THE YOUNG PEOPLE'S LEAGUE

The first quarterly meeting of the Young People's League

The first period of the meeting was given for registration. The second period, the League assembled on the outside of the At the funeral the pastor, Rev. church for the refreshment of outdoor recreation. Upon reas-sembling in the church a short the Board of National Missions, inspirational worship service and a former pastor of the was conducted by the young church, delivered the main eupeople of Ladson church.

At 12:15 o'clock the business meeting opened with the Presi-dent, Miss Louise James, presid meeting were read and adopted. Mr. J. T. Jones, the Sabbath school missionary, and other adult advisers of the League ing. suggested that the young people of the League take over some definite project for service this Baptist church, Rev. A. P. Coryear. The young people were key, past or of the Brandon willing and donated $6.00 to the Daily Vacation Bible School pastor offered prayer and read Fund A number of the members the obituary. also promised to conduct Easter sunrise services.

Following the business meeting the discussional period began The central topic was: "Chris tian Youth Building a New Church." The sub-topics of the leaders were as follows:

(1) Building Through Wor--Mr. F. K. Butler. ship, Building Through Ser-(2) -Mrs. A. A. Adair Building Through Teach vice, (3) ing,

Mrs. Margaret Pickett. The various opinions expressed by the young people created a lively discussion

At 2:00 o'clock the League was invited to dinner in the basement of the church where a great treat awaited the members. The room was artistically decorated in green, white and black, the color scheme in accord with St. Patrick's Day. The table articles and the appare! of those who served the guest were of the same colors. Delightful courses were served.

During dinner the Leagu was heartily welcomed by a re presentative of the Young Peo-ple's Society of Ladson church The ladies of the Missionary So-ciety, of Ladson church, who had stood behind the young people and the pastor, Rev Powe, in providing clever entertainment for the League, were introduced.

After dinner the discussiona! period was renewed. A report of the findings of this hour was given by Rev. J. R. Dungee Some of the points were as fol lows: (1) The Negro church has a worship program. (2) That worship program can be im proved. (3) Parents should en courage the attendance of worship service by example. (4) The minister's sermon theme should te pre-announced in order to give the hearers time to medi tate upon it.

ATLANTIC PRESBYTERY

The Presbytery of Atlantic met in the Wallingford Presbyterian church, Charleston, S. C. April 9, 1936, at 8 P. M., with an introductory address by the cetiring Moderator, Elder J. W. Harper, theme, "The Abundant Life of the Church," in which ne pictured vividly the teach-ngs of the Scriptures in support of it. Elder Harper is clear, forceful, interesting and moving n h.s teachings, making an impression on his hearers that is leep and lasting. The Rev. M. A. Sanders was the succeeding Moderator, and having a fair attendance of the delegates present the annual church reports were presented and showed progress, although heavily overshadowed by clouds nual District Conference held of the depression, and while here today. much of the faithful and commendable work of the Sabbath school missionaries was without the bounds of our Presbytery. However, one great need con fronts us, this being the lack of trained Bible teachers in conducting the local Sabbath schools. The attendance is fair and in some churches good but the needed laborers are few. Rev. M. A. Sanders, of James Island, and Elder J. W. Harper, of Orangeburg, S. C., were elected ministerial and lay commissioner, respectively, to the next General Assembly. Rev. and Mrs. S
