CHICAGO, Dec. 24.—The continued settling of the walls of the government building resulted today in the breaking of a water pipe and flooding the basement with water. There is a vast quantity of Christmas mail in the building, and thousands of Christmas presents, many of them costly ones, have been ruined.

No Light Ahead.

By Cable to the News and Observer.

GLASGOW, Dec. 24.—There are no signs of improvement in connection with the railroad strike in Scotland. It is estimated that about 7,500 men are now out on strike, and business may be said to be entirely at a standstill on the north British lines. Traffic is suspended, while others are working in a irregular manner. The business people residing in the sub-tribs are obliged to walk from their movement was in the hands of the out of town residences to the city, thereby suffering much inconven-pirants for the presidency. ience. In and about Glasgow the Thos. H. Briggs & Sons., price of coal has already advanced seven shillings per ton, with the pros-pect of a still further advance in the price before long. In addition to the coal trouble, which seriously affects the poorer classes already, it is said that a gas famine is imminent and the police are already taking steps to provide a force of special constables to guard the city in case a supply of gas should give out and the city be plunged into total darkness at night. All ship yards and public works are without fuel and they expect to be forced to close their doors unless the strike is settled within a very short time. A strong detachment of police are guarding the railway depots which are surrounded by crowds of strikers accompanied by their wives and families who jeer and laugh at the bungling effort of railway men, lamp men, sweepers, clerks and others who have been pressed into service. It is new to them making up and running the few trains which the railway officials manage to dispatch.

No Building for Bar Harbor

By Telegraph to the News and Observer. WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 24 .-The President today returned to the Senate without his approval the bill for the erection of a public building at Bar Harbor, Maine. The President says: A statement of a few facts will show, I think, that the public needs do not justify the contemplated expenditure of $75,000 fer the erection of a public building at Bar Harbor. Only one public office, the postoffice, is to be accommodated. It appears from the report of the Postmaster General that the rent paid by the United States for a room containing 875 square feet of floor space, was in 1888 $300, and the expenditure for fuel and lights, $60. One clerk was employed in the postofficer and no carrier.

gross postal receipts for that year were $7.000. Bar Harbor is almost wholly a summer resort. The population of the town of Eden, of which Bar Harbor forms a part, as taken by the census enumerators, was less than 2,000. During one quarter of the year this population is largely increased by summer residents and visitors, but for the other three quarters it is not much above the census enumeration. The postal receipts for 1890, by quarters, show that far more than half the year the gross receipts of the postoffice are about $8 per day. The salary of a janitor for the new building would be more than twice the present cost to the government for rent, fuel and lights.

SHORT SESSION OF THE SEN-ATE YESTERDAY.

By Telegraph to the News and Observer.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 24.—SENATE. -Mr. Morgan called up his resolution directing the committee on privileges and elections to amend section 31 of the election bill.

Mr. Sherman contended that it was not now in order to call up that resolution except upon a formal mo-

Mr. Morgan said that during his service in the Senate of about fourteen years, the other practice had been in vogue. He likened the resand machinery. Insurance on the ent condition of the Senate to the whisky $4,000. Fire supposed to be condition of Sycophantic Damocles, with a single hair holding a sword suspended over his head. Yesterday the little State of Rhode Island had informed the Senate that at its will and pleasure-not of the projer committee, but of the caucus committee, free speech was to be prohibited. But these threats were not addressed to the Sycophants and cowards, but to men who knew their rights, and knowing "dare main-Efforts to confine speech came with especially ill grace from the Senators who had sat in this ehamber for almost twenty years. The Senate was having cloture in various forms and shapes. After twenty years of quiet agreement in the other practice the Senator from Ohio suddenly had discovered cloture. By implication this was but a part of a threat. Mr. Sherman made a point of order that Mr. Morgan was not entitled to the floor but the presiding officer ruled otherwise and Mr. Morgan resumed his remarks. If, he said, the sword were hung over the heads of sycophants and cowards there might be something in it; but when it was suspended over representatives of the sovereign States of the Union, the action would be met in no other manner than by indignant protest against its injustice, its wrongfullness and its impropriety. The President thought that he was leading this movement, which would a y as well to the financial measure as to the election bill. He was doing it just as the gnat was moving the buf-

Pending further debate, the hour of 11 arrived, and Mr. McPherson friends, it says, have probably continued his speech against the election bill.

At 12:45, on motion, Mr. Hoar the Senate adjourned until Saturday at noon, with the understanding that at that time the vice-President shall declare the Senate adjourned till Monday at noon.

FOREIGN NEWS.

Opinions of the Fress on the Irish Elections.

By Cable to the News and Observer.

DUBLIN, Dec. 24 .- The United Ireland today, referring to the recent election in north Kilkenny, says: Kilkenny has declared for Gladstone against Parnell. The battle was fought with every weapon that hatred, malice, ingratitude and treachery could supply. Behind the mu-tineers were priests eager to regain the power Parnell secured for Ireland ten years ago. They sanctioned methods of warfare hitherto unused, and open fighting was supplemented by intimidation. Although this combination secured a victory in Kilkenny, it must be remembered that Kilkenny is not Ireland. They shall be forced to renew the wage of battle at every spot on Irish soil from the centre to the sea.

The Freeman's Journal says that Parnell starts for Paris tonight in order to meet his "trusty heuten-ant," William O'Brien. Parnell, according to the Journal, refuses to believe that a friendly conference between O'Brien and himself will be barren of results until they have definitely failed to establish a modus LONDON, Dec. 24.-The Standard thinks that Parnell has some ground for the confidence he professes to feel. "Had the election been held in the town of Kilkenny," it says, "there is not an atom of doubt that he would have got an over whelming victory. Many who would have otherwise supported Paruell doubtless abstained. bewildered by priestly pressure. As long as the split lasts it is a matter of indifference to Unionists who wins."

The Chronicle thinks the return of the arch mischief maker to the Conservative party cannot cause much joy to Gladstone and Morley. Having so correctly gauged party clos feeling in Kilkenny Davitt and his gauged it with equal accuracy as regards Ireland itself. If so the Parnellites will soon be extinguished.

The Telegraph says it remains to be seen how the McCarthyites can be held together without Parnell's personal magnetism and American aid.

CHINA.

Festivals Which the Natives of the Flowery Kingdom Celebrate.

Santa Claus, with a long pig-tail and freedom-loving shirt, does not descend the chimneys of the Celestians loaded with chinaware, firecrackers, dragon kites, chop sticks or opium pipes. But it is not to be inferred from this that they have no Christmas. According to Sam Moy, who, of all the Chinamen in Chicago, has the greatest familiarity with the English language, for 5,000 years or more the people of China have celebrated December 20 as their Christmas under the name of Ung Gee.

But the motive for and the manner of celebrating the day are quite different from those in Christian countries. The Ung Gee feast is intended to celebrate the introduction of almond growing its name signify ing "The feast of almonds," and its celebration consists in sacrificing a quantity of almonds in a highly economical manner-by eating them. Beyond this and a somewhat better dinner than usual, and the burning of a few firecrackers and joss sticks, there is no celebration of the day.

It is the Chinese New Year, occurring January 30, that is celebrated with the greatest pomp and cere mony. It is not at all certain that religion has anything to do with this feast.

Hot Springs.

Hot Springs.

Have you ever visited Hot Springs? Alas! You meet while there so many instances of terrible blood poison, evidenced by disfigurement of face and form. Hither, rush sufferers from scrofula, syphilis eczema, salt rheum, ulcers, blemished skin, twisted and aching joints, limbs made crooked by rheumatism, etc., etc. Some find relief, some do not and come away poor in purse and grievously disapp_inted. It costs money to visit and sojourn at hot Springs. The experiment of going there cannot be indulged in without con-iderable expense. How thankful, then, should every one be to know there is a remedy even more beneficial in cases of blood poison than Hot Springs. We refer to Botanic Blood Balm (B B B) as to its merits thousands will testify.

Z. T. Hallerton, Macon, Ga., writes: "I contracted blood poison. I first tried physicians, and then went to Hot Springs. I returned home a ruined man physically. Nothing seemed to do me any good. My mother persuaded me to try B B B. To my utter astonishment every ulcer quickly healed."

Jas. L. Bosworth, Atlanta, Ga., says: "Some years ago I contracted blood poison I had no appetite, my digestion was ruined, rheumatism drew up my limbs so I could hardly walk, my throat was cauterizen five times. Hot Springs gave me no benefit and my life was one of torture until I gave B B B a trial, and, surprising as it may seem, the use of five bottles cured me."
