

BARBER COLLEGE FOR WOMEN

Anniston, Alabama.

Let's Go! This College, established to offer full College Courses for young women of the Negro race, will open its second year, September 15, 1925.

It is the only Presbyterian Woman's College for colored women in the world. Like the colleges exclusively for women, it encourages the ideals of true women and offers courses of study for young women such as the best women demand, and such as prepare them for their special work. Through the noble generosity of its founders with Presbyterian ideals, Barber College makes it easier for a girl with energy and ability to become a College Graduate, and reach her highest usefulness.

Graduates, obtaining the College Diploma, will be able to meet the increased requirements of the State Boards of Education, and be fitted for all conditions set for teaching and higher studies. With an enlarged Faculty and increased facilities, Barber College offers to capable Negro women a great opportunity for higher development, usefulness, and privilege.

With it is associated Barber Memorial Seminary which will continue to offer its secondary courses of study and also act as a Preparatory School for the College. All the advantages of the Seminary, with its able Faculty, increased facilities, and attractive surroundings, will be open to students of the College.

Located in the foot-hills of the Blue Mountains in Northeastern Alabama, the situation is unsurpassed. It would be difficult, if not impossible, to find a better school building. Large rooms. Two in a room. Steam heated. Electric lighted. Newly furnished throughout. Modern in every way. Plain, but plenty of food. Absolutely pure mountain spring water, none better. Large Faculty. Small classes. Personal supervision.

For further information, address the President, Rev. John F. Scherer.

SCOTIA WOMEN'S COLLEGE

CONCORD, N. C.

A well-equipped School under the care of the Board of National Missions of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, Division for Colored People, for the Higher Education and Industrial Training of young women.

A Seminary Course or High School Academic Course for those desiring to prepare for College, and a High School Normal Course for those desiring special preparation for teaching.

There can no longer be any question among the friends of Scotia as to her being on the accredited list, inasmuch as the graduates of this year were each granted by the State Board of Public Instruction an Elementary B Certificate for three years.

An Industrial Course, including Domestic Arts and Sciences, with special instruction in Sewing and Cooking, for those desiring special preparation in these lines.

Also a course in Music, including Piano, Public School Music, and Chorus Work.

There are two large Dormitories with pleasant rooms, steam heated, electrically lighted, and pleasantly situated in a large and beautiful campus near the center of the city on Concord and convenient to the Railroad station.

For catalogue, application blanks, and any desired information, address the President,

REV. T. R. LEWIS, D. D.

EBENEZER CHURCH NEWS.

On Christmas day, December 25th, 1925, we had service in our new church for the first time. Our former pastor, Rev. P. N. Boykin, preached the first sermon in the new church from Samuel 7-12. The words of his text were: "Then Samuel took a stone and set it between Mizpah and Shen and called the name of it Ebenezer, saying, Hitherto the Lord hath helped us."

Who is among us that saw this church when first in her glory?

D. L. DIGGS.

BLANDONIA CHURCH NEWS, SANFORD.

By Mrs. Nancy Crumpton.

Although it has been a long time since you have heard anything from Sanford, that does not mean that we are not working. We are alive and progressing along all lines of church development.

We have organized a religious Council in our church and it is solving one of the great problems of the season. It has formerly been a difficult task to find something for all the members to do; for that reason since the membership has gone beyond the 150 mark there was a tendency for some who, seemingly, had nothing to do, to drop out and go to some church where they were given work. Now, we are glad to say that all who want to work are given an opportunity.

We have 179 members on roll and they have been divided into five groups with almost an equal number in each group. These groups are complete organizations in themselves with an elder as their leader. They have a secretary, a social service committee and a financial committee. The leader keeps in touch with his members through the aid of his secretary and social service committee. He calls a meeting of his group about once each month and gives each member who is willing to work something definite to do in whatever way the individual is best fitted. At the end of each quarter the Religious Council meets in a general session. The leaders of the groups and their members make a report to the Council of the work they have accomplished along the lines of visiting the sick, getting new members for the church, the spiritual condition of the members, and also what they have done in a financial way.

This plan has proven the most successful one we have found during the administration of our present pastor, Rev. J. E. McMillan. I wish to pause here and say we feel that the Lord has blessed us in sending Rev. McMillan. He is the right man in the right place and to him is due the credit of working out all the details of our present efficient plan of running the church. We have as our goal to double the membership of the church within the next two years, and to meet all of our benevolent and current expenses. At the last meeting of the Council, the writer was elected official reporter for the church. So you will hear more of us from time to time.

The Communion of the Lord's Supper was celebrated at Blandonia church last Sunday morning. The attendance was very good.

Rev. McMillan preached at the morning service from John 1:36, text, "Behold the Lamb." This sermon was a masterpiece of eloquence and was full of instruction and spiritual fervor.

One member was added to the church at the conclusion of the morning service. He was assigned to group No. 2, Elder G. D. Brodie, leader.

The Sunday school is one of the great assets of the church. With Mr. George Roberts as the very efficient Superintendent, and a splendid corps of officers and teachers it is growing in interest and numbers each Sunday.

The choir is well organized and is rendering good music at all the church services. They gave a program of Christmas music during the holidays. Mrs. B. G. McMillan is director and Miss Vivian Alston is pianist.

Circles No. 1 and No. 2 of the Missionary Auxiliary will meet in joint session in the home of Mrs. W. F. Cox for the first meeting in the new year.

The recital given by the St. James male Sextet and special tenor was well received as was shown by the generous applause given each number. There is talk of having them come again.

Dr. and Mrs. M. J. Alston, Jr., of Laurinburg, spent the Christmas holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Alston, Sr.

Miss Carrie Belle Cox and Miss Julia Gordon visited relatives and friends in Cheraw, S. C., during the holidays.

Born to Rev. and Mrs. J. E.

McMillan a fine son. Mother and baby are getting along nicely.

"Through days before thee
May the skies be fair,
Ever shining o'er thee
Bright beyond compare.

"May no mist of sadness
Rise thy life to dim,
May thy cup of gladness
Richly overbrim.

"Let the world be brighter, better
For your having trod its way;
Let your light be seen from afar
E're sinks life's little day."

"Fill up the hours with what will last,
Buy up the moments as they go;
The life above when this is past,
Is the ripe fruit of life below."

We are glad to say that the Christmas holidays were very pleasantly spent throughout our community. Our pastor, Rev. L. J. Melton and family were with us a good bit of the time. We are always glad to have them. On Christmas night a very beautiful program, arranged by Mrs. Carrie B. Harris and Miss Daisy Lee Byers, was rendered. The tree was beautiful and the gifts were many, which showed that the spirit of Christmas ran through our community.

We were glad to have with us during the holiday season our girls who are attending Scotia Woman's College, and also Miss Irene Alexander, who is a student at Price High School, Salisbury.

Mrs. Carrie B. Harris and little daughter Virginia spent last week with relatives and friends in Winston-Salem and High Point.

Misses Alelia and Louise Russell spent the week-end with their aunt, Mrs. Maggie Russell, of Huntersville.

Elder L. M. Davidson, who has been confined to his bed for two months or more, is not improving as we had hoped to see.

ciety gave a box supper on Tuesday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Brown on Cedar Street which was largely attended. They will hold their monthly meeting at Mrs. Onlee Wallace's Thursday, Jan. 7, at 7:30 P. M.

Our Sabbath School Missionaries, Rev. F. C. Shirley and Mr. I. M. Martin, held an Institute Wednesday and Thursday nights of last week which was indeed helpful. They pointed out to us many ways which would make for the success of our Sunday school.

On Sunday morning, Mr. Joe Maxwell, of Brooklyn church, and Mrs. Henderson, of Charlotte, worshipped with us.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hooper, of Gastonia, spent the week-end with her aunt, Mrs. C. L. Polk, and relatives on Davidson St., Charlotte.

Mrs. Ruth Polk had a birthday supper on Monday evening, which was enjoyed by those present.
