

BARBER COLLEGE FOR WOMEN

Anniston, Alabama.

Let's Go! This College, established to offer full College Courses for young women of the Negro race, will open its second year, September 15, 1925.

It is the only Presbyterian Woman's College for colored women in the world. Like the colleges exclusively for women, it encourages the ideals of true women and offers courses of study for young women such as the best women demand, and such as prepare them for their special work. Through the noble generosity of its founders with Presbyterian ideals, Barber College makes it easier for a girl with energy and ability to become a College Graduate, and reach her highest usefulness.

Graduates, obtaining the College Diploma, will be able to meet the increased requirements of the State Boards of Education, and be fitted for all conditions set for teaching and higher studies. With an enlarged Faculty and increased facilities, Barber College offers to capable Negro women a great opportunity for higher development, usefulness, and privilege.

With it is associated Barber Memorial Seminary which will continue to offer its secondary courses of study and also act as a Preparatory School for the College. All the advantages of the Seminary, with its able Faculty, increased facilities, and attractive surroundings, will be open to students of the College.

Located in the foot-hills of the Blue Mountains in Northeastern Alabama, the situation is unsurpassed. It would be difficult, if not impossible, to find a better school building. Large rooms. Two in a room. Steam heated. Electric lighted. Newly furnished throughout. Modern in every way. Plain, but plenty of food. Absolutely pure mountain spring water, none better. Large Faculty. Small classes. Personal supervision.

For further information, address the President, Rev. John F. Scherer.

SCOTIA WOMEN'S COLLEGE

CONCORD, N. C.

A well-equipped School under the care of the Board of National Missions of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, Division for Colored People for the Higher Education and Industrial Training of young women.

A Seminary Course or High School Academic Course for those desiring to prepare for College, and a High School Normal Course for those desiring special preparation for teaching.

As in the past three years, Scotia will continue to furnish a course in Teacher Training. Following July 1st, 1927, the requirement for an Elementary A. Certificate will be a standard High School course of four years.

For the coming year, 1926-'27, Scotia is authorized by the State Board to offer a one year course in Teacher Training to the following types of students leading to the class of certificate indicated:

1. Standard High School Graduates—Elementary Class A.
2. Non-Standard High School students with 12 units of Standard credits—Elementary Class B.
3. Non-Standard High School Graduates
  - (a) Finishing in 1921 or since—Elementary Class B with half credits toward raising same to Class A.
  - (b) Finishing prior to 1921—Elementary Class B.

Note: Provided students had a four year High School course and the school has since been accredited. The President will be glad to hear very soon from any who desire to take this course.

An Industrial Course, including Domestic Arts and Sciences, with special instruction in Sewing and Cooking, for those desiring special preparation in these lines. Also a course in Music, including Piano, Public School Music, and Chorus Work.

There are two large Dormitories with pleasant rooms, steam heated, electrically lighted, and pleasantly situated in a large and beautiful campus near the center of the city on Concord and convenient to the Railroad station.

For catalogue, application blanks, and any desired information, address the President.

REV. T. R. LEWIS, D. D.

ALLEN TEMPLE, CLEVELAND.

Sunday, February 28th, the minister was at his post at 11 o'clock as usual. He is always on time. His text was Psalm 17: 15. The minister, Mr. R. N. Cowan, is an able speaker and marked enthusiasm characterized the services of the day.

In the afternoon the missionary pew rally took place. Those who had something to say were Mr. R. N. Cowan, Mrs. Mabel Waddell, Mrs. Lula Waddell, of Elmwood, Miss E. Miller of Oakland church, and Mrs. Mary Wood.

Captain No. 1, Mrs. Bessie Cowan, reported $8; captain No. 2, Mrs. Annie Cowan, $9.20, and Mrs. Laura Knox, $5.00, making a total of $22.20 for the afternoon. The missionary work is alive. We have sent in our full quota. We have not been saying anything to you in the paper, but we have been working.

On Sunday, March 14, to our surprise we had Rev. F. C. Shirley to speak for us. His text was John 14:32, and the sermon was enjoyed by all. We trust he will come to see us again soon with the same spirit and inspiration.

After the sermon Elder A. P. White prayed a soul-stirring prayer. Elder White is one of the oldest officers of our church.

The minister of our church is doing a good work as a leader. We hope that we can have him for a long time.

The Missionary Society met at Mrs. C. J. Cowan's on Main Street the 4th of March. A number of ladies was present and had a very interesting meeting. Mrs. Cowan entertained us highly. She served in course, sandwiches, salad, cake, punch and hot chocolate which we all enjoyed very much.

Mrs. Harriet Knox is on the sick list. We are glad to note that Miss Mabel Click, who has been sick for a long time, is improving. She is not forgotten by her friends and church.

MRS. A. P. WHITE, President of Missionary Society.

MOORESVILLE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH NOTES.

We are still laboring at the great work by the help of the Lord, although we are often caused to mourn by the visits of the death angel.

Only a short while ago two of our aged members of the church were called home: Mr. George Caldwell Goodman, whose death was closely followed by that of his wife, Mrs. Rosanna Goodman. They were both in the eighties and died triumphant in the faith. Their loss will be great in the home and church.

On the 13th of March the angel called for Miss Bertha C. Graham, who had been watching and patiently waiting for about a year. Before her illness, Miss Graham was a faithful member of the Sunday school and church and for several years was a member of the faculty in the city school. The funeral services were held at the Presbyterian church on Monday afternoon, March 15, conducted by Rev. J. A. Ramseur, assisted by Dr. Hollowell and Revs. A. Adjahoe and S. A. Paris. Rev. Ramseur spoke from Mark 13: 33-37.

Miss Graham is survived by the following sisters: Mrs. Cora Perry, Mrs. Lela Phifer and Miss Juanita Graham. An abundance of flowers was a token of the many friends who mourn the deceased.

A WITNESS.

HIGH POINT CHURCH NOTES.

By Miss Daisy Keno

Sunday morning we listened to a sermon by the pastor, Rev. C. A. Washington, from the 12th chapter of Proverbs and Psalm 59:19. The speaker said, we should be blind to those things that tend to divert our attention from God. There are some day who are teaching things against the Bible. Modernism is working a tremendous impression against all that is right and good.

We had one to join the church, Mr. Banford Thompson. Those on the sick list are Mr. and Mrs. Drake, Mrs. J. H. Wade, Mr. Wm. Saunders, Mrs.

L. B. Kearns, Mrs. R. S. Payne, Mrs. H. R. Keno, Mrs. D. M. Moore, Mrs. Annie Snipe and Mrs. Wm. Torrence and Mr. Nesby Johnson.

A daughter, L. May, was born to Mr. and Mrs. John Hammond recently, and a son and daughter to Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Robinson. Mr. and Mrs. Robinson lost their baby boy Saturday evening.

Mr. James Rankin is back with us for the summer.

Dr. and Mrs. L. S. Campbell, formerly of Greensboro, are now making their home here.

Rev. and Mrs. C. A. Washington entertained Dr. H. M. Moore, Rev. Parham and Dr. H. H. Lemon Friday evening, March 19, at their home, 815 East Washington Street.

Mrs. C. A. Washington spent Tuesday evening in Greensboro.

SHADY GROVE AT CARTHAGE.

We had two very distinguished visitors to worship with us Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Everett, of Providence, R. I. Mr. Everett is one of the professors of Brown University, and is now taking a vacation in the South.

We are now prepared to go to the Presbytery. Arrangement has been made to pay up all debts, including the pastor and delegate's expenses and New Era assessments.

Mr. Angus Black, a faithful and energetic member of the church, and who at one time was against giving to the New Era cause, has paid the sum of $10.

Our Sabbath school and Christian Endeavor are doing nicely. The choir is rendering fine music under the leadership of Mr. Black.

We were glad to have Elder W. A. Blue worship with us during the morning service, and Elder W. T. Blue and wife at evening.

Our pastor will leave for Raleigh Monday, where he is to conduct the Week of Prayer for Rev. Vernon R. James.

Among the things of interest and comment is the recent marriage of Elder Owen Ray, senior elder of Shady Grove.

MIRANDA CHURCH

Sunday morning, March 21, the congregation listened to a very interesting and timely sermon preached by our pastor, Rev. W. R. Mayberry. The Scripture lesson was St. Luke the 19th chapter beginning with the 28th verse.

As the next Sunday will be Palm Sunday our pastor will not be present. He also spoke to us on that event, and especially called our attention to the 41st verse, "And when he was come near he beheld the city and wept over it."

We were glad to have worship with us Sunday Mr. J. A. Kerns who has been sick for some time.

Mrs. Adeline Osborne, one of our oldest members, who has been in doors for the past two years, suffering with a broken ankle, is getting on nicely.

The Misses Osborne entertained at their home as dinner guests on March 17 Mesdames Alice Barringer, Mollie Henderson and Bertha Ashford.

Our Sunday School and C. E. Society are doing nicely. Our Easter program is under way and the children are making every effort to render a successful exercise.

Why expect "Big Money" from your business when you don't invest any money in it? It would be as foolish to expect a rich harvest of wheat when you sow oats. An investment of a small sum in an attractive Sign will pay big dividends. Think it over and let us hear from you.
