

CHURCH NOTES.

By Miss Marie S. Lindsay

The members and friends listened to a sermon Sunday morning by the pastor from I Corinthians 3:16: "Know ye not that we are consecrated to God; and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you?"

The speaker said, "This Scripture was directed to believers. A temple was a place that was consecrated to God for His service, a place that was holy, because it was set aside for God."

"Solomon's temple was magnificent as to its size, beauty and greatness. Great care was taken of the temple; nothing was spared."

"Nothing can be compared to our temple, the body. No one can construct such a temple but God. The human body has been dignified, because Jesus Himself was human. The Holy Spirit comes to dwell in the temple of God. To have this divine personage to dwell with us means that we are consecrated to God; that we submit to Him as a Ruler, and as Master of us all."

We say, "Dear Lord, I give myself to Thee, 'Tis all that I can do" We have surrendered to Him and should therefore render service. We should not try to select work for the Master, but should go wherever he sends us.

He is in the temple as a Guide to us through this pilgrimage of life, to incline our hearts to walk in the right way, and to call us back when we attempt to go astray. If we follow Him, we will not stumble, nor walk in the dark. If we walk in the right way, He will assist us with every burden that we have.

If we want our way and are not desirous of following God, we are lacking in consecration.

Sunday night, an interesting program was rendered in connection with a pew rally. Mr. Gray and his sons from the Congregational church rendered several selections. The collection was $20.03. The total for the day for this club was $30.03.

Mrs. Mae Jones will give an Easter egg hunt at the Y. W. C. A. Thursday afternoon in the interest of her club.

Assisting in the Easter program next Sunday night will be the Johnson C. Smith Quintette, Mrs. Hattie Davis Williams, Prof. G. J. Davis, and Rev. Prof. W. B. Crittendon, of the Episcopal church.

"The Palms" was rendered on the organ by Dr. T. A. Long during church services and sung by Miss Nora McSwain during Sunday school hour last Sabbath.

Miss Susie M. Shirley, domestic science teacher in the city school of Jackson, Miss., has been visiting her brother, the Rev. Frank C. Shirley for several days and will be here until after Easter. Miss Shirley will be accompanied home by her mother, who has been visiting Rev. and Mrs. Shirley for the last two or three months.

We were glad to see in the city for a few days this week Mrs. C. M. Stafford. Mrs. Stafford has been spending the winter with her son, Rev. J. B. Barber, in Chattanooga, Tenn. She was enroute to Chesterfield, S. C., to spend a few days with her daughter, Mrs. Louise Barber Foster.

Friday night, April 9, an interesting program will be rendered in the basement of the church. Outstanding features will be the Johnson C. Smith University Quintette and selections by members of the church choir. Admission will be 10c. Suppers will be served for the small sum of 15 cents. The menu will be chicken salad, sandwiches, orange ice and coffee.

A 5 lb. box of chocolate candy will go to the one holding the lucky number.

Don't forget the Cinderella Supper, Monday night, April 12th. Large suppers will be served for the small sum of 25 cents. This club is composed of children from one day old up

JOHNSON C. SMITH UNIVERSITY NOTES.

By A. H. Prince

Messrs. F. D. Nance, W. C. Jones and the writer, of the Senior and Middle Theological classes respectively, have returned from Cheraw, S. C., where they attended the meeting of Fairfield Presbytery. Mr. Nance was ordained to the full work of the gospel ministry and Mr. Jones and the writer were licensed to preach.

Mr. Geo. T. Butler, of the Junior class, has been called home to Washington, Ga., on account of the serious illness of his mother.

Mr. Lester Mitchell, of the Sophomore class, was called home to Wilson Tuesday on account of the death of his aunt.

The base ball team has played three games already and has won them—A. & T. College, losing 7-16; Bennett College, 7-8; North Carolina State, 3-5. This fine record will still be maintained here on Easter Monday with Livingstone College.

Mr. J. R. Dungee, of the Senior Theological class, has gone to his home, Norfolk, Va., to attend the Presbytery of Southern Virginia next week.

Dean Thompson, of Allen University, Columbia, spent last Sunday in the city and addressed our Sabbath school Sunday morning.

The Young Men's Christian Association has elected the following cabinet to serve the ensuing year: President, E. L. James; Vice-President, Geo. F. Newell; Secretary, E. C. Morgan; Assistant Secretary, G. Rex Lee, and A. H. Prince, Treasurer.

Mr. J. D. Carr, editor of the Asheville Enterprise, was on the campus Thursday of this week.

Prof. S. H. Adams, Registrar of the University, and Dr. P. W. Russell, Dean, attended the meeting of the Registrars' Association in Greensboro last week.

Prof. C. B. Allen, of Lincoln Academy, Kings Mountain, was a pleasant visitor on our campus last Friday morning and made remarks to students and faculty at devotionals.

WOODLAND CHURCH

By Mrs. S. L. Fox

On Sunday, March 28, our pastor, Rev. R. Z. Beatty, preached to a large and appreciative audience. His text was Romans, 6th chapter and the last verse: "For the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord."

The Christian Endeavor observed Junior Rally Day. A short program was rendered. We collected the neat sum of $11.00 which will go to help to repair our church. We had the splendid choir of Shiloh which rendered some beautiful music. Mr. Clarence Alexander is chorister of this choir and Mr. R. Nixon is organist.

An Old Member of Woodland Church Dead.

An old member of Woodland church, Mr. Henry Fox, departed this life March 10, being 92 years of age.

MOREHEAD CITY COLORED BOYS REGISTER FIRST.

When the first Colored Older Boys' Conference was held last year at Greensboro the boys from the colored school at Morehead City of which W. S. King is principal, were first to register. Morehead City is in the territory of the Raleigh Conference this year since the State has been divided into two districts and again the boys from Morehead City have been the first to register for the conference.

The Eastern North Carolina Older Boys' Conference for Colored Boys will be held in Raleigh, April 23, 24, 25.

WHAT RELIGION MEANS TO ME.

By the Undersigned.

The religion of Jesus Christ means a great deal to me, for it makes me think constantly about God who has made us and not we ourselves.

Having this religion, I endeavor to love and fear God to the best of my ability, knowing that such a being requires me to do so.

My opinion is that the system of worship on which this religion is based, suits anyone who would but embrace it, owing to its simplicity and truthfulness.

And then, too, there is religious work which can be accomplished with the assurance that it would be accepted by Him whom we are endeavoring to follow and to serve.

And not only that, but one obtains courage and fortitude to prosecute whatever task he may have to do, so long as he possesses this religion of Jesus Christ, our blessed Redeemer.

EDWARD WEBB CHURCH, MT. AIRY.

By Mrs. J. H. Clement

Sunday was a lovely church going day. We had a splendid congregation and a good Sunday school. Our pastor, Rev. J. H. Clement, preached a soul-stirring sermon from Luke 10:41-42, "And Jesus answered and said unto her, Martha, Martha, thou art careful and troubled about many things. But one thing is needful and Mary hath chosen that good part which shall not be taken away from her." The speaker said in his discourse that there is one thing needed in the church and that is prayer, not people to say prayers, but those who will pray.

We are sorry to learn of the illness of one of the members, Mrs. Willie Rawley. We hope she will soon recover.

We are glad to hear Mr. and Mrs. Galloway out again after having been confined to their beds with the "flu."

Mrs. Annie B. Turner, of High Point, after spending several months with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. Clement, has returned to her home. Her little daughter, Annie Worrell, was baptized at the parsonage, during the entertainment of the Missionary Circle.

Rev. S. L. Young and family will make their home in Winston-Salem after April 1st. We will miss them very much.

The Woman's Missionary Society held their popular meeting at the parsonage. An evening of pleasure was spent. An interesting program was carried out the following named persons participating: The President, who read the 47th Psalm; Messdames Henry Davis, Troy Franklin, C. Davis, Margaret Kegler, Mrs. A. Galloway, Clement, Pinnix and Palmer. Rev. Clement made remarks after the ladies had rendered their parts.

A collection of $2.10 was lifted. Mrs. C. Davis then played a march and all the guests were led into the dining room where the hostess served a salad course. The next meeting will be held at Mrs. Kegler's.

THE ACADEMY HILL NEWS, HILLSBORO.

Rev. John L. White preached here on last Sunday. He brought a strong message. His subject was "Jesus the Christ, the Son of the Living God." Elder B. C. Ellison announced that the second Sunday in April will be the 16th anniversary of the church. Rev. White will preach in the morning and there will be music by the A. M. E. choir. Sunday school will be at the usual hour.

Dr. Avant, of Durham, will preach in the afternoon. At this time music will be furnished by Mt. Bright Baptist choir. After this service refreshments will be served.

The Woman's Missionary Society will meet at Sister Julia Richmond's on the second Monday, which will be the 12th of April. That will be the last meeting before the Presbytery. We shall send Sister Julia Richmond as a delegate.

Mrs. Sarah Hiles, who has been sick, is improving.

GRACE CHURCH, WINSTON-SALEM, LOSES GOOD MEMBER.

On Tuesday, A. M. March 30, at 2:30 o'clock, the death of Mr. Black visited the home of Mrs. Margaret Black and took her to the home of Mr. Elmore Black, a faithful member of Grace Presbyterian church. This life was one of service until he was pelled by affliction to relinquish his activities. Mr. Black was prepared and willing to go. We shall miss him, but we have the comforting reflection that we are not without hope, for we are quite sure that if we are as faithful as he was we shall see him again where there is no parting, for he has only gone ahead.

Mr. Black leaves a wife, four children, one sister, and four brothers to mourn their loss.
