

BARBER COLLEGE FOR WOMEN

Anniston, Alabama.

Let's Go! This College, established to offer full College Courses for young women of the Negro race, will open its second year, September 15, 1925.

It is the only Presbyterian Woman's College for colored women in the world. Like the colleges exclusively for women, it encourages the ideals of true women and offers courses of study for young women such as the best women demand, and such as prepare them for their special work. Through the noble generosity of its founders with Presbyterian ideals, Barber College makes it easier for a girl with energy and ability to become a College Graduate, and reach her highest usefulness.

Graduates, obtaining the College Diploma, will be able to meet the increased requirements of the State Boards of Education, and be fitted for all conditions set for teaching and higher studies. With an enlarged Faculty and increased facilities, Barber College offers to capable Negro women a great opportunity for higher development, usefulness, and privilege.

With it is associated Barber Memorial Seminary which will continue to offer its secondary courses of study and also act as a Preparatory School for the College. All the advantages of the Seminary, with its able Faculty, increased facilities, and attractive surroundings, will be open to students of the College.

Located in the foot-hills of the Blue Mountains in Northeastern Alabama, the situation is unsurpassed. It would be difficult, if not impossible, to find a better school building. Large rooms. Two in a room. Steam heated. Electric lighted. Newly furnished throughout. Modern in every way. Plain, but plenty of food. Absolutely pure mountain spring water, none better. Large Faculty. Small classes. Personal supervision.

For further information, address the President, Rev. John F. Scherer.

SCOTIA WOMEN'S COLLEGE

CONCORD, N. C.

A well-equipped School under the care of the Board of National Missions of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, Division for Colored People, for the Higher Education and Industrial Training of young women.

A Seminary Course or High School Academic Course for those desiring to prepare for College, and a High School Normal Course for those desiring special preparation for teaching.

There can no longer be any question among the friends of Scotia as to her being on the accredited list, inasmuch as the graduates of this year were each granted by the State Board of Public Instruction an Elementary B Certificate for three years.

An Industrial Course, including Domestic Arts and Sciences, with special instruction in Sewing and Cooking, for those desiring special preparation in these lines.

Also a course in Music, including Piano, Public School Music, and Chorus Work.

There are two large Dormitories with pleasant rooms, steam heated, electrically lighted, and pleasantly situated in a large and beautiful campus near the center of the city on Concord and convenient to the Railroad station.

For catalogue, application blanks, and any desired information, address the President,

REV. T. R. LEWIS, D. D.

EDWARD WEBB CHURCH

By Mrs. J. H. Clement

"O give thanks unto the Lord for he is good: because his mercy endureth forever." Psa. 118: 1. These were the words of the text used by our pastor, Rev. J. H. Clement in our Thanksgiving service. "Oh, how thankful we should be," he said, "for what the Lord has done for us during the past year. We have not had a link broken in the church membership; not once has our church bell tolled for a funeral. We should all give God thanks for He has been merciful unto us." We had a splendid program. All seemed to enjoy it, and the little folks did well. Master John Young, age 5, recited in a pleasing manner. The little folks felt that this part of the service was theirs.

Master Thomas M. Gilmer and Little Miss Esther Young lifted the offering. A neat sum was realized.

Miss Mabel Gordon spent Thanksgiving with her parents. Mr. Joe Greenwood, Miss Edna Kirk and Mr. J. Kirk, of Booneville, spent several hours in the city Sunday.

The Missionary Society met at the parsonage Friday evening and will hold the next meeting at the home of Mrs. George Coble.

The little folks are wide awake. Some have paid their rally money in order that Santa Claus will leave something on the Christmas Tree. The happiest moments of my life are when I have a crowd of little folks around me trying to train them to do work for the Master. How sweet were the words of the Saviour when He said, "Suffer little children to come unto me and forbid them not, for of such is the kingdom of heaven."

ST. JAMES CHURCH GREENSBORO

By Mrs. S. W. Carter

Sunday, December 13, Communion was administered at both the morning and evening services. Each service was well attended. Rev. H. C. Miller spoke from Romans 5:8 and John 15:13, using as a theme, "Christ's Coming to Save Man is the Greatest Expression of Unmerited Love." The speaker contrasted the love of parents to children, of patriot to his country with the love of God as manifested through the giving of His Son. The service was enriched by the singing of Mr. W. L. McNair, Jr.

The Missionary Society met with Mrs. Roxie Watkins last Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Watkins is a recent addition to our church work and is showing herself extremely interested in building up the church. At the conclusion of the meeting delicious refreshments were served.

The trustees of St. James placed an order last week for the installation of pews in the church, hoping to have this done by the meeting of Presbytery. Much credit is given the ladies of the Missionary Society who made on the first payment $235; also the S. S., Earnest Workers and Up and Doing Bible classes and the Male Sextet. Each made a creditable showing on this venture.

Mr. Lee Scott continues on the sick list. His many friends hope to see him out soon.

The St. James Male Sextet together with the Female Quartet gave a recital at Thomasville last Monday night. The effort was quite a success. The Sextet is composed of the following: Messrs. Arthur Booker, Robt. Gillespie, Wm. Barber, Wm. Turner, Frank Jordan and Rev. H. C. Miller. Mr. W. L. McNair is special singer, Mr. A. Bridges, pianist.

The Female Quartet is composed of the following: Mrs. E. B. Meares, Mrs. E. G. Miller, Mrs. R. E. McNair and Mrs. S. W. Carter.

The Sunday school was largely attended Sunday. The banner for finance was won by Earnest Workers Bible class, while Up and Doing won the attendance banner.

The Sextet will appear in recital at Sanford Monday night, December 14th, and at Salisbury during the holidays.

Quite a successful entertainment was given by Up and Doing class last Tuesday night in the basement of the Church. A neat sum was realized.

Mr. Robert Gillespie and Rev. Miller spent last Thursday in Salisbury in the interest of the recital by the Sextet. They report having had a pleasant trip.

Mrs. Laura Bridges is indisposed at this writing. Her many friends and Sunshine Band (Young People's Class) missed her from service on Sunday.

LISBON SPRINGS CHURCH, LOWELL.

Sunday morning, December 13, Rev. L. C. Alexander spoke from Habakkuk 2:4, using the theme: "The Just Shall Live by Faith." The speaker explained to the real meaning of the theme. He went on to say that by the results of faith the just shall live, and not by works or merit.

He went on to say, further, that a man being good is not all that is necessary to make him fit for the kingdom of God, but there must be a complete surrender of his heart and soul to God, and he must have faith to take God at His word. Abraham believed in God and it was counted to him for righteousness, and for the faith and trust that Abraham had in God's word, his seed were blessed. This is a splendid example of trust, said he, of a man who deposited his faith in God's Bank of Trust. And any man who will deposit his faith in God's bank of Trust cannot fail.

We are glad to note that Mr. Frank Soan, a member of our church, who met with an accident some time ago and has been in the Good Samaritan Hospital, of Charlotte, is getting along nicely and is able to be at home again.

We were pleased to have Miss Brown, of Wooster, Mass., who is now a teacher in the Graded School of Lowell, as a visitor at our church services Sunday morning.

Miss Virgie Webber, of Kings Mountain school, was also a visitor at our morning services.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Ashley are splendid workers in our church.

HIGH PRAISE FOR DR. WARD

Dr. C. A. Ward, who is acknowledged to be one of the most learned, popular and upright ministers who has ever pastored a church in Newport News, left with his wife and children for his new charge in Toledo, Ohio, last Tuesday afternoon. He had been the pastor of Carver Memorial Presbyterian church for the past ten years, and during that time, he has added at least a hundred members to the church, many of whom are leaders in business and professions. So genial and friendly and correct in manners is Dr. Ward that he makes friends of people of all callings and denominations, and he has been most fortunate in the selection of a wife, as Mrs. Ward is pronounced by all who know her as a most lovable and amiable woman, sympathetic and kind to everyone, and is one of those exceptional characters who can smile through tears. Their places will be hard to fill and the blessings of all the people go out to them, and they have the prayers of a most devoted congregation of loyal, sincere friends.—Newport News Star, Dec. 5.

SILVER HILL CHURCH NOTES.

On the 24th and 25th nights of November, Rev. F. C. Shirley, accompanied by the S. S. Missionary, Mr. G. R. Marsh, conducted a Sunday School Institute at Silver Hill church. The services were largely attended each night.

The Sunday School workers seemed to get a lot of inspiration from the new ideas that Rev. Shirley brought to us and are anxious to have him come again.

Sunday, December 6, at 11 o'clock, Rev. Funderburk, a Zion Methodist minister, from Charlotte, preached a soul-stirring sermon. We were proud to have him come by and bring us such a glorious message. A MEMBER.

HIGH POINT CHURCH NOTES.

Sunday, December 6th, the pastor, Rev. C. A. Washington, preached a highly spirited sermon. Many delinquent members and quite a number of friends were present.

I desire to mention several interesting things that were not in the paper about the installation services of Rev. C. A. Washington, Nov. 1st. There were several musical selections. A solo, "The Holy City," was sung by Dr. W. L. McNair, Jr., of St. James church, Greensboro; a beautiful duet was sung by Dr. J. L. Hollowell and Mrs. Hollowell, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. W. G. Anderson, of Lexington; also the Sextet of St James church, of which Rev. H. C. Miller is the leader, sang beautifully. We wish for them continued success in making melody to add to the service of God's house. The collection was indeed good. Part of it was offered to the beloved ministers who came and conducted the services.

Just a word about our church work. Our Sunday school and the Christian Endeavor Society and the Missionary Society are doing nice work.
