

CALDWELL CHURCH NOTES

By Miss Carrie I. Graham

On Sunday morning, Rev. R. L. Moore seemed to have been at his best. He brought to us an inspiring message from St. Luke 18:22, "Now when Jesus heard these things, he said unto him, Yet lackest thou one thing: sell all thou hast and distribute unto the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come and follow me."

Sunday night Rev. Moore preached another helpful sermon from Genesis 2:24, "There fore shall a man leave his father and his mother and shall cleave unto his wife: and they shall be one flesh." His theme was, "The Sacredness of Marriage." He spoke from these three standpoints: Legal, Biological, Social and Spiritual. The church was well-filled and the audience listened very attentively to this elevating sermon.

We were proud to have with us friends from Cornelius. Among them were Messrs. I. Withers, J. A. Dean, R. Nelson, E. Liffles, E. Burton and the Stinsons. We trust these friends and others will continue to worship with us.

Our choir and congregation were at Miranda church, Sunday, where they enjoyed the Children's Day exercise very much. We are expecting to be at Woodland church on the 5th Sunday in this month.

Mr. Irwin W. Henderson is spending the summer in Atlantic City, N. J.

Miss Corrie O. Gaston is our delegate to the Sunday school convention which convenes at Westminster church, Concord. Miss Geneva White is the alternate.

Miss Viola M. Graham, accompanied by Miss Vivian M. Amis, of South Boston, Va., spent the week-end with her parents and relatives at Huntersville.

Miss Lucille Alexander is spending the summer in Winston-Salem.

Mrs. Alabama Berry and her daughter Edna and some friends were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Alexander and family a few days ago.

Messrs. Paris and Fred McCorkle motored to Raleigh a few days ago. They report a very pleasant trip.

The club boys and girls will leave August 13th for A. & T. College at Greensboro.

JOTTINGS FROM WOODLAND

By Margie Z. Davidson

Mrs. McCleary passed away on the 14th of July. Mrs. McCleary was the wife of the late Mr. Alexander McCleary.

Her funeral took place at 3 o'clock, Sunday, July 15th. Rev. R. Z. Beatty officiated. He used as his text, "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord." Mrs. McCleary had been sick for some time. We loved her, but Christ loved her more.

Mr. H. C. Davison, of Newark, N. J., spent a few days at home recently. Mr. Davison was called home on account of the illness of his mother, Mrs. Lila J. Davison, who is a patient in the hospital in Gastonia. Mrs. Davison has improved a little.

Miss L. D. Davison also spent a few weeks at home. She left for Winston-Salem Teachers' College.

We are glad to have Miss Ossie M. Fowler, of New York, home again for her vacation; also Miss Susie McGee and Miss Wilma Powell. Misses Powell and McGee were students at Scotia College last term.

We were glad to have Miss Mary Lee Walker and Mr. Henry Houston and Mr. A. M. Houston of Charlotte, to worship with us a few Sundays ago; also Rev. and Mrs. Mayberry. Rev. Mayberry and Messrs. Houston made interesting talks which should be long remembered.

Mrs. Susan Dunn was the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Emma Hanks, a few Sundays ago. Mr. and Mrs. Hanks and Mrs. Dunn motored to Gastonia Hospital to see Mrs. Davison.

We regret the absence of Mrs. R. Z. Beatty and children. We hope they will be with us soon.

During the month of June 3 persons joined the church: Messrs. Rich McClary, George Lawing and Andrew Miller.

The Auxiliary meeting was held at Mrs. Lottie Haynes, July 23. The next meeting will be held at Mrs. Virgie Boyd's.

Sunday morning twenty-nine were present in the C. E. Society and the offering was $1.06.

One hundred and thirteen were in the Sunday school and the offering was $4.22.

At three o'clock Rev. R. L. Moore came to us with a soul-stirring sermon from Numbers 11: 5-6: "We remember the fish which we did eat in Egypt freely, the cucumbers and the melons, and the leeks, and the onions and the garlick." His subject was: "The Love of the World is a Dangerous Thing." The Worldly choir from Huntersville rendered excellent music.

The collection amounted to $20.52 which was turned over to Mrs. C. J. Sloan's club.

Special visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Potts from Huntersville; Mrs. Annie West from Tennessee, and Mr. Beatty from Huntersville.

Sunday evening the Christian Endeavor met at the usual hour. The young men rendered a program. Mr. Joseph Thompson was master of ceremonies. Mr. Calvin Sadler made the welcome address. A short talk was given by Mr. Wells, subject, "Now What?" The offering amounted to $3.52.

Rev. R. Z. Beatty and Mrs. Beatty and children and Mrs. West were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. McClary Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. C. J. Sloan was the committee on the young men's program. Mrs. Sloan and sister were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Powell.
