Ingleide Seminary.

EDITOR OF AFRICO-AMERICAN PRESBYTERIAN:

We (Mrs. Campbell and myself) have just returned from a two months' trip in the Northwest. We were trying to help raise $10,000 for our much needed enlargement and improvements at Ingleide Seminary. The outlook is very encouraging and we hope to build the "Wing" next vacation. We find applications for admission far beyond our accommodations awaiting our attention.

We open this year on Oct. 3rd, and hope to have every room full by the close of the week.

Yours very truly,
GRAHAM C. CAMPBELL.
Burkeville, Va., Sept. 10th.

Catawba Synodical S. S. Convention.

terian church by Rev. R. P. Wyche, D. D., of Charlotte, N. C. Dr. Wyche was assisted in the preliminary services by Dr. Savage, of Franklinton, and Rev. Alston, of Winston. He took for his text Numbers 13:30, "Let us go up at once, and possess it; for we are well able to overcome it." The sermon, strong and forceful, was an earnest appeal to Christian workers to possess themselves of courage to stand alone, if need be, for that which is right.

At 3:30, P. M., the Synodical Sabbath school was conducted by Dr. Dillard. The whole Convention was resolved into one class and Dr. Dillard taught the lesson as outlined by the International Committee. At this session Mrs. Carr read her paper, "How to Keep the Older Scholars," to the edification and satisfaction of many present who were not so fortunate as to hear it Saturday. The many practical thoughts presented in this very excellent paper were brought out, and emphasized in the discussion which followed its second reading, in which Dr. Savage, Dr. Wyche, Prof. Conners and others took part.

At 8 o'clock, P. M., the closing sermon was preached by Rev. W. J. Rankin, A. M., of Aberdeen, N. C., from the text, Luke 15:25, "Now the elder son was in the field." Rev. Rankin took for his subject, "The Loyalty of the Son." He contrasted legal and loyal obedience and urged a proper appreciation for home, saying that out of the home comes everything that affects human society. He was especially urgent upon young people to be loyal to their home. At the close of this sermon, and after singing the hymn "Asleep in Jesus," Dr. Savage spoke feelingly touching the life and work of the late Mrs. N. C. Satterfield, and read a series of resolutions of respect which will appear in this paper next week.

Prof. J. D. Martin read a series of resolutions of thanks to the church and school and citizens and daily papers. Thus closed the most successful of the Synodical Conventions.

Resolutions of Respect.

Saturday, August 11th, the home of Rev. P. G. Lowrie was saddened by the death of his daughter, Willie. She was sick several months and knowing that death seldom visits that home it was surprising not to the family alone but to all adjoining neighbors to know that Willie was so soon to go on that journey from which no one has ever been known to return. As the friends gathered thickly to witness the end, she calmly breathed her last, surrounded by a heartbroken mother, father, sisters and brothers.

In early youth she sought the kingdom of God, and lived a faithful Christian. And since it has pleased the Almighty God to cast her soul as an Autumn leaf among the dead to await that glorious morning when the dead shall hear the voice of God, and that that are blessed shall come flocking home, we sadly make known our sorrows:

First, That we extend to the bereaved family our heartfelt sympathy, and commend them to Him who has promised to be a comforter.

Second, That the Christian Endeavor or Society of Wadeboro Presbyterian church has every reason to feel that they have lost a faithful member, and the church an earnest Christian and a promising young girl.

Third, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the AFRICO-AMERICAN PRESBYTERIAN for publication, and to the family as an expression of our sympathy.

Committee,
Miss EFFIE REID,
"DELLA HAGAN, Sec'y,
