Young ladies who have been refused admittance to male colleges ought not to feel aggrieved while there are so many excellent female seminaries in the land.

The Philadelphia Ledger, the staunch champion of John Wamaker, is showing signs of weakness. It now seems to intimate a doubt as to the quality and thickness of the whitewash it has been using to make the Postmaster General appear white by the side of the Keystone Bank failure.

The decision of Mrs. Davis that the remains of President Davis should find interment at Richmond will, we think, give general satisfaction in North Carolina.

It was while he was at Richmond that he was in the largest measure in the eye of the Southern people, and that city will live in history as the capital of the fallen Confederacy of which he was the only President.

It is understood that the crop of wheat is short abroad and that the poor people in Europe may find bread higher and more difficult to get than last year.

Our friend, Mr. J. F. Willey, of Gates county, has sent us a sample of the Irish potatoes raised in his county. It is one of the largest we ever saw.

THE TOBACCO ASSOCIATION.

The fifth annual meeting of the North Carolina State Tobacco Association will be held at Morehead August 5th, and elsewhere we print the official call of President J. S. Lockhart, and the address to the tobacco men of Mr. G. E. Webb, secretary.

Much of our tobacco is of the finest quality and excellence, and North Carolina should have the credit in the markets of the world of producing it.

Virginia has her own excellent tobacco, and does not need the additional fame of producing that grown in North Carolina.

And so we are greatly pleased to learn from the excellent address of President Lockhart that one of the objects to be promoted at the coming meeting is this very matter.

An address is to be delivered by Col. W. W. Wood, of Winston, on that subject, and it is to be published and distributed over the world.

With respect to tobacco, a humorous writer somewhere suggests that the world made no great advance in high morals and civilization, in works of charity and ennobling deeds of humanity until after Raleigh introduced its use into Europe.

"If you don't like the sub-treasury bill give us something better." This is what we now hear and read. Do those who thus state their case, or their demands, ever expect to get anything better from the Republican party?

The president has just appointed the following committees: Finance—J. M. Curran, Oxford; R. P. Walker, Asheville; J. F. Jordan, Greensboro; W. H. Smoot, Henderson; G. W. Martin, Madison.

Executive—J. S. Carr, Durham; W. W. Wood, Winston; J. L. King, Greensboro; W. P. Pickett, High Point; D. Y. Cooper, Henderson; J. W. Hanes, Winston; Robt. Harris, Reidsville; T. H. Martin, Durham.

Banquet—J. P. Taylor, Henderson; B. L. Duke, Durham; P. F. Faison, Raleigh; R. H. Jones, Roxboro; W. M. Watkins, Milton; H. A. Fisher, Salisbury; Henry Cooper, Oxford; W. J. Walker, Asheville; H. W. Cobb, Greensboro; A. H. Motley, Jr., Reidsville; A. J. Ellington, Rocky Mount; E. M. Pace, Wilson; A. B. Gorell, Winston; Albert Kramer, Durham.

Transportation—J. E. Pogue, Raleigh; J. W. Hines, Rocky Mount; Wm. Smith, Raleigh; G. D. Boyd, Warrenton; A. H. Sparger, Mt. Airy; John E. Redd, Reidsville; J. E. Gilmer, Winston; C. C. McCarty, Asheville.

Entertainment—E. Thompson, Durham; Meriweather Lewis, Greensboro; Buck Lewis, Milton; O. S. Smoot, Oxford; W. M. Carter, Wilson; A. M. Coleman, Winston; John A. Watt, Reidsville; J. W. Hobgood, Raleigh; D. L. Gaskill, Salisbury; J. B. Boatwright, Louisville; N. B. Norman, Rocky Mount; F. H. Hall, Asheville; N. P. Stranahan, Henderson; John Morehead, Durham; John Engelhart, Durham; W. L. Parrish, Durham.

Annual Banquet—Friday night, August 7th. Secretary Webb makes the following earnest appeal, which merits careful consideration: To the Tobacco Men of North Carolina:

The question is frequently asked, "What is the object of the North Carolina Tobacco Association?" In answer to this I will refer those who are interested in the matter to the points in reference to the question contained in President Lockhart's call.

There are other reasons why the North Carolina State Tobacco Association should be patronized and encouraged by the trade.

We have just received a large invoice of the famous Magnolia Hams, and are selling at figures to suit the time.

THE NORTH CAROLINA STATE TOBACCO ASSOCIATION.

President Lockhart's Call. To the Tobacco Association of North Carolina:

Be it remembered that the Association will meet at Morehead City on the 6th of August next, for the purpose of considering the great and growing tobacco interest of the State.

The production of tobacco is a subject that is now agitating the public mind of our people. Fifty years ago only a few counties in the State knew anything about the cultivation of tobacco, and it was not generally known at home nor abroad that North Carolina grew tobacco.

We had no home market; it was sold on the Virginia markets, and was shipped abroad as Virginia tobacco, and even down to the present time it is sold on the markets of the world as Virginia tobacco.

Another thing: The press of North Carolina, the teachers, the fruit growers, the doctors, dentists, &c., have their annual meetings, and why not the tobacco men have theirs—representing, as they do, the most important of our State's industries?

An elaborate address is being prepared by a competent gentleman of the trade. A committee of competent gentlemen will prepare a banquet, which will be the biggest thing of the kind ever given in the State.

Arrangements have been made for reduced railroad and hotel rates. It only costs one dollar to join the Association. This entitles the members to all the privileges that none but a member can enjoy.

Send your names with the $1 fee to me at once, or to W. E. Bevil, treasurer, Greensboro.

G. E. WEBB, Secretary, Winston, N. C.

THE TICKETS FOR '92. Drift of Presidential Discussion by the Party Journals.

Lynchburg News (Dem.): The fact is the Democratic party cannot elect its candidate without New York. In the next election there will be 44 electors chosen.

New York, 36 votes; New Jersey, 9 votes; Connecticut, 6 votes; Indiana, 16 votes; Total, 67.

Delux Tribune (Rep.): Every Alger, who is in one sense a rival of Blaine for the Presidential nomination, acknowledges that the whole country is for Blaine if he will accept the nomination.

Indianapolis Journal (Rep.): There is reason to believe that President Harrison's aim has been and is to make his administration so strong in the confidence and pride of the people as to insure the election of a Republican President in 1892.

Richmond Times (Dem.): The date for the nominating Convention is yet far off, and no one can possibly tell in this rapid age what a month, much less a year, may bring forth.

Savannah News (Dem.): If it be true that Mr. Blaine's health is so bad that there is no probability of his being a candidate for the Presidential nomination, the President would rather have the fact concealed than made public, because so long as Mr. Blaine is regarded as a probable candidate there is not much danger that other candidates will be brought out.

Indiana Sentinel (Dem.): It is to be hoped, now that Gov. Gray has spoken so promptly and so explicitly, that we shall hear no more about any deal for a Hill and Gray delegation from Indiana to the National Convention.

Make a Note of It! Read it over and over again, spell it out and sing it, until it is indelibly fixed in your mind.
