

BROOKLYN CHURCH NOTES

By Mrs. D. W. McGill

Sunday morning Rev. Prince preached a very fitting sermon from the text, I Sam. 10:26. The theme was: "Possibilities of a Band With God-Touched Hearts." Visitors present at the morning service were Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Spencer, of the city, and Miss Wilson, of Charleston, S. C.

Miss Ruby Rhyme, who attended the Young People's meeting held at Lakeside, Ohio, recently, gave a very interesting report at the Young People's Forum Sunday evening. The report was enjoyed. Miss Rhyme reported a very pleasant trip.

At the regular evening service at 8 o'clock the Junior and Senior choirs of the church rendered a sacred musical festival. Quite a large number was present at this service.

Mrs. Lavinia Dye is very sick at her home on Morrow St.

Our sympathy goes out to Mrs. Mattie Wallace in the death of her brother, whose funeral service was held at St. Paul Presbyterian church.

Miss Hannah Stewart was recently received into the church on confession of faith.

Monday evening the Brotherhood of the church held its regular meeting at the church.

Thursday evening the Fellowship meeting for every member of the church will be held. We are expecting a fine meeting. Refreshments will be served with an interesting program.

Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock the Westminster Chapter held its meeting at the home of Mrs. Carrie Robertson, East Boundary Street.

BRANDON CHURCH NOTES

By M. L. Andrews

We were very well fed spiritually as we listened to Dr. A. P. Corley as he preached briefly from the theme, "Finding and Bringing." His text was John 1:41-42. It was clearly told how the disciples sought John, thinking he was a great man, and how John said "there is one coming after me who is greater than I." The disciples looked out and saw this man coming, John said: "Behold the Lamb of God that taketh away the sins of the world." This claimed the attention of the disciples and one said: "Where dwellest thou?" The answer by Jesus was: "Come and see." So a good way in our life to find out about Jesus is to come and see for yourself. As Andrew found Jesus, he went and brought his brother; not only Andrew did this, but others.

In conclusion we had several instances of finding and bringing to Christ. The point of greatness was also emphasized in that we find greatness in finding Christ. The discovery of America has meant much, also the discovery of steam and electricity, but the discovery of just one living soul for the Christ is worth more than all the material discovery the world has ever known.

When we find Christ, this world becomes a new world; we become as Paul said, "new creatures in Christ." Dr. Corley also said the first duty is to find Christ for yourself, then bring Christ in the home to others. He said it is surprising to know how seldom Christ is discussed in the home as the Saviour of the souls of men.

A large audience heard the sermon and one person joined the church.

We were very happy to have the following visitors present Sunday: Mr. and Mrs. Taft Wallace, Mr. Mack Wyche, of Davidson, N. C., and Mr. James Wilson.

The "Life of Christ," presented by Prof. N. C. Crosby, was largely attended. We are expecting a return on Thursday, July 23. Do not miss this great picture.

The Young People's Forum will meet with Mrs. Grace Robinson, 1400 N. McCall Street, Tuesday night, July 21, at 8 o'clock.

Remember, we welcome all visitors.

Dr. C. H. Shute is being kept at home because of a misstep which resulted in a sprained ankle.

NEWS FLASHES FROM CALVARY PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH, WILSON, N. C.

By Mrs. Boisey A. Barnes

June 21 was observed as Father's Day. Our pastor, Rev. O. E. Sanders, preached an excellent sermon on "The Model Father." The text was Exodus 20:12. The following points were stressed:

1. The model father dedicates his children to God.
2. He takes his children to church and does not send them.
3. He provides a place of shelter for his children.
4. The model father supports his wife and children.
5. He counsels his children, and wants them to be most successful.
6. He protects his family, and is not a coward.
7. Is a pal for the boys and a chum for the girls.
8. Is industrious, not lazy or slothful.
9. He lives a sober, Christian life.
10. Those children who are fortunate enough to possess model fathers should, in turn, be grateful and appreciative.

Sunday, July 5, a very inspiring sermon, based upon Luke 22:42, was preached. The theme was: "Not My Will, But Thine Be Done." Holy Sacrament was served to the members and friends attending.

The last missionary meeting was held with Mrs. Cowan. The next will be held with Mrs. Cannon.

The Workers' Conference met July 6. Plans are being formulated for the Sunday evening outdoor vespers to be held during the month of August. Rev. Sanders and the committee plan to have several outstanding speakers from the State.

Miss Hattie Mae Cornwell is recuperating from an operation undergone during her visit in this city with her sister, Mrs. Ethel Hines.

Mrs. Willie Smith is much improved from a very serious illness.

On next Sunday our church will have a special Junior service.

Dr. and Mrs. Boisey A. Barnes will leave this week for a two weeks' vacation in Chicago to visit the writer's parents. They look forward with great pleasure to this trip as they will also see their young daughter, Helen Adele, who has been visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Howard, the last three months.

The Daily Vacation Bible School which has met with great success this summer, closed last Monday, June 29th. The exercises had been postponed a week later, due to the inclement weather. The school was well attended throughout its term and the well organized program was carried through with much success.

Mr. R. L. Jeans, our new Sunday School Missionary, visited Wilson for a few days beginning June 19. He was the guest of our pastor, Rev. O. E. Sanders. He preached for us on Sunday evening, June 21. Rev. Mr. Jeans made a fine impression at Calvary and in Wilson.

A CORRECTION

Miss Jayne Wallace is in the University of Michigan for the purpose of studying Elementary Administration, instead of Primary Methods as was stated in this paper some weeks ago.

It might be added that Miss Wallace has served for a number of years as a successful teacher in the public school of Charlotte. During the last few years, however, she has been principal of one of the Elementary schools of the city.

As an alumnus of Johnson C. Smith University, Miss Wallace has manifested untold interest in raising money for the erection of a girls' dormitory. As president of the local Alumni Association, she set the raising of five hundred dollars as her first goal. This amount is to serve as an initial step on the part of the Association in helping to raise the $130,000 needed in the erection of the building.

Mrs. Willie K. Sanders, of New York City, is in Charlotte, visiting her mother-in-law, Mrs. D. J. Sanders.

WOODLAND CHURCH NOTES, SOUTHERN VIRGINIA SCHOOL OF METHODS

By Mrs. Connie Graham

Sunday morning, July 12, our Sunday school and Christian Endeavor Society met at the usual hour with 104 in attendance. The offering was $4.48. We are now getting ready for the Sunday School Conference and our picnic. Plans have not been fully completed for our picnic.

We have just finished with the winding up of the first quarter of the Church year. Twelve children and two adults were baptized during this quarter and four persons were dismissed from this field. Mr. John Davidson and two of his daughters, Misses Lessie and Mildred, were transferred to Love's Chapel at Belmont, and Miss Faye Hayes to Brooklyn church in Charlotte.

We are working hard to get our church painted. We have on hand $21.35 for our paint. It seems that all are doing their very best. I am glad that the time has come when every Christian seems to realize his duty, that he must work while it is day, and "give every flying minute, something to keep in store."

Up to yesterday our contributions amounted to $98. Rev. Beatty and his good family are working hard, too.

Rev. Beatty preached a wonderful sermon Sunday morning. His text was Luke 23:33-39. The subject was: "By the Way of the Cross." He pictured to us plainly the way of the cross. It is up to us to take our choice as to the way we desire to go. That is the one thing we have to do for ourselves—shoulder our own cross. By faith and humble prayer Christ will remember us as he did the thief and robber when they cried out, "Lord, remember me."

Among the visitors (Sunday) were Mr. and Mrs. Lassiter, of Charlotte; Mrs. Susan Walker, formerly of this church, but now of Farmville, Va., and Mrs. Fannie Wright, also formerly of this church, but now of Birmingham Ala. We were much delighted to have these good people with us.

Mrs. C. J. Sloan and Mrs. Myrtle Beatty are sick. Let us pray for them.

Nothing can be wholly reasonable which is not also equitable.

THE FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH, RICHMOND, VA.

By Miss Annie Mae Jeter

On Sunday morning, June 28, our pastor, Rev. Samuel G. Stevens, spoke on the subject, "To Whom Shall We Go?" After the morning services a few of our members, the choir and Rev. Stevens went to the Albright Presbyterian church, Amelia County, Va., to conduct a service. It was through Mr. Harris, a very faithful member of our church, who made plans and arrangements, that we were able to make this trip successfully. Those of us who went enjoyed the trip and had a fine time. We are very glad we had the opportunity of serving in Albright church, and thank the members very much for this opportunity.

On Sunday morning, July 5th, our pastor spoke on the subject, "The Lesson of the Cross." After the services the following persons arose immediately and came forward, and were received into the church: Mrs. Wright by re-affirmation; Miss Sarah Wright on confession; Miss Mildred Green on confession. We are glad to welcome them into our church.

At present the Daily Vacation Bible School is in progress. It is under the direction of Rev. Stevens. Miss Lillian Mann is in charge of the music, and Miss Aretha Parrish and Mrs. Stevens have classes.

VOTE WITH PARTY IN POWER IN SOUTH

Baltimore, July—(ANP)—"It is rapidly dawning on the Negroes in the Southland that they are not disfranchised because they are black but because it is considered politically expedient so to do by the dominant party in power. Democrats control most of the extremely Southern States and they know that hitherto all Negroes have voted the Republican ticket solidly," declared Editor Rosecoe Dunjee Wednesday in an address on the "White Primary" before the 27th annual session of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, convening at Sharp Street M. E. church.

"Down in Oklahoma we have proven that this is true," declared Dunjee, "because in our State Democrats beg Negroes to vote. We have learned down in Oklahoma that voting is a cold-blooded proposition, which one must approach with strategy and technique," continued the militant editor.

"Our basic technique is to play ball with the party in power," said the Oklahoman. "We dismiss the idea of individualism and after mapping out a program in racial rights we sell to the highest bidder for those things and not for personal gain."

"The Negro in the Southland will never securely gain his ballot privileges unless he learns to make friends with the white men and women who control the South. The Constitution of the United States, through its States' Rights provisions, gives the States absolute control over life, liberty and property, and if the Negro ever hopes to drive bargains with government on these fundamental problems, he must drive that bargain with State authority and not in the federal structure."

Sharp attack was made on Editor Dunjee's views by Attorney Thomas Giles Nutter, of West Virginia, and delegates from Kansas, but the Oklahoman was able to stand his ground and with quick repartee convinced the large audience that his blanket of facts was sufficient.

BELLEFONTE CHURCH NEWS

On July 6th the Women's Missionary Society gave a program that was enjoyed by all who attended. The money that was raised is being used to finance the monthly expense for the drugget on the floor of the church. The Missionary Society has had success in giving its programs for quite a while.

The members of Bellefonte Sunday school have raised money to re-lay the foundation of the church.

The members of Bellefonte have paid their pastor's salary, and cleared their budget for the year of 1936.

Bellefonte church is gradually prospering in spite of the fact that she has lost some of her best members, Elder H. W. Hinson and Mr. Buddy Johnson. Elder Hinson was one of the oldest elders in Catawba Presbytery. He was 83 years old at his death.

The Y. P. S. C. E. of Bellefonte church regrets the loss of one of her members, Mr. Oliver Spears. Mr. Spears was a high school student, and was building for a fine career, not knowing that death was so near.

The Missionary Society of Bellefonte church will give a program on the fourth Sunday night of July. Everybody is cordially invited to attend.

DORA REID.

STATESVILLE C. E. SOCIETY GIVES SOCIAL

The Young People's Christian Endeavor Society of Tradd St. Presbyterian church gave a social at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Abernathy, June 30. Games were played and refreshments were served. Bingo was leading game of the afternoon, and it was very interesting. The game was directed by Mrs. Fannie McKnight. Prizes awarded by Mrs. M. L. Young, of Washington, D. C., were: 1st Prize, Mr. Richard Maxwell; 2nd Prize, Miss Mary Lois McClelland, Statesville; 3rd Prize, Mr. P. W. Falls, of Mooresville.

The social was largely attended. The guests for the afternoon were: Misses Winifred Stockton, Eunice Smoot, Hattie Fraley, Mary Elizabeth Turner, Mary Lois McClelland, Mr. Alonzo Stockton, Mr. Richard Maxwell, of Statesville, and Mr. T. R. Goodjoin, a student of Johnson C. Smith University, Charlotte. The hostess for the afternoon was Miss Christine Young.

5,000 PARADE TO PROTEST ITALIAN RECOGNITION BY LEAGUE

New York, July—(ANP)—One of the most effective parades ever staged in Harlem was that on Monday evening when over 5,000 persons marched in silent protest against the League of Nations recognition of Mussolini's conquest of Ethiopia. Silently, a long line of colored patriots, waving flags as they went, trod along Harlem's highways in a procession stretching as far as the eyes could reach.

Later in the evening a protest meeting gathered a large sum of money to send to the League, in session, a cablegram urging the League to disregard Mussolini's claim to Ethiopia. Early in the week, many prominent Harlemites had sent letters to Washington urging the State Department to refuse recognition of the Italian's claim.

CATAWBA YOUNG PEOPLE'S LEAGUE

The Young People's League of Catawba Presbytery will meet August 6, 1936, at 11 o'clock. The meeting will take place at Bethel Presbyterian church at Waxhaw, N. C., Rev. S. L. Fulwood, pastor. We would appreciate a large delegation. Come and bring your pastor.

MR. GEORGE BARBOUR, President.

MISS M. L. ANDREWS, Secy.

MRS. MARTHA JOHNSON, SALESLADY

Mrs. Martha Johnson, who has been in the employ of the Duke Power Company for a number of years, is making a splendid record as a saleslady. She was recently given a certificate of membership in the Reddy Kilowatt Club, and also received a letter from the office of the company commending her "outstanding record" in salesmanship. Mrs. Johnson is on the Kilowatt Honor Roll, which is regarded by the company as a real distinction. So far as we know she is the only colored salesman among the employees of the Duke Power Company.

Nothing can be wholly unless if some one think it is beautiful.
