

SEVENTH STREET CHURCH NOTES.

By Miss Marie S. Lindsay

Sunday morning the Communion of the Lord's Supper was administered. Dr. Wyche was assisted in this service by Dr. F. J. Anderson.

Dr. Anderson spoke to us from Isaiah 53, part of the 3rd and 4th verses: "He is despised and rejected of men; a man of sorrows and acquainted with griefs. Surely he hath borne our griefs and carried our sorrows."

Dr. Anderson asked, Who is it that bears our griefs and carries our sorrows? It is the Lord Jesus Christ. We have all had griefs and sorrows, even the babies and little children.

There are times in our lives when we seem to be free from sorrow; the time of youth when life is full of pleasure, but pleasure will come to an end. It has been the experience of many a man, to look back over his youth with sorrow and wish he could live life again.

Some of us wish for riches in order that we may not have sorrows, but the rich have pains, heartaches and sorrows. Riches do not take away sorrow. We have sorrows and we keep them to ourselves. We are afraid to tell them to our closest friends. Often they will come to sympathize with us, and then go out and gossip about what we have told them.

But there is One we can tell our troubles to, the Lord Jesus Christ. He takes our troubles upon Himself; and, infinitely more, He suffers for them more than we suffer. No human being can or wants to help us as the Lord Jesus Christ. If we take Jesus Christ into our life He will take away the sin and much of the grief and sorrow. There is no healing for the sin and sorrow of the world but through Jesus Christ.

Many members and friends of the church expressed their love and good cheer through the Friendship tree during the Christmas season. Mr. William Yongue takes this means of thanking all those who helped him make the tree a success. He states there were 200 more gifts on the tree than last year.

Visitors in our church Sunday were Mrs. Ella Smith of Philadelphia, Pa., and Mrs. Letitia Burns of San Francisco, Cal. Mrs. Burns is an aunt of Mrs. W. E. Partee and is enroute to Florida.

Mrs. R. P. Wyche's class turned over $8.40 to the church to use in any way it is needed.

The Seventh Street Guild Missionary Society will meet at the home of Mrs. Ethel Shaw Friday evening, January 15.

The Westminster Guild chapter will meet Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Ida Henderson.

The Sheaf Gatherers Bible class will meet Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. J. D. Martin. This class presented their teacher, Dr. R. P. Wyche, $5 in gold Christmas as a token of respect from the class.

The Volunteer class, Prof. R. L. Douglass, teacher, met at his home Tuesday.

Mrs. Hattie Smith, of E. 8th Street, remains quite ill.

DEMISE OF THOMAS ALEXANDER.

Mr. Thomas W. Alexander, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Alexander, who live in Western Heights of this city, died last Thursday, January 7th. Mr. Alexander was sick for some time, suffering as though he had paralysis.

Young Mr. Alexander was a graduate in the class of 1921 from the College Department of Johnson C. Smith University, and for a while after his graduation taught school at New Bern. To many of his school mates and classmates he was known as "Tom" and while in school was recognized by his fellow students as earnest in his studies. He was a member of Rho Chapter of the Omega Psi Phi Fraternity.

The funeral services were conducted last Sunday afternoon at Clinton Metropolitan A. M. E. Zion church by the pastor, Dr. A. A. Crooke, assisted by Rev. L. B. West, pastor of the Biddeville Presbyterian church,

II Corinthians 5:1-4. Theme: "Life is a Pilgrimage."

Introduction: Briefly state St. Paul remarks to the church at Corinth.

I. The Christian knows for a fact that he is travelling to another world.

(a) We dwell in tents which might be destroyed at any moment—liable to accident.

II. The Apostle Paul represents death as the unclenching of the soul.

(a) At death we leave this mortal body here, and the soul returns to God who gave it.

III. Christianity teaches us of the form of the future permanent state of believers.

(a) The believers' state in eternity is forever, and there we shall know even as we are known.

MILLER MEMORIAL CHURCH BIRMINGHAM, ALA.

Dear Editor: We as a church are starting the year 1926 in the right way. As a reporter I will do my best to have the news of our church in to Rev. H. L. McCrorey, D. D., by Monday or Tuesday of every week.

Rev. Wm. Sample, our minister, preached a very sympathetic sermon on the first Sabbath and urged all to be followers of Christ.

After the sermon Brother Greer led us in prayer. It was a rainy day and the services were poorly attended by our communion.

The Sunday School of the church is trying to get 20 boys and have a boys' club and a men's club and call them the Brotherhood. The Brotherhood will have its first meeting of the year on Friday, January 8.

Our church will have a dollar rally on February 14th to launch paying for a bulletin board.

The missionary club will have its meeting in the following month.

MOORESVILLE, N. C., NEWS.

The Westminster Guild gave the aged and disabled people of Mooresville their usual Christmas dinner, and all the ministers of the town, namely, Rev. J. G. Murray, Rev. F. M. Barber, Rev. S. A. Parris, Rev. J. D. Carson and Rev. J. A. Ramseur They fed 59 people.

Prayer was offered by Rev. T. M. Barber and the welcome address was made by C. S. Browley. The response was by Rev. J. D. Carson. As the table was groaning under its load Mr. J. A. Coble invited all to come and enjoy the many good things to eat.

After everybody had eaten we were favored with some more good talks by Messrs. F. C. Caldwell, Robert Campbell and Martin Campbell. Each person present went home thanking the good ladies for their hospitality.

No. 10 1/2 Society donated to many of the aged people and David Lodge No. 3363 gave a donation to others of the old people.

Mrs. Alice Phifer has organized the Golden Gossip Club. We hope for her much success.

Mrs. Julia Grey and Mrs. Mamie Boyd are somewhat better.

Why expect "Big Money" from your business when you don't invest any money in it? It would be as foolish to expect a rich harvest of wheat when you sow oats. An investment of a small sum in an attractive Sign will pay big dividends. Think it over and let us hear from you.

WOODLAND CHURCH NOTES

On last Sunday morning, our pastor was absent, and Dr. P. W. Russell spoke to us from Judges 5:3, "Hear, O ye kings: give ear, O ye princes; I, even I, will sing praise to the Lord God of Israel." This was an enlightening sermon and all who heard him were filled with the Holy Spirit.

This being missionary day, after remarks by the President, Mr. J. L. Davison was asked to lift the collection. He was assisted by Mr. Levi Davis, of Morning Star Methodist church. The neat sum of $21.30 was realized. The rally was left open for a while. So we are expecting to call for more money for this cause.

Mrs. Ella Johnson and Miss Laverlet Johnson, of Winston-Salem, worshipped with us last Sabbath. We hope they will come again.

Miss Beatrice McGee, who has been spending some time in New York, is now at home. Miss McGee worshipped with us last Sabbath. She will leave for New York soon.

delayed in getting to the church because it was cold. However, there was a nice number out and we had Sunday school.

On Sunday, January 3rd, our pastor brought to us a soul-stirring sermon from Gen. 9:23. The congregation was large. A nice collection on pastor's salary was taken—$13.11. Among the friends who worshipped with us were Mr. Levi Knox and Mrs. Mollie Kerns. Prof. Graham announced that his school would re-open on the fourth and asked all the people to have their children present.

Our hearts go out in sympathy and prayer for two of our sick members, Mr. Alford Black and Mrs. Carrie Potts. We were glad to have Elder W. S. Black present again.

CALDWELL CHURCH NOTES

December 21 we had a warm prayermeeting. There were several expressions by members, then our pastor, Rev. Foster, preached to us from St. Luke, the text being, "Unto you is born this day a Saviour." It was a wonderful sermon. He told us how we should give gifts. He said to the young boys and girls that the greatest gift that they could give was to give their hearts to God.

Arrangement was made for a dinner for the old people December 27, something that had never taken place before. Our pastor did not preach to us as he was
