

SEVENTH STREET CHURCH NOTES.

Miss Marie S. Lindsay

Sunday morning our pastor, Dr. R. P. Wyche, stated that he had been asked to preach a special sermon concerning the training of the youth. Part of his discourse was as follows:

Men usually forget God. They think of him when days of adversity come, but God never forgets. Religious instruction should begin in the home with the little child. Solomon said, "Train up a child in the way he should go, and when he is old, he will not depart from it."

The child should be taught to know God. His first lesson should be love. This is not an easy task; we must get God to help us. We must teach by our lives. We can not teach the child to go one way and we go another.

We do not give the children what is due them. We haven't time, so they go to the street to learn.

Life is made sweeter by the cross and burdens we bear. It will pay every one to take up the cross and carry it.

General officers' meeting was held Monday night. Plans for the year's work in the Sunday school were discussed.

A program will be rendered in the church auditorium Sunday night. Miss J. B. Wallace, chairman of the program committee, is preparing an excellent program.

Mr. N. T. Brave taught the Progressive class Sunday. Mr. G. T. Nash and Mr. J. J. Jordan were visitors in this class.

The Sunday school has on a New Member Campaign. The new members reported Sunday were Mr. W. F. Morgan in the D. J. Sanders Memorial Bible class; Mrs. Minnie Springs in the Sheaf Gatherers' Bible class; Prof. M. W. Wise, assistant teacher and treasurer, and Miss F. Spann in the Volunteer class.

Mr. Brewer and Mr. W. E. Harris were visitors.

Mr. Andrew Kearns, who suffered a broken leg some time ago, was able to take his place in the choir Sunday.

Mrs. Ida Owens Henderson is the newly elected treasurer of the Sunday school. A more competent person can not be found.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Spears and Rev. L. B. West, D. D., motored to Durham to attend the meeting of the Yadkin Presbytery. Mr. Spears was the lay delegate to the General Assembly which met in California, from this Presbytery. Enroute home from Durham the party stopped in Winston-Salem to visit friends.

PLAY GROUNDS FOR CHARLOTTE.

Charlotte has taken an advanced step in the making of future citizens. Last week four playgrounds were opened for Negro children. These playgrounds are at schools in different wards of the city. The locations and the directors in charge are:

Second Ward School, Mrs. Hattie D. Williams and Mr. Mayo Houston.

Morgan School, Mrs. J. C. Bryant and Mr. John Schenck.

Alexander Street School, Miss Fannie Beatty and Mr.

Fairview School, Mrs. Bonnie W. O'Daniel and Mr. V. C. N. Heathcock.

THE PRISCILLA NEEDLE CLUB.

The Priscilla Needle Club, Mrs. Susie G. Ward President, had one of the best meetings of the year last Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. I. M. Martin. Miss Florence M. Onque entertained the club with selections from Negro poets, and the discussion and social intercourse were unusually free and delightful. Mrs. May Means and Dr. T. A. Long were club guests, and each contributed to the evening's pleasure.

The Club will send a contribution to the State Federation which meets at Greensboro in May for the Girls' Home at Effand.

BROOKLYN CHURCH NOTES

By Mrs. F. J. McGill

The communion of the Lord's Supper was administered Sunday morning and night. The services were very impressive. Just before the morning communion service, Vancie Lucile White was baptized.

Mr. John Barnett and Mrs. Bell Neal have been received into the church since last communion.

The gingham dress wedding which was given by members of Little Rock A. M. E. Zion church last Tuesday evening at our church was a success. The wedding was sponsored by Mrs. D. C. Richie and was for the benefit of the church. We want to thank all who came out and helped in this cause.

Eld. S. R. Harris, who has been ill for some time, is still on the sick list.

A fine daughter, Lucable Davis, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Davis, of No. 2 S. McDowell St. Mother and daughter are getting along nicely.

The Woman's Missionary Society held its regular monthly meeting Monday evening at the church. The meeting was a very interesting one.

The 17th anniversary of the Brooklyn Presbyterian church and Sunday school was observed Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION AT BROOKLYN CHURCH.

The 17th anniversary of the founding of Brooklyn Presbyterian church and Sunday school was observed Sunday, April 22, at 3:30 in the afternoon. Music was rendered by the church choir and the American Legion Quartet.

Mr. Chas. B. Rhyne gave a brief and very interesting talk on the early history of the church and Sunday school.

The Rev. H. Wilson, of Concord, a former pastor of Brooklyn church, and the principal speaker, gave a complete history of the church from its organization. He pictured clearly and in his own characteristic way, the early struggles of a few people, determined to establish a Presbyterian church in Brooklyn, mentioning also some of the members whose personal sacrifices saved the early church from being compelled to disband. Rev. Wilson paid glowing tribute to many of the charter members who are gone to their reward.

Dr. P. W. Russell gave an inspiring talk on the future Brooklyn Presbyterian church.

Mr. E. F. White, the Superintendent of the Sunday school, called for the offering from the school by classes. The classes reported as follows:

Beginners, Mrs. Robinson, teacher, $1.69; Primary, No. 1, Mrs. McDowell, teacher, $1.36; Junior Girls, Mrs. Richie, teacher, $5.42; Junior Boys, Mr. L. M. Johnson, teacher, 14 cents; Intermediate Girls, Mrs. Pearl Johnson, teacher, $1.10; Intermediate Boys, Mrs. Smith, teacher, 7 cents; Senior Girls, Mrs. Jackson, teacher, 52 cents; Excelsior, Mrs. McLain, teacher, $1.00; Progressive Boys, Mrs. Rhyne, teacher, 30 cents; Blue Ribbon, Mr. Richie, teacher, $2.20; Truth Bearers, Mrs. Brodie, teacher, $1.87; Silver Star, Dr. Russell, teacher, $1.19; Bible Searchers, Mr. Lewis, teacher, $2.25. Total, $19.92; the church collection, was $11.78; making a grand total of $31.70.

There was a number of visiting friends from Westminster church at Concord. Among them were Mrs. H. Wilson and children, Mr. and Mrs. Biggers, Mr. and Mrs. Wagner, Miss Charlotte Percival of Scotia Woman's College, and Miss Ruth Little.

MRS. D. C. RICHIE.

EUREKA CLUB.

The Eureka club met with Mrs. E. M. Dixon Monday evening. Guests of the club were Mrs. P. W. Russell and Miss Florence M. Onque. Short talks were made by these two ladies. Plans for the year's work were discussed. A dainty repast was served by the hostess.

HOPEWELL PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH NOTES AND NEWS OF INTEREST, WALTERBORO, S. C.

By Miss M. E. Wright.

The members and friends of Hopewell Presbyterian church were glad to have with them Rev. W. T. Frazier, Mr. J. A. Curry and Mr. M. M. Mouzon on Wednesday night following the third Sunday in March.

Miss Florence Jones, after completing a very successful school term at Wiggins, S. C., and an enjoyable winter South, has returned to her home in New York City.

Mrs. E. W. McPhaul, who has been on a visit of ten days with Mrs. Violet Wright, spent a few days with her brother in Savannah, before returning to her home in Fayetteville, N. C.

Quite an enjoyable Easter program was rendered at our church on Easter Sunday at 5 P. M. This program was arranged by the reporter. Mr. W. J. Hamilton, S. S. Superintendent, acted as master of ceremonies, while little Miss Hyacinthe Gates presided at the piano. Each feature presented was appropriate and suggestive of the crucifixion and resurrection of our Saviour. The entire program was a success.

An egg hunt was given on Monday afternoon following Easter, and this proved a success also.

Rev. J. C. Johnson preached a very eloquent sermon last Sunday morning. His text was I Cor. 15:14, "And if Christ be not risen, then is our preaching vain." He brought to us many strong and impressive words. Rev. Johnson has been called to serve as pastor of both churches, and we are looking forward to his coming in the near future.

A chicken supper was given at the home of Mrs. Rose Ella Mike some time ago, and a neat sum realized, which helped in making up the quota for the Board.

The Knights of Pythias, Lodge No. 81, had their annual Thanksgiving service at Hopewell Presbyterian church on Sunday night, and the service was well attended.

CHERRY STREET CHURCH, HIGH POINT.

By Miss Lucille Moore

Those from Cherry Street who attended Presbytery which convened in Durham were Rev. and Mrs. C. A. Washington, Mr. Keno, Mrs. Staton and Mrs. Page. They report a very pleasant trip. Mrs. Page is President of the Westminster Guilds.

Messrs. E. C. Wright, Edward L. Allen, D. N. Moore and Rev. and Mrs. C. A. Washington attended the Johnson C. Smith Livingstone College base ball game in Charlotte Easter Monday.

Rev. and Mrs. C. A. Washington motored to New London last Saturday where Rev. Washington preached the baccalaureate sermon at the school of which Mr. Melvin Black is Principal.

Rev. and Mrs. Washington were entertained at the Kilby Hotel for dinner Sunday by Mr. Kilby and Dr. and Mrs. Martin.

Mrs. Andrew Stevenson has returned from Spout Springs, Va., where she was called on account of the illness of her mother, Mrs. Harris. She reports Mrs. Harris' condition as much improved.

Two cars collided at the corner of Wrenn and Green Streets some days ago and five persons were injured. The injured are Mr. and Mrs. James Johnson, Misses Jemima Evans, Daisy Gray and Elizabeth Oates. Mr. Johnson sustained several bruises on the head when his head hit the curb stone. Mrs. Johnson sustained a fractured shoulder. Miss Evans has a cut on the leg, and Misses Gray and Oates received internal injuries. The only member of the group who escaped injury was Miss Grace Hanes.

Mr. Walter Moore sustained a fractured head when he fell from the side of a car Easter Monday.

WOODLAND CHURCH NOTES

Miss Lillian McLeary

Sunday morning our Christian Endeavor opened on time. The number present was 46, and the amount of the collection was 50 cents. On account of rainy weather a large number was absent.

After the Christian Endeavor we entered into Sunday school. There were 92 scholars present. Money collected, $5.15.

Our service was opened with a soul-touching prayer meeting. We had a good crowd for it to have been raining and hailing.

Our beloved pastor, Rev. R. Z. Beatty, spoke briefly from Psalm 116: 12, "What shall I render unto the Lord for all his benefits toward me?" This was a soul-touching sermon which was enjoyed by all. The collection was $12. The total for the day, including Christian Endeavor and Sunday school collection, was $16.75.

We were glad to have Mrs. Connie Davis, who has been very ill, out to worship with us. We were also glad to have a large number of friends from Morning Star.

Mrs. Charline Fox is very ill. One of our members, Mrs. Maylee Saddler, recently passed to the great beyond.

ALLEN'S TEMPLE, CLEVELAND.

By Mrs. J. H. Clement

Sunday, April 8th, was Easter Sunday and a lovely church going day. There were no vacant pews in Allen's Temple. Our pastor, Rev. J. H. Clement, preached a soul-stirring sermon at 11 o'clock.

At three o'clock the Lord's Supper was administered. Rev. Crawford worshipped with us. We had a glorious service. Being the last Sunday before Presbytery our Easter program was postponed until the fourth Sunday.

Among the sick of our church are Mrs. Mollie Ferran and the little baby girl of Mrs. Dave Rankin.

Mrs. W. A. Hawkins was our delegate to Presbytery.

Our Sunday school is getting along nicely. I think we will be able to report several new pupils at the convention. It is our aim to help get the 1000 new pupils that are wanted.

Mrs. J. A. Parks entertained Rev. and Mrs. Clement Sunday and Monday.

The Ladies' Missionary Society was royally entertained at the home of Mrs. Alice Kirkpatrick.
