

HARBISON BOOTH TAKES FIRST PLACE AT SOUTH CAROLINA STATE FAIR

It will be interesting to our readers to learn of the fine record Harbison's Booth made at the State Fair. Almost every thing took first premium, so much so until the booth as a whole received the first place of recognition. This booth contained our farm products, grain, livestock and many other things, such as class room work, along with a typical boys' room, all of which made a most excellent showing. Prof. J. M. Jones is due much credit for the splendid work accomplished during the summer months. President Porter was on the job and spared no pains in making everything attractive. Dr. I. P. Pogue, of Sumter, S. C., addressed the faculty and student body on the morning of October 29th. This address will long be remembered by all who heard him. Dr. and Mrs. G. W. Long and Prof. Henry Marshall, of Cherokee, were on the campus a few days ago on their way to Cordele, Ga., to attend the Synod. They were joined by Mrs. D. T. Murray, who also attended the Synod.

The play given by the 3rd year High School class last Monday night in the Institute Chapel, under the direction of Prof. Roy Cunningham, reflected much credit upon the class. This play is entitled "Peggy's Love." Rev. D. Talmage Murray preached for Rev. Porter the first Sabbath in November. His choir from Little Mountain church furnished the music. REPORTER.

CHERRY STREET CHURCH, HIGH POINT, N. C.

By Mrs. Carrie B. Harris
Sunday, November 16th, Rev. C. H. White, brought to us a very helpful message, based on St. Luke 15:18, "I will arise and go to my Father, and will say unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven and before thee." Rev. P. N. Boykin, from Carthage, N. C., is conducting a revival at our church this week. We are praying for the meeting to be a success. Mrs. Mattie Phifer Torrence, one of our loyal members, died on last Thursday morning at 3 o'clock. The funeral was held Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, conducted by her pastor, Rev. C. H. White, assisted by Rev. W. M. Mason, of the city.

In the passing of Mrs. Torrence the church has lost a faithful member. She was always willing to do what she could for her church. She was a deaconess of the church, taught in the Sunday school and was a loyal member of the Women's Missionary Society. She leaves eight children: Messrs. Oscar and Christopher Phifer, of Portsmouth, Ohio; Mr. Jesse Phifer, of Cincinnati, Ohio; Mrs. Lucy Smoot, of Greensboro, and Mr. Jack Phifer, Miss Alice Phifer, Mrs. Lillie Williamson and Mrs. Ida Staton, of High Point; two sisters, Miss Lillie Phifer, of Concord, and Mrs. Bessie Perry, of Presto, Pa.; one brother, Mr. Silas Phifer, of Fort Mill, S. C., and 15 grandchildren and a host of relatives and friends to mourn their loss. The pallbearers were Messrs. H. R. Keno, M. G. Ingram, A. J. Snipe, H. D. Hood, D. N. Moore, Sr., and Mr. McCain. Out-of-town persons who attended the funeral were: Mr. G. L. White, Mr. Robert White and Mrs. Alice White, of Salisbury, and Mr. Willie Blount, of Greensboro. Mrs. Harriet Graham is on the sick list at this writing. Rev. C. H. White spent a few days in Charlotte last week. He reports having had a very pleasant trip.

Life is a measure to be filled—not a cup to be drained.—Arthur D. Hadley.

HUNTERSVILLE CHURCH NOTES

By Mrs. M. J. Phifer
Sunday, November 9th, our pastor, Rev. R. L. Moore, preached an excellent sermon. His text was Hebrews 11:10, "For he looked for a city which hath foundations, whose builder and maker is God." The sermon was beautiful and pointed, and the impression of it went into the hearts of those who listened. This was rally day for the minister's salary. At the close of the sermon Deacon Allison called for the collection. The four captains came and made their reports as follows: Club No. 1, Miss Mary Stinson, assisted by Mrs. Katie Allison, $28.40. Club No. 2, Mrs. Viola Alexander, assisted by Mrs. M. J. Phifer, $25.60. Club No. 3, Mrs. Lillie Pharr, $14.75. Club No. 4, Mrs. Alice Allison, assisted by Mrs. Maggie Johnson, $7.45. The collection was taken by Deacon Allison and Elder Torrence. The total for the day was $87.20. Sunday afternoon at 2:30 Rev. Moore and part of the congregation worshipped with Rev. J. W. Crawford and congregation of the A. M. E. Zion church. Rev. Moore preached for one of the member's clubs. Mrs. Minnie Potts, who has been on the sick list for some time, is much better, I am glad to say, and is able to be out at church and Sunday school. Rev. N. Bell, who has been ill for several months, is improving very slowly. We are proud of the interest manifested in our Sunday school. Sunday afternoon members of the Christian Endeavor Society held their regular meeting in the church. The Woman's Missionary Society is planning to have its sewing circle to meet at the home of Mrs. Katie Allison Thanksgiving Day. Death has visited two of our members since you have heard from us. Mr. James Allison, the son of Mr. P. A. Allison, died Monday, October 27, at the Huntersville Sanatorium. The funeral was conducted by his pastor, Rev. R. L. Moore, and the interment was in Huntersville church cemetery. Mrs. Pauline Barringer died at her home Sunday, November 9th. The funeral was conducted by her pastor, Rev. Moore. Interment was in the Huntersville church cemetery.

WOODLAND CHURCH NOTES
By Miss Lillian A. McClary
Sunday morning, November 9, our pastor, Rev. R. Z. Beatty, brought to us an inspiring message. His subject was "My Duty," based upon Ephesians 6:11, "Put on the whole armor of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil." He spoke of the duty of children to parents, the duty of parents to children, and the duty of all to God. One hundred and five were present in our Sabbath school. The offering amounted to $3.83. There were fifty in the Christian Endeavor Society with an offering of $1. Sunday the young people assembled at 6:30 o'clock for song service. Sunday evening Rev. R. Z. Beatty spoke to us from I Corinthians. His subject was "Another Building." The collection for the day was $9.28. The Girls' Circle gave an entertainment recently and realized $5. Mr. W. C. McClary, of Winston-Salem, visited his brother, Mr. J. A. McClary a few days ago. We are planning to have a grand time the 4th Sunday night. Every one is cordially invited.

Give us what Thou seest fit, only fit us for what Thou givest.—Rowland Williams.

BRainerd INSTITUTE MT. PISGAH PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH, ROCKY MOUNT, N. C.

By Miss Frances G. Adams
The enrollment at Brainerd continues to grow, the two latest additions coming from Cincinnati, Ohio. At the Chester County Fair, which was in progress November 11-15, Brainerd Institute exhibits, which represented the work of the Domestic Art, Manual Training and Literary Departments, won distinction and were labeled by the Judges of the Fair Exhibits, "First Prize." Sunday, November 16th, the regular Sabbath worship services were carried out. At 11 A. M., owing to the very inclement weather, services were held on the school campus, instead of the city church. An address suitable for the day and the occasion was given by our President, Dr. J. D. Martin. At 5 P. M., Christian Endeavor hour, the entire school listened to two most interesting reports by Misses Veola Gibson and Robbie Davis, who represented Brainerd Institute at the Atlantic Synodical and School of Methods at Haines Institute, Augusta, Ga., and at the Catawba Synodical School of Methods at Albion Academy, Franklinton, N. C., respectively. Mr. J. T. Jones, our Sabbath School Missionary, being present, he commended Brainerd Institute as a whole for having been so well represented at these two conventions. He asked that we do all in our power to send a larger delegation next year, as these two young ladies were so greatly benefited. The Y. W. C. A. girls are enjoying occasional hikes this year. Only a few days ago they went on a four mile Saturday afternoon hike, chaperoned by Mrs. L. J. Brown. They reported a lovely time spent in roasting weiners, gathering nuts and the like. Although returning late in the afternoon, tired and worn, they are ready for the next hike at any time. Miss Dollie Jackson, who has been sick for several weeks, has returned to her home in Mayesville, S. C. She will return to school as soon as her physical condition will warrant it. The Brainerd foot ball team defeated the Gastonia High School team, Friday, November 14th, at Gastonia, N. C., the score being 19-0. The return game will be played in Chester. Preparations are being made daily for Thanksgiving. We are looking forward to a very pleasant day, full of fun and laughter. Both athletic committees are hoping to carry out a lively program for the boys and girls.

FROM WHITEVILLE
On Sunday morning we listened to a thoughtful sermon by the pastor, Rev. J. B. Francis from Acts 22:22. Sunday night Rev. Francis brought to us a soul-stirring sermon from Matthew 6:9. In it he told how we should pray to our heavenly Father. We wish the whole universe could have heard the sermon of Rev. Francis. This text can not be treated any better than it was Sunday. This helpful message will long be remembered by the large audience. Rev. Francis is a worthwhile and highly esteemed minister. We can not say too much about him. MRS. MAGGIE McLEAN.

MR. J. W. BROWN, OF BETHPAGE, PASSES AWAY

By Miss Mary Bethel Cowan
Saturday night, November 1, the death angel entered our community and took one of our beloved citizens, Mr. John W. Brown. He was 58 years of age. Mr. Brown had been in declining health for the past six months. He had been a member of Bethpage church for the past thirty-five years and had served as deacon for a number of years. He was loved by every one and will be greatly missed because he was one who was always at his post of duty, and always ready to help any one in need. He was active in every good work until too feeble to go about. He then bore the cause of Christ on his prayerful heart. He leaves to mourn their loss a wife, eight children, ten grandchildren, one brother, two sisters, and a host of friends. The funeral was held in Bethpage church Monday afternoon at two o'clock, conducted by the pastor, Dr. L. J. Melton, assisted by Revs. J. G. Murray, S. A. Paris and A. F. Norris, of Mooresville; Rev. Thompson, of Concord, and Rev. Carson, of Kannapolis. The body was laid to rest in the church cemetery. "The lights are out in the mansion of clay, The curtains are drawn for the traveler's pass; He silently passed through the gateway of night, To make his abode in the city of light."

BETHESDA CHURCH NOTES
By Mrs. Croola Howell

The second Sunday in November was a high day at Bethesda church. Our pastor, Rev. J. A. Ramsay, was at his best. He took for his text Exodus 3:4, "And when the Lord saw that he turned aside to see, God called unto him out of the midst of the bush, and said, Moses, Moses. And he said, Here am I." At two o'clock the Christian Endeavor rendered a short program. We are still few in number but we are not sleeping on the job. By the help of God we are moving on. The collection was $20.08. The rally is left open until the fifth Sunday in November. We were very much pleased to have worship with us Mrs. Gussie Wallace and daughters, Misses Annie and Lizzie Wallace, from the Rockwell A. M. E. Zion church. Mr. Fred Douglass and Miss Edna Barringer were quietly married Saturday afternoon and are making their home with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Douglass at their home on the Statesville Road. Mr. and Mrs. John J. Young visited their daughter, Mrs. Macy Weddington, 1005 Oakland Avenue, who is very sick. Her many friends wish her an early recovery.

VISITS BROTHER AT HUNTERSVILLE

The hearts of the Alexanders were made to rejoice Sunday afternoon over the arrival of their aunt, Mrs. Mollie Alexander, of Greenwood, S. C., who came to see her brother, Mr. Samuel Alexander, of Huntersville, N. C., who has been sick for some time. A FRIEND.
