Good Healthy Crops
Mining German Potash

The South learned years ago that Kainit and the other German Potash Salts prevented Cotton Rust and other plant diseases, and at the same time greatly increased the yield.

Scientific investigations now show that both Potash and Magnesia are helpful in combating plant diseases.

All the German Potash Salts that are used in Cotton fertilizers contain soluble magnesia.

If you will insist on having your fertilizer contain at least 5 per cent of Potash derived from Genuine German Potash Salts, you will secure at the same time enough magnesia to insure against plant diseases due to magnesia hunger.

For Tobacco, and for those Fruits which are injured by Chlorin, the fertilizer should carry 10 per cent of Potash, derived from Sulfate of Potash or from Sulfate of Potash Magnesia.

Use the latter if your Tobacco leaves are not sound.

LESSON FOR FEBRUARY 11

THE SPIRIT OF PRAYER

LESSON TEXT—Luke 11:1-13.
GOLDEN TEXT—The petitions which are a broken spirit; a broken and contrite heart, O God, thou wilt not despise.—Psalm 51:7.
REFERENCE MATERIAL—Matt. 14:1-12; Luke 10:21-24; John 4:23, 24; Mark 11:24; Eph. 6:18; 1 Tim. 2:15; Heb. 4:14-16; 1 Pet. 3:7.

JUNIOR TOPIC—How to Pray.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Prayer that God Answers.
YOUNG MEN'S AND ADULT TOPIC—Secret to Successful Prayer.

I. Men Ought Always to Pray (v. 1).
Prayer is absolutely necessary to the spiritual life. It is to the spiritual life what breathing is to the physical life. Men ought to pray under every variety of circumstances—in times of sorrow and burdens for strength to endure; in times of joy and success for grace to behave aright. Prayer ought to be persisted in even when the answer is not immediately seen. God does hear and answer prayer even when we do not understand the mysteries of His way.

II. The Urgent Prayer of a Widow (vv. 2-8).

The picture here is of a helpless widow who was being cheated out of her property rights, coming to a merciless judge for redress. Her only means of getting help was to plead the justice of her claim by her persistent appeal. Even this did not gain access to his heart, for he feared not God nor regarded men. He complied with her request in order to get rid of her.

The point here is not that God will do this unjust judge and can be sued into compliance, but rather that if such action can be secured on the part of a merciless judge by persistent appeal, much more will be the help accorded to those who cry unto Him day and night.

The helpless widow pictures the church in this age suffering the deprivation of her rights. It is not the church praying for vengeance against her enemies, but suing for the restoration of her rights by virtue of the covenant relation in Christ. The inheritance of the church will be completed at the coming of Christ. It is why the truth concerning the coming of Christ is so vital to Christianity, and why such disastrous consequences follow the loss of the Bible Hope.

The apparent delay in the vindication of the church may be due to some and cause others to mock (1 Peter 3:4). Jesus' question should be a solemn warning against allowing the apparent delay of the coming of the Lord to crowd out our faith.

Though many may give up we should be assured that genuine faith will abide, and that the divine promise concerning the coming of Christ shall be fulfilled. We can be sure of God.

III. The Prayer of the Proud Pharisee (vv. 9-12).

1. He Took a "Striking Attitude" (v. 11). The Jewish custom was to stand while praying, but the word "stood" implies the assumption of an ostentatious position. He was self-righteous and trusted in himself.

2. He Prayed With Himself (v. 11, 12). He used the name of God but it was really a soliloquy. He proceeded to be thanking God when really he was rehearsing his own goodness—complimenting himself. His whole thought centered in himself. He congratulated himself for (1) his morality (vv. 11). He thanked God that he was not as other men are, such as extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as the publican who was standing afar off. (2) His Religious Fervor (v. 12). He fasted twice a week and gave tithes of all he possessed. He thus informed God that he did more than was required, implying that God was under obligation to him.

IV. The Prayer of the Humble Publican (v. 13).

In striking contrast with this supposed saint stood the publican whose shame kept him from even looking up to Heaven, beating upon his breast as a sign of anguish of soul, crying out to God to be merciful to him, a sinner. He took his place as a tanner and called upon God for mercy.

V. Christ's Testimony (v. 14).

He declared that the publican went away justified rather than the Pharisee. The one great and urgent need on the part of men is a confession of sin and a willingness to cry unto God for mercy.

The Dull Man.
A dull man is so near a dead man that he is hardly to be ranked in the list of the living; and as he is not to be buried whilst half alive, so he is as little to be employed whilst he is half dead.—Seville.

Losing Aspirations.
Men lose their high aspirations as they lose their intellectual tastes, because they have not time or opportunity for indulging them.—J. S. Mill.

Causes Wonder.
I never wonder to see men wicked, but I often wonder to see them not ashamed.—Swift.

Nibbling at the Salt.
I see the devil's hook, and yet cannot help nibbling at his bait.—M. Adams.

Declares Tanlac Ended Indigestion, Chest Pains and Palpitation—Lost Strength Restored.

"Tanlac has improved my general condition ten times more than I anticipated," recently stated Herbert A. Gup-till, a well-known school teacher of Kenar Falls, Maine.

"My trouble began with a sudden loss of strength. Almost everything I ate disagreed with me and caused a sickening sensation that remained with me for hours. For months I found breathing difficult on account of indigestion, and had such chest pains and palpitation I thought my heart was affected. I also suffered greatly from headaches and nervousness, seldom slept well, and felt tired and worn-out all the time.

"Since taking Tanlac no kind of food hurts me and I have a wonderful appetite. I have gained ten pounds, breathe freely, sleep perfectly, and feel as strong and well as ever in my life. Tanlac is certainly a superior medicine."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Over 83 million bottles sold.—Advertisement.

TAKE NO CALOMEL

"Dodson's Liver Tone" Straightens You Up Better Than Salivating, Dangerous Calomel and Doesn't Upset You—Don't Lose a Day's Work—Read Guarantee night. Your druggist or dealer sells you a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone for a few cents under my personal money-back guarantee that each spoonful will clean your sluggish liver better than a dose of nasty calomel and that it won't make you sick.

Dodson's Liver Tone is real liver medicine. You'll know it next morning because you will wake up fine, your liver will be working, headache and dizziness gone, stomach will be sweet and your bowels regular. You will feel like you'll be cheerful and full of life.

Dodson's Liver Tone is a vegetable, therefore harmless and does not salivate. Give it to your child.
