

SEVENTH STREET CHURCH NOTES.

By Mrs. Hallie Q. Mayberry.

On last Sunday morning our pastor, Dr. R. P. Wycbe, spoke to us from the subject, "Steps to Take in the Time of Trouble." His message was based on the 77th Psalm.

Beginning with next Sunday, our evening services will begin at 7:30 instead of at 8 o'clock.

The members of the Sheaves Gatherers' Bible class contributed $27.55 to the collection on last Sunday morning.

Rev. M. G. Hoskins, of Baltimore, Md., sent a contribution of $2.00 to the church.

Mrs. W. M. Yongue, 620 East 8th Street, by special effort, raised $28.00 on the building fund which she reported last Sunday morning.

Mrs. Nettie B. Lindsay contributed $4.50 to last Sunday's collection. This amount was realized from a porch party.

Miss Mabel Yeargan, of Raleigh, was a visitor at our church on last Sunday morning. Miss Yeargan is one of the instructors in the Second Ward High School.

Miss Willie Gilliard, of Grace A. M. E. Zion church, was a visitor in the Volunteer class last Sunday.

The Path Finders class reported Master Harry Dixon as a visitor.

Mr. F. M. Beaver, of J. C. S. University, was a visitor in the Progressive class.

The Westminster Circle, which has been recently organized among the children, has as its officers the following persons: President, Isabelle Ezell; Secretary, Mary Coles Shaw; Assistant Secretary, Thelma Ezell; Treasurer, Alta Mae McKnight.

Mrs. Jessie McCain, one of our Sabbath school teachers, left the city on Wednesday for Troy where she will study this winter at Peacock Academy.

Miss Irene Kirkpatrick returned to Scotia Woman's College on last Saturday evening to resume her school work.

Her many friends are glad to see Mrs. E. V. Johnson at home again after spending the past four months in Buffalo, N. Y.

Misses Blanch and Ruby Melton spent last Saturday at Scotia, Concord, visiting their sister, Miss Aldrich Melton.

Her many friends will be glad to note that Mrs. Louise Macbeth, who has been very ill for the past two weeks, is able to be about in her room.

Miss Nanie Ruth Wilson and Mr. Edward Wilson, of Wadesboro, spent several hours in our city on last Sunday.

CHARLOTTE TEACHERS TAKE ADVANTAGE OF EXTENSION WORK.

The Extension Course of Johnson C. Smith University began Wednesday with an enrollment of sixty-nine teachers. The large enrollment is indicative of a progressive and professional spirit among the teachers of Charlotte.

As a result of the extension work in the Negro schools of North Carolina last year 313 teachers received credit equal to the credit of one summer school session. Of this number there were 27 Charlotte teachers. The State Department of Education is eager to increase the number of standard certificates among the 5,037 Negro teachers of the State. We are forced to commend the act of the Charlotte teachers this year when we learn that only 53.19 per cent of North Carolina teachers hold standard certificates.

The teachers will study Cumberley's text-book on the "Introduction to Education," under the direction of Mr. T. S. Jackson, professor of education.

JOHNSON C. SMITH UNIVERSITY NOTES.

By A. H. Prince, Theo. '27.

Vespers last Saturday and Sunday evenings were conducted by Dr. W. E. Partee. The strong messages of these services embodied the profound truth that God is sovereign of all in the world. We were admonished to keep ourselves in His love.

Mr. Frank T. Wilson, secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association, was a pleasant visitor to us last Wednesday morning and made a very interesting address after chapel devotions. The great message was a real challenge to the student generation of today to mobilize its forces for the great task of evangelizing the world for Christ.

The game of football between Virginia Seminary and us here last Friday was the first game of the season. It seemed that each team realized that the eyes of its school were upon it and it could not lose. The game was 0-0. It was an exceptionally good game. The next game will be with Howard University, Washington, D. C., on October 17. All hopes are for a real game in the Capitol city for our first time.

Mr. Arthur Scott, of the Sophomore class, has returned from his home, Blackstock, S. C., where he was recently called on account of the death of his mother.

Mr. James Young, of the Freshman class, was called to his home in Wake Forest last Sunday on account of the death of his brother.

The first publication for the school year of "The University Student," published by the college students of the University, was issued last Wednesday and shows quite an improvement in its size and materials over the previous issues. It is hoped that all who would like to keep in close contact with the school and its doings will subscribe to this paper, "The University Student." The price is one dollar for the school year.

The writer, A. H. Prince, has returned to the campus from his home in Sumter County, S. C., where he was called recently to the bedside of his father who has suffered with a stroke of paralysis and is seriously afflicted at this time.

Dr. Yorke Jones, D. A. Costner and J. R. Dungee, Jr., attended the North Carolina Field Council of the Young Men's Christian Association, which met at Shaw University, Raleigh, last week. Mr. Dungee is a member of the National Council and is to represent the Association at a Conference to be held in Washington, D. C., October 27-30th.

Up to date there are something over three hundred students in the University, and the enrollment in the college far surpasses all previous records. The enrollment of the Freshman class alone almost equals that of many of our secondary schools in the South, and is far above the usual enrollment of this class in the school.

MRS. NELL HUNTER TO OPEN LYCEUM COURSE.

On October 19 at 8:30 P. M., the Lyceum course at Johnson C. Smith University will begin. The artist secured to open the course is Mrs. Nell Hunter of Durham. Mrs. Hunter has appeared here twice at the summer sessions, but this will be her first appearance before the students of the institution. Mrs. Hunter, in addition to having a naturally beautiful voice, has improved it through training. She is a graduate of the National Conservatory of Music, of Chicago, Ill. A very exacting program which will display Mrs. Hunter's voice in all of its beauty will be rendered.

The citizens of Charlotte are asked to be present in large numbers to hear Mrs. Hunter.

During the winter the Lyceum Course will present many noted artists. A list of the coming artists will be made known through these columns later.

ANNUAL HOME-COMING AT EMANUEL CHURCH

BARBER MEMORIAL COLLEGE NEWS.

By Myrtle A. Brodie, '29.

On Tuesday morning, Sept. 15, Barber Memorial College threw open her doors to the coming of a host of girls. Her doors were not thrown open in vain, for by the end of that week the building was overflowing with girls. Girls came from all parts of the State—girls with high ideals, girls with broad visions, enthusiastic ones, and girls eager for knowledge—just all kinds of girls who help to make up a grand college.

On the night following the opening of the school on introduction of our most highly honored faculty was given.

Saturday night, September 19, was quite delightful. An excellent musical programme was rendered by a number of our teachers and students. The musical talent of each was shown to a great extent.

Sunday evening, Sept. 20, as the sun was sinking behind the western horizon with the magnificent mountains scalloping the sky, chimes were heard seemingly bringing to our minds that "The heavens declare the glory of God and the firmament showeth his handiwork." We assembled on our spacious campus for vesper services, which were conducted by Miss Mabel Smith. The talk given by Miss Smith was quite impressive. With the picturesque mountains before us, she vividly brought to our minds the beauty and fullness of this sentence, "Lord, give us mountains to climb and strength to climb them." She told us of the mountains of life which faced us and urged each of us to climb them bravely. Our melodies, which were sung by the girls at that time, were heard in the distance as the evening died away.

Miss Kinniburgh, our esteemed dean, gave a surprise party for the college students on Monday night, September 21. It was of great delight. Of course the girls did not leave any of the refreshments for fear that they would go to waste.

The Sophomore and Freshman classes, under the supervision of Misses Dorothy Kinniburgh and Ruth Smith, went on a hike around Sunset Drive Thursday evening, September 24. The hike was very inspirational, for as we ascended this mountain which required one to have courage and strength, we thought of the great rugged mountain of life that is climbed by those who strive to reach the summit.

Eight select voices have been chosen from the college department to render music Sunday at the Presbyterian church, of which Rev. A. W. Rice is pastor. The faculty and students of the college and high school departments worshipped with Rev. Rice and his congregation on Sunday, September 27. Rev. Rice delivered a glorious sermon from John 1:41.

On Sunday evening at four o'clock Madam Bayon and her choral club rendered a musical concert here in the school chapel. Space will not allow me to give this programme; nevertheless special mention may be made of the following pieces: "Listen to the Lambs," "Tosti, Good Bye," "Humoreske," "I Couldn't Hear Nobody Pray."

Madam Bayon is to be highly commended for the excellent work that she is accomplishing and for the musical talent that she exhibited. The outlook for the club is great.

On Monday night, September 28, in memory of Frances E. Willard's birthday a W. C. T. U. programme was given by the Seniors of the High School Department, after which Barber had her annual house opening. The building was inspected by many friends and outsiders. A punch course was served at the end of the affair.

Dr. and Mrs. Scherer, our beloved President and his wife, are doing all in their power to make things as pleasant around the school as possible. We as students appreciate this much.

The prospect for Barber this year is indeed bright, and by the aid of our dean and competent teachers much is expected to be accomplished and will be accomplished.

LISTEN

to the voice of nature. If it were not for pain, our bodies could be destroyed without our knowledge. Pain is a friendly warning that something is wrong. If, in disease you silence this warning by deadening the pain, you have not corrected the cause, but you have taken away nature's danger signal.

CHIROPRACTIC

is a science—not of deadening pain but of correcting the cause that produces pain.

ST. JAMES CHURCH GREENSBORO

By Mrs. S. W. Carter

Sunday at the 11 o'clock service, Rev. H. C. Miller spoke from Ephesians 6:14, "But God forbid that I should glory save in the cross of Christ," etc., using as his subject, "The Cross of Christ Is Our Chief Glory." There were three accessions at the conclusion of the sermon.

A number of St. James members accompanied the pastor to Hannah church Sunday afternoon for the service. The Missionary Society at Hannah held a meeting with the Presbyterian President, Mrs. E. B. Meares, after the regular service. Plans were laid for the advancement of the work.

Messrs. Wm. Barber and Robert Gillispie are on the sick list. Their absence was noted in the choir and Sunday school work yesterday. We hope they will soon be at their posts again.

Dr. and Mrs. W. L. McNair, with their children, motored to Danville, Va., Sunday afternoon to visit Mrs. McNair's mother. They reported a pleasant visit. Her many friends extend sincerest sympathy to Miss M. L. Taylor, whose sister died in Chicago, Ill., last week.

Dr. Yorke Jones, of Johnson C. Smith University, passed through Greensboro Sunday evening, returning from a gathering of Y. M. C. A. workers at Raleigh. Rev. and Mrs. Miller and Mr. and Mrs. Carter met the train from Raleigh and spent a pleasant half hour chatting with Dr. Jones.

The Earnest Workers of the Adult Bible class are yet holding the banners for finance and attendance. Three new students joined Sunday school yesterday, two adults and one junior.

There were two visitors at service Sunday, Mr. Lightner, of the Presbyterian church of Raleigh and also Mr. Graves of Raleigh. These are prominent business men of that city.

The Woman's Missionary Society met with Mrs. R. S. Alexander on Beech Street Thursday afternoon at four o'clock. The meeting was well attended.

Plans were completed for a New England supper, to be given on Wednesday night in the basement of the church. After the meeting refreshments of punch and cake were served.

Mrs. G. W. Carter, on Lindsay Street, is confined to her bed at this writing.

Little Miss Marguerite Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Jones, is recovering from an operation on her throat last week.

The Christian Endeavor Society held their meeting last Thursday evening with Mrs. M.

Why expect "Big Money" from your business when you don't invest any money in it? It would be as foolish to expect a rich harvest of wheat when you sow oats. An investment of a small sum in an attractive Sign will pay big dividends. Think it over and let us hear from you.

JOHN HALL CHURCH NOTES CARTHAGE, N. C.

By Mrs. Mattie B. Goins

The people of Carthage are glad to have Dr. I. H. Blue back home where he will practice medicine. To show our appreciation the Missionary Society gave Dr. Blue a handsome medicine case which was presented by Miss Emma L. Barrett with a few well chosen words.

For some time our church has been without a pastor. But we have not been idle. Our regular church services, prayer meetings and Sabbath school have been alive and well attended.

The Young Women's Guild, under the leadership of Miss E. L. Barnett, has been doing good work and has helped the church in many ways.

Rev. P. N. Boykin filled the pulpit Sunday A. M., Sept. 27. He preached an interesting sermon to a large and appreciative audience.

Sunday night several young people were baptized and joined the church. Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Goins and Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Blue presented their children for baptism.

Rev. Boykin left Monday for Louisburg where he will be engaged in a series of meetings. Mrs. Boykin and son will remain with her father until his return, after which they will occupy the manse.

Mrs. Oscar Kennedy, of the Shady Grove church, has gone to the hospital in Raleigh for treatment. We hope for her a speedy recovery.

Mrs. Pearl M. Blue, who has been ill for sometime, is some better at this writing. Mrs. Lowery, her mother, of Wadesboro, is with her.

A very sad accident occurred last Saturday A. M., about 3:30, when the laundry was burned. Mr. McFadden and daughter were seriously burned, while the wife and baby were burned to death. The little son escaped with slight injuries.

BROOKLYN CHURCH NOTES

By Mrs. F. J. McGill

Last Sunday morning, our pastor, Dr. F. L. Brodie, preached an impressive and instructive sermon.

We were glad to have as visitors Sunday morning Mrs. Maggie Lewis, of Columbus, Ohio, who has been here for some time visiting her mother who lives in Cherryville. We were also glad to have with us Mrs. Cora Perry, of Spartanburg, S. C., who is visiting Mrs. C. B. Maxwell, her cousin.

The Teachers' Meeting and Workers' Conference was held last Friday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. White, our Superintendent, who brought some splendid plans before the meeting which we hope to carry out and make our Sunday school better.

The Woman's Missionary Society held its regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Pearl Johnson last Thursday afternoon.

The orchestra and quartette rendered music at Ben Salem church last Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Cordia Walker spent the week-end in Washington, D. C., visiting her mother, Mrs. Hagans.

The Christian Endeavor Society will give a party Tuesday night, October 13, at the church. The party is being conducted by Mrs. Ed. Smith, president of the Christian Endeavor Society. This will be for the benefit of the new church. All are cordially invited.

NOTICE, EAST TENNESSEE SYNOD.

The East Tennessee Synod will convene October 20th in Miller Memorial church, Birmingham, Ala. Those who are planning to attend the Synod are asked to notify the secretary of the Home Committee, Mrs. C. F. Roberts, 1126 Thomas Street, Birmingham, Ala., in order that provisions may be made for your entertainment while here.
