

SEVENTH STREET CHURCH NOTES.

By Miss Marie S. Lindsay

Sunday morning we listened to a sermon by the pastor from Romans 8:15. His subject was: "The Spirit of Adoption." When we receive the spirit of adoption we are delivered from bondage and the spirit of fear. We are received into the family of God.

When we are lifted up the dignity of our position should be impressed upon our minds. We have been taken out of the dust. Since we have been lifted up, we are free and should carry ourselves according to the place we occupy.

By adoption we are received into the family of God, and have all the privileges and opportunities of the children of God. These privileges are secure, guaranteed by adoption. Thieves cannot break through and steal. God says: "Come boldly to the throne of grace, where you can find help in the time of need. These privileges are spiritual privileges that only God's people can enjoy."

The collection as announced by the chairman of the deacon board Sunday morning was $53.15.

The choir, under the supervision of Miss Annie F. Hayes and Mr. Paul Richardson, is active again. Misses Catherine Martin and Frances Adams are the pianists and Mr. J. B. Hemphill is the director.

Mrs. Louise Barber Foster, of Chesterfield, S. C., was in the city a few days ago on business.

Dr. W. L. McBeth, of Chicago, Ill., is in the city visiting his mother, Mrs. Louise Macbeth. Mrs. Macbeth has been very ill but is now improved.

The choir will render a special number "In Heavenly Love Abiding," Sunday morning.

Visitors in church Sunday morning were Prof. and Mrs.

Philip Boden and Miss Leah Davis, in Sunday school, Miss Claudia Williamson, volunteer class; Rev. J. D. Kelly and brother, Mr. L. W. Kelly, Progressive class; Miss Vivian Amos, Kings Daughters; Mrs. N. Shirley, mother of Rev. F. C. Shirley, the Gleaners.

The Westminster Circle met Wednesday, January 26, at the home of Mrs. Ethel Shaw.

The Westminster Guild Chapter met Tuesday, January 25, with Miss Roberta Hughes.

A program will be rendered at Seventh Street church Sunday evening, Jan. 31, at 7:30. Mrs. E. B. White and Miss J. B. Dixon are the committee in charge.

Don't forget the bazaar at Seventh Street church, beginning February 1. Many attractions are being planned.

Mrs. T. W. Drye, with her two months' old baby, Annie Lois, was at church Sunday.

Mrs. Odessa Elliott and little son, Clinton, are in the city visiting her father, Mr. William Creswell.

The Junior department is alive with interest. The Shorter Catechism is being taught. Mrs. F. C. Shirley, our efficient secretary, is all that could be desired. She brings us many new ideas. The teachers with their group of children are making progress. Miss Irene Dawkins teaches the 10 year old children, Miss Louise Young the 11 year old and Miss Corrie Hart the 12 year old. The writer can see the progress made in reviewing the previous lesson studied and the lesson taught that particular Sunday. The interest in the Catechism under the direction of Miss Irene Dawkins, is high.

The writer will be glad to note the progress of the other departments of the Sunday school, if the reports are turned over to her.

BROOKLYN CHURCH NOTES

By Mrs. F. J. McGill.

Our pastor, Dr. F. L. Brodie, who has been absent for the last two Sundays on account of illness, is better. We hope he will be able to perform his duties real soon.

Sunday, January 17, we were pleased to have with us Dr. F. J. Anderson, of Johnson C. Smith University, who always brings us a strong message. His sermon was very inspiring and impressive.

On last Sunday morning Dr. P. W. Russell, of Johnson C. Smith University, was with us and preached a strong and helpful sermon. His subject was: "Serving God." His text was Joshua 24:14. A large congregation was present. Among the visitors were Miss Higgins and Miss Cunningham, teachers at the Second Ward High School; Mr. and Mrs. Cochran, of Brandon Presbyterian church, and Cathey, of Clinton Chapel A. M. E. Zion church.

Last Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock the Odd Fellows held service at our church. Rev. F. J. Moore, of the Congregational church, preached a strong and impressive sermon. His text was: "His name shall be called Wonderful." This service was for the benefit of the church. Just a small number was present on account of other Odd Fellows services held during the same hour. The sum of $13.32 was realized. Mr. Hennigan, who gave a few interesting remarks, said they would come back when they could turn out in full force and raise us some money.

Sunday night we were favored with another good message from Mr. A. H. Prince, of Johnson C. Smith University. This was indeed a treat. Mr. Prince always brings us something worth while.

Sunday night, January 17, we were favored by having Mr. R. N. Cowan, of Johnson C. Smith University to speak for us. His sermon was also interesting.

JOHNSON C. SMITH UNIVERSITY NOTES

By A. H. Prince

Evening services last Saturday and Sunday were conducted by Dr. Yorke Jones, dean of the theological department.

The second semester begins Monday, February 1st. This day will be used in the registration of students for the second semester.

The basket ball team is planning to play its first game on February 17th with Morehouse College, of Atlanta, Ga.

Messrs. F. D. Nance and J. R. Dungee, Jr., are attending the State Convention of the Young Men's Christian Association which is being held at Raleigh this week.

Mrs. H. L. McCrorey was hostess to the Priscilla Needle Club Tuesday evening.

Ruth Ellis, dramatic reader, is to appear here in the University Auditorium Monday evening, February 1st. It is hoped that many will be present to hear Miss Ellis, as she is highly recommended.

Why expect "Big Money" from your business when you don't invest any money in it? It would be as foolish to expect a rich harvest of wheat when you sow oats. An investment of a small sum in an attractive Sign will pay big dividends. Think it over and let us hear from you.
