

SEVENTH STREET CHURCH NOTES

By Marie S. Lindsay

Our pastor, Dr. R. P. Wyche, occupied the pulpit Sunday. Following is a part of his discourse:

The strong oppress the weak. In India people do not look up. They believe in looking down.

God has commanded all to live here in peace, one with the other, to love one another. God made all men of one blood. If they do not recognize this fact in one way they will in another. What one suffers all must suffer. Let us get together as one brotherhood and love one another. It lifts men up.

We are all of one family, of one blood and we should give help where it is needed.

General officers' meeting was held Monday night at 8:00 o'clock.

Misses Eula and Shirlee Watkins were visitors in Mrs. Shirley's Sunday school class. They are spending some time in the city as guests of Mrs. Shirley.

Little Miss Catherine Elizabeth Richardson united with the church Sunday morning. She is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Richardson.

Misses Catherine Yongue and Dorothy Peoples were elected delegates to the School of Methods.

Misses Isabelle and Lucile Henderson and Mr. R. P. Wyche sang with much pathos—"Bring Sunshine."

Miss Nora McSwain and Mr. Edward Brown representing Seventh St. church and who debated the negative side of the question, won in the debate with the young people of Brooklyn Presbyterian church.

Mrs. E. B. White attended the meeting of the Court of Calanthe which was held in Winston-Salem last week. She was re-elected to her same office, Grand Inspector. She reports a pleasant trip.

Miss Juanita Austin, of Asheville, is making our church her home church during her stay in the city. She is residing at 315 S. Caldwell St.

Dr. S. A. Downer, of Knoxville, Tenn., motored to our city last week. On his return home he was accompanied by Mrs. Downer who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. C. R. Means, for three weeks, and his nieces, Misses Ethel Means and Lucille Barron.

The Fiftieth Anniversary of Rev. R. P. Wyche, D. D., as pastor of Seventh St. church will be observed September 21-28.

BROOKLYN CHURCH NOTES

By Mrs. D. W. McGill

The message on last Sunday morning was taken from Isaiah 35:8, "And a highway shall be there, and a way, and it shall be called The way of holiness; the unclean shall not pass over it; but it shall be for those: the wayfaring men, though fools, shall not err therein." The theme was "A Highway of Holiness for the World." The message was a very helpful one and it applied to every one.

The following visitors were present in our services Sunday morning: Miss Annie McKee, Miss Jessie Kincaid and Mrs. C. R. Robinson, all of the city. The Sunday school has elected Mr. Wm. S. Anderson as Superintendent; Mr. C. B. Rhyne, Assistant; Miss Iola Wallace, Secretary, and Mr. Charles Maxwell, Jr., Assistant Secretary.

At the services Sunday evening a large audience was present to witness the program sponsored by the young people of Seventh St. church and the young people of our church. The interesting feature of the service was a debate on the subject: Resolved, That the Intelligent Negro Youths of the City of Charlotte Are Hindering the Progress of the Local Churches." Affirmative, Miss Elva Mae Jacobs and Miss Helen Brodie, Brooklyn church; negative, Miss Nora McSwain and Mr. Edward Brown, Seventh Street church. Both sides presented good arguments. The negative won.

Mrs. Annie P. Brodie left the city Monday for Chester, Penn., for a visit to her son, Dr. F. L. Brodie, Jr. Before returning she will visit New York City and other points of interest in the North.

The third Sunday in this month has been set aside as gift day in the church.

Miss Myrtle Brodie is teaching for a month at Cherryville, Lincoln County.

BRANDON CHURCH NOTES

On Sunday morning, August 2, our pastor, Rev. O. E. Sanders, preached an inspiring sermon. Every one present enjoyed it. The children's message was also inspiring.

We were pleased to have Misses Minnie Bloomfield and Willie Fleming to unite with the church last Sunday. We all welcome these young folk into our church.

Our Daily Vacation Bible School closed on Friday, July 24, after two successful weeks. The enrollment at the end of the second week was 285.

Miss Willie Neal is our delegate to the Sunday School Convention.

A community fair was held on the church lawn a few weeks ago. It was quite a success.

The young people of the church presented a beautiful Japanese wedding on last Monday night for the benefit of the Young People's Forum.

Miss Mildred Jenkins left the city Monday afternoon, August 3, for Richmond, Va., where she will spend her vacation.

Rev. and Mrs. O. E. Sanders spent a few days last week at Mrs. Sanders' former home, Carthage, N. C.

Those who attended the Young People's League meeting, held at Matthews chapel, from our church were Rev. and Mrs. O. E. Sanders, Misses Willie Neal, Willie Fleming, Dorothy Peoples and Carey and Lillian Jenkins.

Gone But Not Forgotten Mr. Joseph Moore, one of our oldest members, was buried a few weeks ago. He was loved by all and we regretted to lose him, but we know that our loss is heaven's gain. He is survived by his widow and several children and a host of grandchildren and friends. He is gone but not forgotten.

Miss Ernestine W. Phillips is spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Davis, of St. Marks St. Miss Phillips is the delegate from the Dula-town Presbyterian church to the Sunday School Convention which meets at Bellefonte church this week.

MANCHESTER NEWS

Sunday, June 28, our pastor, Rev. H. S. Davis, preached a Father's Day sermon, taking as his text "Honor thy father and thy mother." (Exodus 20:12.) It was enjoyed by all.

Following our morning service lunch was served by Mrs. Brinkley. After lunch we assembled to witness the Children's Day program. This program was one of the best of its kind. It was composed of songs, recitations and dialogues. Some of our stars on the program were Little Miss Gladys, who recited "If You Please," and "Because a Little Girl Am I;" Little Miss Adele Hodges, who gave the greeting and Willie Williams Floyd, who recited "Especially Children's Day."

After the program the offering was taken which amounted to $8.98. Misses Josephine Pierce and Annie M. McArthur received the prizes for having the most money in their boxes.

All present expressed themselves as being pleased with the program. The program was sponsored by Miss Lucille F. Williams, assisted by Miss L. E. Brinkley. We wish to thank each parent for his or her child.

We were pleased to see the following visitors: Mrs. H. S. Davis and Miss Alma Davis, of Fayetteville.

Monday, July 6, marked the opening of our Daily Vacation Bible School. This is the third year of the school at Allen's Chapel. We were able to secure for the school very competent teachers: namely, Principal, Miss L. E. Brinkley, who is a graduate of Redstone Academy, Lumberton, and a teacher of Harnett County.

Beginners—Miss Lucille T. Williams, who is a graduate of Fayetteville State Normal School and a teacher in Cumberland County.

Primary—Miss Lillie L. Merriweather, who is a graduate of Clark University, Atlanta, Ga.

Juniors—Mrs. Moses, who attended Clark University, Atlanta, Ga.

Intermediates—Miss L. E. Brinkley.

Seniors—Mr. T. G. Moses, who is a graduate of Morehouse College, Atlanta, Ga.

We were pleased to greet our Sunday School Missionary, Mr. George R. Marsh, and some of his family Monday. He was introduced by Mr. W. J. McLean, after which we were addressed by Mr. Marsh. He touched upon some vital things pertaining to a successful Daily Vacation Bible School. We were also favored with some remarks by Mrs. Marsh, complimenting us upon such a group of interesting children and assuring us of success. We opened with an enrollment of forty-six.

Tuesday, July 7, our school was conducted by Mr. and Mrs. Marsh.

Friday Mr. W. J. McLean favored us with a talk on Habit, which was delightful. Mr. McLean was once one of our missionaries.

In spite of the rainy weather which we had all of the week our enrollment was 53 Friday. Monday we were delighted to greet our children again with many new faces.

Tuesday we were again pleased to greet our pastor, Rev. H. S. Davis, who had just returned from a trip to Tennessee. We are always glad to have him with us because he brings helpful messages.

Friday, July 17, our school closed with an enrollment of 75 children. They gave a program. The speaker of the hour was Mr. Turner, a teacher in the High School of Fayetteville, who made a very interesting speech. He was introduced by Rev. Davis. Mr. J. C. McGill was with us also.

After the program we were served by the refreshment committee. Mrs. M. Hodges, Mrs. M. McLean and Mrs. B. Brinkley. The table was laden with well prepared and delicious food and everybody was bountifully served.

Mrs. Maggie Williams, Master Willie Williams Floyd, and Master Samuel Floyd were visitors in the city of Fayetteville Friday, July 17.

We are sure many will be pleased to learn that Mrs. Merriweather can use her arm some now. She got it broken in a car wreck.

Mrs. Moses, Miss Lillie Merriweather and Miss Lucille F. Williams spent Thursday morning, July 9, in the city of Fayetteville, shopping.

The delegates from Allen's Chapel Sunday school and Christian Endeavor are Miss Josephine Pierce and Miss Lucille F. Williams. The Convention will meet in Maxton, N. C.

THE WESTERN DISTRICT SUNDAY SCHOOL INSTITUTE

The Sunday schools of the Western District, Presbytery of Southern Virginia, held an all-day Institute, Sunday, July 19, at Holmes Memorial Presbyterian church, Chestnut Knob, Va.

The Institute opened at 10 A. M., with a Model Sunday school, conducted by our Sun-school missionary, Prof. S. L. Young, and Miss Mamie Taylor. The subject of the Sunday school lesson was "Social Service in the Early Church." Some very interesting points were brought out in the lesson.

At 11:45 the annual sermon was preached by Rev. Russell Taylor, pastor of Holmes Memorial. Rev. Taylor preached from the text, Number 13:30, "And Caleb stilled the people before Moses, and said, Let us go up at once, and possess it; for we are well able to overcome it."

Rev. Taylor's subject was "The Unlimited Possibilities of Faith." It was a very touching sermon. Rev. Taylor explained very clearly and fully how limitless faith renders all things. Among other things he said that "Faith is the basis for all things, the foundation of all knowledge and the pure relation between man and God."

After the offering was taken the benediction was pronounced and the meeting adjourned for dinner and socializing.

The afternoon session was given over to the young people. The meeting opened at 2:30 with a praise service led by members of Trinity Sunday school, Ridgeway, Va.

There were a number of inspiring papers read, dealing with the needs of the Sunday school and many helpful suggestions were offered.

The special music by members of the different Sunday schools was an interesting feature of the program.

The closing hymn was sung, and after the benediction the Institute adjourned.

JESSIE A. FOWLKES.

"The supply of strength will never fail while Christ lives."
