

SEVENTH STREET CHURCH NOTES.

Miss Marie S. Lindsay

A correction.—Dr. S. L. Young, of Winston-Salem, and not Dr. T. A. Long conducted the night service, Sunday, June 24th.

The writer being late was only able to glean a part of the message brought to us by our pastor Sunday morning. How to use vacation seemed to be the main thought stressed. The speaker said, men seek after a vacation because of the change. They find something else that will be worth more, perhaps, than what they are doing. You take a rest for physical and mental good. People do not always spend a vacation in a way that is truly helpful. It should be spent in such a way that the body is strengthened and the mind relieved, and the spiritual life maintained. We should let our light shine among strangers as well as at home.

Communion of the Lord's Supper will be administered next Sunday. Preparatory services will be held Wednesday, Thursday and Friday nights of this week.

We were delighted to welcome the following visitors Sunday: Dr. and Mrs. Frank Martin, of Washington, D. C.; Mrs. I. B. Ramseur, Mooresville; Miss Peggy Murray, Asheville; Miss Leak, Rockingham; Mrs. Charles McKnight, and Mr. Edwin McKnight, of New York; Prof. T. S. Jackson and Woodson, teachers in the summer school of Johnson C. Smith University.

Mrs. Zachariah Alexander and daughter, Mrs. Z. Alexander, Jr., spent two weeks recently in Chadbourn, visiting Mrs. Mary Muldrow Fuller. They report a pleasant stay.

Miss Hattie Russell spent the week beginning June 11 in Durham visiting her sister, Mrs. W. D. Hill. While there she witnessed the State Tennis Tournament.

Dr. T. A. Long left the city Tuesday for New York City where he will attend Columbia University. While in New York Dr. Long will give an organ recital at Morningside Presbyterian church. (white).

Mrs. J. W. Brooks has been indisposed for a few days.

Mrs. Demetria Grier Dixon's Circle will give an entertainment at the home of Mrs. Mack Frazier, Monday night.

Mrs. Carrie Henry, chairman of Circle No. 1, states that the $22 reported from her club was the amount raised at an entertainment recently given. Dues collected in her club amounted to 80 cents.

The members of the church and congregation honored Dr. and Mrs. J. D. Martin with a reception Monday night in the Sunday school auditorium. Dr. T. A. Long, chairman of the program committee, presided. The program featured one minute toasts from the following persons:

The church, Dr. R. P. Wyche. The Sunday school, Prof. E. A. Chisholm.

The Circles, Mrs. P. W. Russell.

The City Sabbath School Union, Mr. O. J. Jackson.

The Woman's Presbyterial of Catawba, Mrs. M. G. Davis.

Association, Mrs. J. M. Pride.

Catawba Presbyterial, Prof. W. H. Stinson.

Catawba Presbytery, Dr. Rollins, of Gastonia.

Educational Side, Dr. George Davis.

The Africo, Mr. W. E. Hill.

Business Life, Mr. A. E. Spears.

Age Limit, Dr. P. W. Russell.

Board (church), Mr. J. R. Hemphill.

Neighbor, Dr. W. E. Partee.

City, Mr. Zachariah Alexander.

Toasts were also given by Dr. L. B. West and Mrs. C. M. Stafford.

Resolutions were read from the session of the church by Dr. R. L. Douglass.

Two solos were sung by Miss Nora McSwain, with Miss Elizabeth Gabriel at the piano.

Remarks by Mrs. Martin and Dr. Martin.

Dr. Martin said, he appreciated everything that had been said. The sentiments will help him in the work he is to undertake. As he goes away, he will carry the kindest feeling with him. He will try to render a helpful service.

Mrs. Martin in her own attractive way extended a cordial invitation to all to come and see her, but she said, "Don't all come at once."

The Eastern Stars of this district held their district meeting yesterday (Wednesday), July 4, in the Billings school building in Griertown. Mesdames E. B. White, C. M. Stafford, Demetria Grier Dixon and A. L. Lindsay attended from our church. Mr. W. Wallace also was there and took his degree.

SUMMER SCHOOL CLASS VISITS PRINTING OFFICE.

Mrs. Gista Caldwell, one of the instructors in the Johnson C. Smith Summer School, and members of her class in Children's Literature visited the University printing office Thursday morning for the purpose of getting definite ideas of the process of printing. A hurried review of the printer's work from the type cases to the linotype and through the presses was given the class, and all seemed greatly interested. Those of the party besides Mrs. Caldwell were: Misses Lenora Grier, Inez Ison, Talmadge Bennett, Hattie Russell, Dovie Love, and Mesdames Willette Cooper, Joreatha Ialer, Rebecca Hagood, Willie Crane Gilliard, and Mr. McDowell.

BROOKLYN CHURCH NOTES

By Mrs. F. J. McGill

Sunday morning a large audience was present to hear the excellent sermon which Rev. A. H. Prince brought to us. His theme was "A Guest In At Life's Threshold." The text was Revelation 3:20, "Behold I stand at the door and knock; if any man hear my voice and open the door I will come in unto him and will sup with him and he with me." This sermon was full of interesting thoughts and every one seemed to have gained much spiritual benefit from it.

Visitors present were Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Drye, Mrs. Sallie White, Mrs. Pearl White, Mrs. Julia Wyche Boulding, Mr. Frank Edwards and Mr. Ed. White.

Sunday night our services were very interesting. After an inspiring sermon the Circles of the church made their monthly reports which were very encouraging. The following reports were given:

Crusaders' Circle, Mrs. S. R. Harris, President, $41.00; Metropolitan Circle, Mrs. Z. A. McElwee, President, $26.70; Regal Circle, Mrs. Jackson, President, $22.00; Ionic Circle, Mrs. Ervin, President, $25.01; total, $118.81.

The circles were very happy over such fine reports. Each Circle was surprised by the other. These Circles were only recently organized by Rev. Prince. We are overjoyed because it is a splendid way to raise money for the church. It is hoped that each Circle will do its very best during the month of July.

The men of the church have worked two nights on the basement of the church recently, for this manifestation of devotion, love and loyalty to their church. The basement is now ready to be cemented.

The Daily Vacation Bible School of Brooklyn church will begin Monday morning, July 9, at 9:30 o'clock. The entire community is invited.

The Ionic Circle held its regular monthly meeting at the church, Tuesday evening.

The Tuxis Girls held their monthly meeting Friday evening.

Rev. Prince reports a very pleasant trip to the Ministers' Conference at Hampton Institute, Va.

The Blue Ribbon class of the Sabbath School held a meeting Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Robinson.

CHERRY ST. CHURCH, HIGH POINT

By Miss Elizabeth Moore

The service Sunday morning, June 10th, was enjoyed by all. We had Rev. A. E. Gregory, Professor of Theology at Talladega College, to preach to us. He spoke from Matthew 5:20.

Little Bessie Snipes celebrated her 8th birthday, Friday, June 8. Mr. and Mrs. Snipes entertained many little children who enjoyed themselves very much. About 45 children called during the afternoon.

Prof. M. L. Black has gone to Black Mountain to spend the summer. He will be greatly missed throughout the church.

Mrs. Sallie Fox has gone to Gastonia to spend some time.

Mrs. Julia Stevenson has gone to Spout Springs, Va., to be with her mother, who is very sick.

The Ladies' Missionary Society met with Mrs. D. N. and Miss Lucile Moore Friday night. At the close of the meeting the hostesses served sherbet, cake and after tea mints.

Miss Elizabeth Oates, Daisy Graye and Mr. Lincoln Graye motored to Charlotte Sunday.

Mrs. H. A. Davis, Misses Ethel Davis and Lucile Moore and Mr. and Mrs. A. Reed and children spent Sunday afternoon in Thomasville visiting Mesdames Flint and Dials.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Simpson, Mrs. Berdie Saunders, Mr. Andrew Stevenson and Misses Bertha Saunders and Corene Humphrey, spent Sunday, June 10, in Greensboro.

Our pastor, Rev. C. A. Washington, preached a very inspiring sermon Sunday morning from Psalm 119:59, "I thought on my ways, and turned my feet unto thy testimonies." A large audience attended.

The Westminster Guild Quartette sang Sunday night at the service.

Dr. and Mrs. Morgan and little daughter, Geraldine, motored to Washington, Philadelphia and New York on a recent tour.

Mrs. Snipes and little daughter, Bessie, left Saturday for Washington and Clarksburgh, W. Va., to visit Mrs. Snipes' brother, Mr. D. J. White.

Mrs. Berdie Saunders gave a party Tuesday night in honor of the A. & T. summer school teachers.

Mrs. Berdie Saunders, Mr. Wilson, Misses Clara Humphry, Ruth Gingles and Bertha Saunders motored to Ashboro Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Payne, Mrs. D. N. Moore, Misses Marie Graves and Elizabeth Moore motored to Winston-Salem Sunday afternoon to visit Miss Alma Tatum and Dr. and Mrs. Kennedy.

CORNELIUS NEWS.

By Miss Myrtle Phifer

Miss Carrie Mae Bratton was operated on for appendicitis at the Statesville Hospital, Saturday, June 3rd.

Miss Irma O. Bratton, who has been visiting her parents in Cornelius, will return to Asheville, July 1st.

A party will be given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Knox in honor of Miss Irma Bratton. Mr. Lee Torrence, of Davidson, is very ill at present.

MUTUAL ADMIRATION.

(From The Presbyterian)

A recent caller told us that the church in which he is an elder is the best church in the city. It is not as large or rich as some, but its people are the best people, the hardest workers, the most loyal, devout, evangelical and efficient people he ever knew. The choir is the best he ever heard. It is not paid, but it is as good as any high-priced quartet. As for the session, it is all right, and as for the preacher, "he is great," "strikes twelve every time," "sound," "eloquent," "up-to-date," "a hustler," "always doing the right thing at the right time."

Remembering that the brother was just as enthusiastic about a former pastor we asked how they compared, only to start a new flow of zealous commendation. "You could not compare them—the best two men I ever knew." We asked how the church and people contrasted with the church, a country church, to which he formerly belonged. They were different, as could be, but he did not know which was better.

A few days later the brother's pastor came in, and we asked as to his work, and particularly about the brother. "The Lord sent us a host," he said, "when he sent him. In fact, the pastor was as enthusiastic about the brother as the brother was about the pastor, and on visiting the church we found that their spirit pervaded the congregation. Of course the church is a success. The members tell people that it is. They advertise it all over its field in the most optimistic terms. The community understands that the preacher is worth hearing, that the prayer meeting is a spiritual treat, and that the young people's meeting and Sabbath school cannot be neglected without loss.

We like this brother's spirit. He is not an impulsive, boyish enthusiast, but a solid man past three score and ten years, busy with ordinary affairs, but never too busy to think of, pray for and talk up his church. He reminds us of Carey, of whom it was said, "His chief work was to lead men to Christ, but to support himself he cobbled shoes." We have known others like him. The pastor is right. One such man is a host. The church is fortunate that has such a man. The church is doubly fortunate which, with such a man, has a pastor who appreciates him, and whose people mutually appreciate and speak well of and co-operate with each other.

Rev. and Mrs. W. R. Mayberry, who for the past two years, have lived on Martin Street, near Johnson C. Smith University, are preparing to move into a recently purchased home in Washington Heights.

IN MEMORIAM.
