J. C. SMITH UNIVERSITY vs. LIVINGSTONE COLLEGE

Easter Monday, 3:30 P. M. at Wearn Field, Charlotte.

The annual Easter Monday base ball contest between Johnson C. Smith University (formerly Biddle) and Livingstone College, will take place this year at Wearn Field, Charlotte, as usual, at 3:30 P. M.

This game is regarded by many as the "base ball classic" among the Negro colleges of the South. Coach Leach, of Johnson C. Smith, is putting his men through a strenuous course of practice, and from all reports Livingstone is taking nothing for granted and is preparing for a great game.

The indications are that a record-breaking crowd from all over the Carolinas will witness the contest.

kinu Presbytery which convenes at Cherry Street church, High Point, N. C., April 11th, 1923, please notify Rev. J. E. Clement at once. His address is 200 Fairview street.

The Hodge Presbytery will convene on the second Wednesday in April with Radcliffe Memorial Presbyterian church, Atlanta, Ga. It is urged that all claims to the Boards be fully met and Presbyterial sustenance.

Be sure and come to Presbytery. Committee of arrangement Rev. S. D. Thom, 161 Beckwith street, Atlanta, Ga. Notify him early to enable him to find homes.

S. D. Thom.

All persons expecting to attend the Spring meeting of Catawba Presbytery which convenes at Huntersville, Wednesday, April 4, 7:30 P. M., should write Mr. C. W. Johnson, P. O. Box 114, Huntersville, N. C.

Send in your names early as homes will be provided only for those who give notice of their coming.

R. L. Moore, Pastor.

The annual loss due to the devastation of insects in the United States is approximately $2,000,000,000, or $20 for every man, woman and child.

MIDDLEVILLE CHURCH NEWS.

By Ariana Bampheld.

Last Sabbath morning the Rev. James Stevens, of Ridgeley, Va., preached for us. His text was Ezekiel 22:30.

The monthly meeting of the Minister's Aid Society was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Massey, Washington Heights. An interesting program was rendered. Among the numbers were several selections by the Y. M. C. A. Quartet, of J. C. Smith University.

Mrs. Sara B. Meyer, who has been in Beaufort, S. C., for the past several months is home again with her mother, Mrs. E. L. Bampheld.

The Mission Study class met with Mrs. Amanda Johnson, Monday afternoon of this week. After an interesting discussion on the Indians, a delicious supper was served.

Mr. David Knox, of Atlantic City, N. J., is worshipping with us while in the city. He is a nephew of Mrs. Margaret Thomas.

Rev. and Mrs. James Stevens are being congratulated on the birth of a baby girl, Saturday, March 17. Mrs. Stevens was formerly Miss Mary Young, of Charlotte.

Rev. West will conduct a week of special services during the coming week. He will speak on the "Seven Words on the Cross." These services will lead up to the communion on Easter Sunday.

JOHNSON C. SMITH UNIVERSITY CAMPUS NOTES.

By A. H. Prince, '24.

Chapel services last Saturday and Sunday evenings were conducted by Dr. Thos. A. Long. The thought, "Courtesy," was very effectively presented by Dr. Long on Saturday evening.

The thought of the day was "Practice as a mark of true manhood." On Sunday evening the subject, "The Social Mind in the Making," was very beautifully presented by Dr. Long. Misses Janie Wallace and Jessie Dixon, of Seventh Street Presbyterian church, added to the occasion much with a beautiful vocal duet which was sung with deep expression.

Mr. C. A. Washington, of the Senior Theological class, preached at the Chestnut Street Presbyterian church, Wilmington, last Sunday, March 18th.

Mr. Dewitt T. Murray, of the Middle Theological class, preached at the Tradd Street Presbyterian church, Statesville, last Sunday, March 18th.

We were favored to have Mr. I. S. Camby, representative of the State Dairy Department, to speak to us last Wednesday morning in an effort to encourage the use of milk more as a food. He stressed its value in the human diet.

The Omega Psi Phi fraternity observed last Sunday as Memorial Day for Colonel Chas. Young, United States army, who died in Liberia in 1921. Quite appropriate exercises were held at the Grace A. M. E. Zion church. The speakers were Messrs. D. M. Duckett, W. E. Hill, Jr., and J. R. Harris, Jr., H. W. Pope, Jr., presided. Mr. C. G. Goore rendered a solo. Each person paid glowing tribute to Colonel Young.

The faculty has appointed the following students from the fourth year High School class to deliver orations in the coming commencement exercises in June: Messrs. William B. Stinson, Carlton L. Murphy, O. Boisey Barnes, Milton A. Yongue, Alonzo R. Lord and James W. Anderson.

Dr. C. H. Tobias, International Secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association, was on the campus last Thursday morning and made a remarkable address at chapel devotionals on "The Important Place That the Student is Coming Into; and Our Ability to Measure up to Such if Our Lives Are Not Miserable."
