we did not leave faintly, we would be mobbed. We were not, and of course were deprived of the inexpressible pleasure of seeing them.

At Night—Mr. Hughes not very well, remained in his room. I went down stairs again, and remained in the parlor as on the night before. Among the crowd were many polite gentlemen, who appeared to be gratifying their curiosity—the greater mass, however, were abolitionists.

Wednesday—Very early, Rev. Theodore Parker came to our room, followed by 50 or 60 persons—greatly excited, said he had suppressed a mob twice—came as a Christian—as a servant of the Lord and a friend, to request us to leave the city instantly—not to wait for the cars, but to take a carriage—did not think he could suppress the mob any longer!

From all I saw and heard, and experienced while in Boston I am convinced that public opinion there, in regard to the Fugitive Slave Law, is undergoing a change. It is true the abolitionists and negroes are very numerous, and apparently have things very much their own way at present.

I believe that Mr. Hughes will ultimately succeed in getting the negroes. My only regret is that my own private business compels me to return home before seeing him out, and I desire to do justice to myself, and to Mr. Hughes in his absence, by placing the facts before a candid public.

LETTER FROM MR. DALLAS. The Hon. George M. Dallas has addressed the following letter to the Committee of Arrangements for the great Union meeting which is to take place at Philadelphia on Thursday next.

GENTLEMEN: I have just received your note, dated the 11th instant, conveying the information that you have selected me to be the office of one of the vice presidents at the Union meeting on Thursday.

Having heartily joined in the popular movement you are directing, in the hope that through the moral and sagacious purity, I throw myself upon your indulgence while venturing to introduce upon you my anxious conviction as to the only one which can, for the great purpose designed, be usefully given to the proposed meeting.

It is my duty to state to you, that I have already been elected to the office of one of the vice presidents at the Union meeting on Thursday.

The "Bugs" also at Home Again! R. R. R. R.

I HAVE just returned the second time from Boston, New York, and Philadelphia, having spent nearly all of August and September in said cities, getting up our CLOTHING, every article of which was cut by myself, and made up under my own inspection; and I presume there is no one in North Carolina, who would be verdaunt enough to question my capacity after the eloquent tribute paid to my "artistic skill" in our last Superior Court, by Judge, Counsel on both sides, witnesses and Jurors. I refer to the case of "Biggs vs. Oliver"—action for damages, in which I had to pay $250, in consequence of my extended reputation.

Come in if you please, and assist me in paying off the judgment by buying our Goods. Who is there, in North Carolina, who has not heard of the Hon. George E. Bader, the Hon. William H. Haywood, Jr., and "Big" Oliver? Why? Their fame is no more to be hemmed in by State lines than their names are to be circumscribed within the same narrow limits.

We are connected, as all our customers know—and if they don't know it, they may—(with the Northern House) and other OVERCOATS from $6 to $20 and upwards. CLOAKS, full circle, $18 and upwards. FRUCK, dress, and sack COATS from $7 to $12 and upwards. PANTALONS, all colors and prices, from $4 to $8—VESTS, all kinds and all sizes, at prices from $1 25 to $5. In fact, every thing that can be found in any similar establishment in the Union.

We are North Carolinians. We are permanently located here, and we sell as cheap as others, why not give us the preference? If we do not sell as good goods at as small a price, we will not ask your patronage. Call! call! call! before your purchase, at OLIVER & PROCTER'S, R. R. R. R. Fayetteville Street. 2-
