THE NORTH CAROLINA STANDARD.

STILL FURTHER REDUCTION IN PRICE!

THE WEEKLY STANDARD AT TWO DOLLARS A YEAR.

CHEAPEST PAPER IN THE STATE!

YIELDING to the advice and wishes of many of his friends, and being desirous of securing for his paper the widest possible circulation, the Subscriber has determined, since issuing his Prospectus of August last, to put the Weekly Standard at a still lower price. Our terms for the Weekly and Semi-Weekly, will hereafter be as follows:

For the Weekly paper $2 in advance, or within the first month; $2 50 within the first six months; and $3 if not paid within six months.

For the Semi-Weekly, $4 in advance, or within the first month; $4 50 within the first six months; and $5 if not paid within six months.

What we mean by an advance payment is, a payment made when the paper is subscribed for, and renewed promptly every year. In every instance, where payment is thus made in advance, $2 50 for the Weekly and $4 50 for the Semi-Weekly will be charged; and $3 and $5, if payment be delayed beyond six months. These terms will be inflexibly adhered to.

The Standard will thus be

THE CHEAPEST PAPER IN THE STATE.

And no one, who chooses to avail himself of the advance payment, can complain of the price.

The subscriber will continue to devote all his attention to his paper, and will endeavor to make it more useful to his party and more interesting to the general reader. It will be devoted, as heretofore, to

DEMOCRACY, SOUTHERN RIGHTS, NEWS, STATE REFORM, AGRICULTURE, VALUABLE STATISTICS OF ALL SORTS, THE MARKETS, CONGRESSIONAL AND LEGISLATIVE PROCEEDINGS, &c. &c.

The Standard will also contain

THE LATEST TELEGRAPHIC NEWS!

By which its readers will be furnished with intelligence considerably in Advance of the Northern Papers.

The present subscribers to the Standard can avail themselves of the advance payment, by setting up arrears and taking a new start; and those of them who may wish to transfer their subscriptions to the Semi-Weekly, can easily take advantage of the advance payment on that in the same way. All they have to do is to examine their receipts, see how much is due, and transmit us the money for arrears together with $2 or $4, as the case may be, for the ensuing year; and if any of them should be unable to determine how they stand on our books, we will inform them, if applied to.

The Subscriber earnestly appeals to his friends in all parts of the State to assist him in this enterprise. With a little effort in each neighborhood he feels satisfied the Weekly list can be largely increased.

The Subscriber also appeals to his friends along the Daily, Tri-weekly, and Semi-weekly Mail lines to make arrangements at once for taking

THE SEMI-WEEKLY STANDARD!

The mail facilities in this State are so limited that he will need all the subscribers he can get along these lines, to sustain him in his enterprise.

Subscribers, and gentlemen sending in the names of subscribers will please distinguish, opposite each name, between the Weekly and the Semi-Weekly.

The "Bug" also at Home Again!

R. R. R. R.

I HAVE just returned the second time from Boston, New York, and Philadelphia, having spent nearly all of August and September in said cities, getting up our CLOTHING, every article of which was cut by my house and made up under my own inspection; and I presume there is no one in North Carolina now, who would be so ignorant enough to question my capacity after the eloquent tribute paid to my "artistic skill" in our last Superior Court, by Judge, Counsel on both sides, witnesses and Jurors. I refer to the case of "Biggs vs Oliver"—action for damages, in which I had to pay $200, in consequence of my extended reputation.

Come in, if you please, and assist me in paying off the judgment by buying our Goods. Who is there, in North Carolina, who has not heard of the Hon. George E. Badger, the Hon. William H. Haywood, Jr., and "Bug" Oliver? Why? their fame is no more to be hemmed in by State lines than their talents are to be circumscribed within the same narrow limits?

We are connected, as all our customers know—and if they don't know it, let us tell them—by the fact that we are Tailors ourselves—buy our own goods, and import quite as many of what we purchase in proportion to our business, as any House in this State or out of it. There is no Establishment here or elsewhere that possesses any advantages over us. We buy where everybody else buys; and we think we understand our business and buy as cheaply. We say our CLOTHING is equal to any ever offered for sale in North Carolina, and we think superior, being judiciously selected and cut, and that though, we will leave the public to decide, when they examine for themselves. One thing is certain—without intending to reflect upon any one—we will sell our clothing cheaper than the same articles can be bought for in any of the Northern cities; and as cheap as any body that comes here, who does not steal his clothing from ready-made clothes.

Our stock embraces Drab, Black, Blue, Green, Gray, and other OVERCOATS from $6 to $20 and upwards. CLOAKS, full circle, $18 and upwards. Frocks, dresses, and suits, $10 to $12 and upwards. PANTALOONS, all colors and prices, from $4 to $8—VENTS, all kind and all sizes, at all prices from $125 to $5. In fact, every thing that can be found in any similar establishment in the Union.

We are permanently located here, and if we sell as cheap as others, why not give us the preference? If we do not sell as good goods at all small a price, we will not ask your patronage.

New Fall and Winter Goods for 1850

Fresh Arrivals from the Latest Importations!

THOMAS R. FENTRESS, MERCHANT TAILOR, RALEIGH, N. C. One Door Above the Post Office.

THE Subscriber respectfully announces to his friends and patrons—the members of the Legislature—and to strangers visiting the City, that he continues to carry on the Tailoring Business in all its branches at his old stand, where he shall be happy to see them and sell them great bargains. The Subscriber had deemed it unnecessary recently to advertise his business, as he was well known throughout the State; but for fear his old friends and customers might be under the impression that he was called away by the great "tornado" which passed Northward a few days ago, he has thought it best to inform them that he is still in business and hopes they will give him a call. He would say to his old friends and customers that the liberal patronage he has received since he has been here, has cemented him still more closely to the good old State of North Carolina; and he trusts that their patronage will continue to be bestowed on one who feels he is not only appreciated; and for his part he will never be nothing lacking to give entire satisfaction. He might say more, but it is sufficient for him to say that he has the feelings of a North Carolinian. He is permanently located here—his interests are here—and here he expects to live and die.

The Subscriber is a friend and well-wisher to all mechanical business in the "Old North State." He thinks it the duty of our people to give their own hard-working mechanics, and keep them with us, and not drive them from our borders by encouraging manufacturers at a distance from us. We may wish for good times and State improvement, but we will never see them until we come to depend on our own mechanics, on home manufactures and home industry. When we come to do this then will we see our Cities and Towns flourishing; and our mechanics will be able to do the "great City" of New York or Boston for articles that can be made in this State as well as at either of these places, and on as good terms.

The Subscriber has on hand a beautiful assortment of GOODS, selected by himself in person in the Northern Markets, of the latest and most approved styles and patterns. His Goods were purchased this Fall, and are entirely new. They were bought on as good terms as those of any House in this City; and he offers himself that he can offer as liberal if not better bargains than any other Establishment in this City or in the United States. Call and examine for yourselves. You must be your own judges, and you will find that no mere "puff" The Subscriber considers it unnecessary to say any thing about his skill in cutting or making, as his business is conducted by himself; and he will leave to those who deal with him to judge of his capacity in this respect. His experience in business is such, and he has been so long before the public, that he will not stoop to commend his own skill and attainments. He leaves it to his friends and customers to judge of his superiority over many who presume to call themselves Tailors, or Cutters, or "Artists"—if you please. His workmen cannot be surpassed by any, North or South; and he invites the public to call and try him before purchasing elsewhere. He pledges his word for good bargains, as he is determined to sell low.

His Stock comprises every article kept in similar Establishments. There is nothing you may call for, which you cannot get. Call and try the old-fashioned Establishment, one door North of the Post Office.

The Subscriber's Stock comprises in part Super black French Cloth and Cassimeres—plain and doeked-in, and of various styles and prices, and a very desirable fancy Cloth, which for colors and quality cannot be surpassed. Also, a beautiful lot of plain black Satin Vesting, and a superb article of fancy French Silk and Satins for parties, with a choice variety of Fancy Cassimeres for winter wear, and a very desirable variety of Fancy Cassimeres, which will be disposed of on a very small advance. Also, a general assortment of fancy articles, consisting of lamb's wool, merino and silk Under-shirts and Drawers—Drab Shirts, black and white kid, merino, and fancy cassimere Gloves—Half hose, cotton and merino—black and fancy silk Cravats; all of which are offered at uncommonly low prices. Also, a beautiful lot of READY-MADE CLOTHING made in my own House, and which will be disposed of at the most reasonable prices.

Call and examine for yourselves.

W. B. Orders from a distance will be thankfully received and promptly attended to. The London and Paris Fashions regularly received.
