

BARBER COLLEGE FOR WOMEN

Anniston, Alabama.

Let's Go! This College, established to offer full College Courses for young women of the Negro race, will open its second year, September 15, 1925.

It is the only Presbyterian Woman's College for colored women in the world. Like the colleges exclusively for women, it encourages the ideals of true women and offers courses of study for young women such as the best women demand, and such as prepare them for their special work. Through the noble generosity of its founders with Presbyterian ideals, Barber College makes it easier for a girl with energy and ability to become a College Graduate, and reach her highest usefulness.

Graduates, obtaining the College Diploma, will be able to meet the increased requirements of the State Boards of Education, and be fitted for all conditions set for teaching and higher studies. With an enlarged Faculty and increased facilities, Barber College offers to capable Negro women a great opportunity for higher development, usefulness, and privilege.

With it is associated Barber Memorial Seminary which will continue to offer its secondary courses of study and also act as a Preparatory School for the College. All the advantages of the Seminary, with its able Faculty, increased facilities, and attractive surroundings, will be open to students of the College.

Located in the foot-hills of the Blue Mountains in Northeastern Alabama, the situation is unsurpassed. It would be difficult, if not impossible, to find a better school building. Large rooms. Two in a room. Steam heated. Electric lighted. Newly furnished throughout. Modern in every way. Plain, but plenty of food. Absolutely pure mountain spring water, none better. Large Faculty. Small classes. Personal supervision.

For further information, address the President, Rev. John F. Scherer.

SCOTIA WOMEN'S COLLEGE

CONCORD, N. C.

A well-equipped School under the care of the Board of National Missions of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, Division for Colored People, for the Higher Education and Industrial Training of young women.

A Seminary Course or High School Academic Course for those desiring to prepare for College, and a High School Normal Course for those desiring special preparation for teaching.

There can no longer be any question among the friends of Scotia as to her being on the accredited list, inasmuch as the graduates of this year were each granted by the State Board of Public Instruction an Elementary B Certificate for three years.

An Industrial Course, including Domestic Arts and Sciences, with special instruction in Sewing and Cooking, for those desiring special preparation in these lines.

Also a course in Music, including Piano, Public School Music, and Chorus Work.

There are two large Dormitories with pleasant rooms, steam heated, electrically lighted, and pleasantly situated in a large and beautiful campus near the center of the city on Concord and convenient to the Railroad station.

For catalogue, application blanks, and any desired information, address the President,

"WALKING WITH GOD."

On Sunday A. M., November 1, we were pleased to have with us Rev. W. M. Fowlkes, of Leakesville, N. C., who is now pastor of Henry Presbyterian church, Saxe, Va. He preached from Gen. 5:22-25, using for his subject, "Walking With God."

If we walk with God we must please Him. We must take Him for our companion. If we have an earthly friend, we love to walk and talk with that friend; how much more should we love to walk and talk with Jesus Christ? We must take Him for our real companion. The great truth which Rev. Fowlkes endeavored to bring us was, We can not walk with God until we know Him; and we cannot know Him as long as we stay away from Him.

All men fell with Adam and lost communion with God; and before we can walk with God we must become reconciled with Him. He held up for a true example of pleasing and walking with God, Enoch, who never saw or felt the sting of death, but pleased God so much that one day as they were walking God took him home with Him, both soul and body.

He assured the hearers that if they walk with God they will please Him, and will treat their fellowmen right in all things; and that God, when they shall have finished this life, will walk with them through the dark valley of the shadow of death, and that His rod and staff will comfort them. Oh, that the whole world could have heard this wonderful message!

Sister Louise Jones was baptized and given the right hand of fellowship. Communion services were held. Though unworthy we be, looking to Jesus, who is able to make us worthy, we feasted off of the elements which were used symbolically as the broken body of Jesus Christ and His precious blood which He shed on the cross of Calvary for sinners.

HUNTERSVILLE CHURCH NOTES.

By Mrs. M. J. Phifer

Our congregation was very small on last Sunday morning. This was due to the rainy weather. Rev. R. L. Moore, in spite of the bad weather, filled the pulpit and preached an inspiring sermon from the text, Luke 23:28.

This being rally day for the church a liberal collection was taken by the deacons.

At 8:30 P. M., Rev. J. J. Foster, pastor of Caldwell church, and several of his members were present. Rev. Foster preached an excellent sermon from Exodus 3:5. His subject was "Holiness."

The rally closed with a total contribution of $79.30.

The growth of the Christian Endeavor is remarkable.

We are glad to say that our mid-week prayer service is taking on new life.

Sunday night, October 11th, the missionary women rendered a beautiful program. Our program was opened with musical selections by the choir. After these most excellent songs there was Scripture reading by Mrs. C. W. Johnston. Then prayer by Mrs. Anna Black, the President of the Missionary Society of the A. M. E. Zion church.

Mrs. M. J. Phifer, after extending words of greeting to the audience, discussed the subject of Prayer and Missions.

At this time we were highly favored with a well prepared paper read by Mrs. N. Bell, subject, "Requirements of Christian Stewardship."

Then Mrs. Hattie Allison read a splendid and rich paper, subject, "Our Duty as Missionaries in the Church and Community."

A special feature of the evening was a poem, "Giving," by Miss Annie Williams. The program was closed with a song, "Like a Tree Planted by the Waters."

At this point we were favored by some encouraging remarks by Rev. Moore, Elder Phifer, O. G. Potts and C. W. Johnston.

The collection was taken by Mrs. Ida Black and Mrs. Osborne. The amount collected was $16.86.

Rev. Moore, our pastor, to our surprise, delivered a nice sum of money which had been sent by him from the Missionary women of Biddleville Presbyterian church, Charlotte. These consecrated women heard the Macedonian cry and immediately they endeavored to help us.

We are glad to note that the Huntersville Rosenwald school opened with a delightful number of pupils. The school is in charge of Rev. J. H. Gamble.

We are pleased to know that Rev. and Mrs. R. L. Moore have moved into their new home located in Huntersville near the church. The day they moved was rainy and cold, but the Missionary women were there long before they came and had their rooms heated and a hot, steaming dinner that made them feel at home.

NOTES FROM BROAD ST. PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH, STATESVILLE.

By M. E. Woods

Our church is doing well. Dr. A. D. Lord is superintendent of the Sunday school. This is the beginning of an era in the church and promises improvement in many respects.

On the first Sunday in October Rev. J. M. Morton, of Salisbury, and his congregation worshipped with us at 3 o'clock P. M. Rev. Morton preached an excellent sermon and the choir sang well their pieces.

The occasion was a financial rally by the club of Mr. T. M. Allison, who was one of the captains for a church rally held October 18 which was very successful.

On Tuesday night, October 6, Rev. H. Wilson, pastor of Westminster congregation, of Concord, began a series of meetings for us which extended through Sunday, Nov. 1. His sermons were very interesting and powerful. The people of Westminster have a good, strong preacher. We hope that Rev. Wilson will come again.

At three o'clock on Sunday, October 11, Dr. Z. A. Dockery and his congregation worshipped with the Stern's chapel congregation near Statesville. Dr. Dockery preached from the text, Matt. 25:14. The subject was: "Man and His Talent Before God."

The W. H. and F. M. Society met October 8. We had a grand meeting. We had with us Rev. H. Wilson and he gave us a grand talk on Mission Work. It awakened us to a sense of our duty. We are doing good work. We meet Thursday of each week.

Rev. Croom of the First Baptist church, and his good people worshipped with us Wednesday night, November 4th.

The Billingsley Memorial Academy is moving along nicely. They have put in a new furnace and 100 new desks. Rev. Dockery and his corps of teachers are doing splendid work. They seem to have the school at heart.

We were glad to have with us the first Sunday of November during the Sunday school hour Rev. N. Bell, of Huntersville. He gave us a very good talk on Sunday school methods and on the Afro-American Presbyterian. We will be pleased to have him come again.

of the town are making progress. The P. C. I. of which Prof. J. H. Thomas is principal, is doing a special work for its people, and for all who attend. The public or graded school is largely attended. Prof. Petty and eight teachers are very busy striving to do their part in the educational program.

Grace Presbyterian school is doing what she can to impress those under her instruction, spiritually, morally, and intellectually. Rev. Watkins is principal. Mrs. Watkins, Mrs. S. J. H. Dillard and Miss Annetta Ramseur make up the teaching force. Miss Ramseur, class of '25, Scotia Women's College, comes to us well prepared, not only in the literary branches, but in music, domestic science, and sewing. She is the leader for the Westminster Guild Circle. We are sure that our young people will be able to accomplish more in the future by having a well prepared young leader to assist them.

Our Woman's Missionary Society, under the leadership of Mrs. G. P. Watkins, is moving along nicely. We are hoping to reach our full apportionment before March 10, 1926. Our needs are great here. We are confident that a brick church and a school building will supply our whole need. We have succeeded in raising one thousand dollars towards our church building fund. We are working and praying for what we need.

It is quite urgent to our whole Synodical, through its Presbyterials, that we send our money quarterly, and that we strive to pay our whole apportionment.

Please get busy, every local President and Secretary, and try to arouse your society as never before to this urgent duty so that a full report can be made by each Presbyterial Society. Let us not forget that the call of the nations is for service, prayer and gifts.
