Certificates have been granted to twenty persons to teach in Pasquotank county—twelve schools are already in operation, and a great interest is manifested in their success. In 1868, there were 2,750 children in the county.

The dwelling house of Mr. Magnitude Temple, near Taylor's Bridge, in Chatham county, together with furniture, clothing and entire contents, was destroyed by fire on Wednesday last—no doubt the work of an incendiary—$2,000.

Captain H. Bryant, of Providence, says the Charlotte DEMOCRAT, brought us 12 work specimens of a second crop of apples from a tree in his orchard. The tree bloomed the second time in June or July, and the apples ripened in October.

About midnight Monday last, in Wilmington, as Captain Prentiss Ingraham, commander of marines in the Cataraugus and one of the officers of the steamship Cuba sailed at that port, was returning home, he was fired at in the dark by some cowardly would-be murderer.

Many of our city readers no doubt regretted, says the Wilmington STAR, to learn from the appointments of the North Carolina Conference, that Rev. John N. Andrews, who has so long and so faithfully in this city, in charge of the seaman's Bethel, has been appointed to the Wayne circuit. In his new field of labor he will carry with him the best wishes of our citizens of all denominations.

The Wilmington STAR says that the editor of the Weldon News has been presented with a bale of cotton, but fails to state whether the donor was a "delinquent" or not. We would like some of our delinquents to bestow us something—cotton skins, mink fur, raw hides, rags—anything so we could square our books with some of them, and we would call ourselves "lucky" too.

MASTER DICKY TILLEY, the youthful Orator of Edgecombe County, who is but nine years old, will entertain our citizens at the Town Hall, on Saturday evening next, the 11th inst. We hope our citizens will give him a cordial reception in the way of a crowded house.

In a Fax.—Ex-Deputy U. S. Marshal Keho was arrested in this town on Saturday last, charged by one of our citizens with false imprisonment, who laid his damages at $10,000. The Ex-U. S. M., gave a bond and was released—Wright and others becoming his bondsmen.

The ROANOKE VALLEY thinks it quite certain that Clark and Co. will not comply with their contract to build the Roanoke-Valley R.R. by the 1st of July next; and propose that Walton and Petersburg, So. board and Roanoke and Raleigh and Gaston Railroads construct it and run it on joint account.

Mr. Delmar announces the purpose to make it an independent newspaper; and also states that capital, experience, and enterprise will be brought to the task of making it a good paper.

REMEMBER the subscription price of the weekly CAROLINA MESSENGER is but SEVENTY-FIVE CENTS for six months, or ONE DOLLAR AND FIFTY CENTS per year. Each number contains from six to ten two columns of choice reading. The price for the semi-weekly edition is ONE DOLLAR AND FIFTY CENTS for six months. Now is the time to subscribe!

FIRST TRIP.—An incident of the Chatham railroad run over the new track into the city yesterday, which is the first arrival over that new road, the laying down the track at the eastern end of the road was completed yesterday morning. We hope soon to see announced a schedule of the new line from Raleigh to the Coastal and then for cheap fare and good steady first-class service.

SENTENCED TO BE HUNG.—Louis Hin, a negro, was tried yesterday and found guilty of committing a rape on a young lady of Fishing Creek township last spring. He was sentenced to be hung on the 14th of January. The evidence was positive and direct. The stenographer of His Honor, Judge Jones, was solemly and impressively, and is appointed to the high bench to the Tarboro CAPTAIN.

INSANE ASYLUM.—We are indebted to Dr. G. S. superintendent, for his annual report of the North Carolina Insane Asylum. The whole number of patients now in the institution is 223; received during the year 29; discharged during the same period, 19. Of those discharged, 7 had recovered, 3 much improved, 2 stationary, and 1 died. The institution is unable to furnish accommodations for all the insane and the superintendent recommends an increase of facilities for the purpose.

He has now on hand an immense stock of thrifty trees especially adapted for fall and winter planting, also a large variety of grape vines and flowers. Send for descriptive catalogue.

DIED.—Mr. Emily C. Moore, wife of Dr. Wm. H. Moore, of this place, breathed her last on Saturday night, after an illness of several weeks. Mr. Moore was truly an ever-loving, a loving wife, a fond mother and a devoted friend, and her loss will be deeply felt in this community where she has long resided and endeared herself to all who knew her. Her funeral took place at the Presbyterian Church on yesterday, a large number of our citizens following her remains to their last resting place.

The Newbern JOURNAL OF COMMERCE of Thursday says: Yesterday afternoon, about a quarter to 1 o'clock, Asa Delamar and Charles Jones, both colored, became involved in an altercation, at their joint place of residence, in the rear of South Front street and near Crayon. Delamar, who had been drinking, became abusive in his language and began to curse Jones roundly, when the latter warned him to desist else he should strike him. Delamar repeated the offensive epithets, when Jones caught up a brickbat weighing about three pounds, and, hurling it heavily at Delamar, struck him immediately behind and under the right ear. The wounded man fell in his doorway, blood gushing from his mouth and ears. He died fifteen minutes after the blow was struck.

ESCAPE FROM JAIL.—Edward Trueb, the swiss, who was incarcerated in the jail at this place on the charge of embezzling about 300 bushels of corn, the property of Mr. Thomas H. Atkinson, on whose plantation Trueb was farming and whose confidence he had enjoyed, effected his escape on Friday night last. We have so far been unable to learn to whom the blame for his escape should be attached. Nothing has since been heard of him.

Thinking it to the interest of Immigration we have heretofore avoided saying anything connecting this second, although his morality toward the Immigration Association as well as his own countrymen, (the swiss brought over here by him), should have long since consigned him to the lowest pit in hell. We shall have occasion to refer to the racial heretofore.

OUR BOOK TABLE. A NEW-YEAR'S GIFT FOR ALL.—The publishers of the AMERICAN STOCK JOURNAL, wishing to place a copy of this publication in the hands of every Farmer, Planter and Stock Breeder in the country, have put up 100,000 packages, containing a specimen copy, large illustrated Show Bill, a premium list, and one of the following 25 cent books; Haysman's Hog Breeder's, Sheep Breeder's, Dairyman's or Poultry Breeder's Manual.—These packages they offer to send free and post paid to all who apply for them. We hope all our farmer friends will avail themselves of this generous offer, as the premium list contains many articles, such as blooded cattle, sheep, hogs, poultry, potatoes, seeds, agricultural implements, sewing machines, looks, watches, &c., &c., that can easily be obtained by a few days' canvassing for this popular journal which is published at the low price of $1.00 a year. Address N. F. Boyer & Co., publishers, Parkersburg, Chester County, Pa.

GOLD PRIZES.—The fifth number of the CAROLINA FARMER, new series is before us. It is, as usual, filled with choice original and selected matter for the farm and household; and at 25 cents per year is one of the cheapest family weeklies in the country. In the number before us the proprietor announces a prize of Twenty-Five Dollars in Gold for the second largest lot of subscribers sent by any one person between December 15th, 1869 and March 15th, 1870. Parties wishing to compete for the Gold prize may obtain specimen copies of the CAROLINA FARMER, and blank subscription lists by addressing Wm. H. Bernard, Editor and Proprietor, Wilmington, N. C.

ATLANTIC MONTHLY.—The December number of this issue has been before us for several days, but, owing to a stress of other matter, we have neglected to notice it. It is a pleasant, readable issue, containing the usual variety of matter, some of which is, however, not at all suited to this section and latitude. There are, however, some really fine articles, and, taken altogether, it will answer very well for a leisure hour. Fields, Osgood & Co., 123 Front street, Boston, at $4 per annum.

BLACKWOOD'S MAGAZINE for November has been received from the Leonard Scott Publishing Company, 140 Fulton street, New York. It contains several interesting articles, among them Part I. of two new stories, "Earl's Dene" and "John"; "The Jewish Reformation and Talmud"; and "The Land Question in Ireland."

GOOD HEALTH MAGAZINE for December is on our table. An admirable and very useful Magazine. It is published by Alexander Moore, Boston, Mass., at only $2 a year.

GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK.—For January 1870. Jodey prescribes to his numerous subscribers a real gem in the opening number of next year. The embellishment is excellent in attractiveness as before given. Its fashion plates and other illustrations are quite attractive while its literary department displays a grand array of literary celebrities.

Every lady should subscribe for it now and get the premium! Address L. A. Godey, Philadelphia.

DIE MODERNELY FOR DECEMBER.—Has been received, and is undoubtedly the best illustrated fashion journal ever offered to the American ladies. The amount given for the small price charged is wonderful. This number alone contains 130 useful illustrations, mostly for cloaks; a highly colored steel engraving, and a large supplement, containing 19 full-sized patterns for ladies and children's cloaks, over-skirts, etc. Single copies, 25 cents.

The daily increasing demand for this valuable journal has induced the proprietor to import it semi-monthly, commencing January, 1870, at the exceedingly low price of 15 cents per copy, or $3 per annum. Now is the time to subscribe and get up clubs.

S. T. Taylor, Importer, 391 Canal street, New York.

NORTH CAROLINA EASTERN CENTRAL FAIR COMPANY. By request, we publish below a list of the original stockholders of the North Carolina Eastern Central Fair Company organized here in Goldsboro in 1860. All of the surviving members are earnestly requested to attend the meeting to be held in the Court-house, in this town, on Saturday, December 11th, at 11 o'clock, A. M., as an important business is to be transacted. Those names of members marked with an asterisk (*) are no more in the land of the living:

- J. R. Dyer, J. W. Davis, J. E. Fields, W. E. Edmondson, D. O. Carrington, J. J. Baker, W. F. Korn gy, N. W. Best, E. E. Cox, Jonathan Pearson, J. C. Sloan, J. T. H. Murphy, J. J. Bondary, W. A. Thompson, R. A. Whitfield, W. F. Dorrice, J. E. Hooks, Wm. Carraway, William Lewis, L. Pearson, L. D. Howell, George Moore, L. Lewis, W. J. Rouse, W. H. Moore, V. E. Pate, D. McDowell, J. M. Cahoe, W. F. Atkinson, Dibble & Bros., B. J. Herring, Z. Pencock, Wm. Thompson.

MR. W. J. PALMER, the popular and obliging principal of the institution for the Deaf, Dumb and the blind, at Raleigh, very kindly proposes to give a FREE exhibition, by the inmates of the institution, here in Goldsboro, about the 20th inst., provided our citizens would make arrangements to give dinner and supper to about twenty of his pupils and furnish the use of a piano. This generous offer will surely be accepted by the citizens of this community at least: we hope so. Will not some gentlemen or better—the ladies—interest themselves in this matter? A small collection would defray all expenses mentioned and the exhibition would be quite a treat to our citizens especially the ladies. Who will move in the matter?

Speaking of Mr. P. and the inmates of the institution the Raleigh STANDARD says: "The exhibition last night, given by inmates of the institution for the Deaf, Dumb and blind, in the Chapel connected with the institution, was well attended, and gave great satisfaction. Mr. Palmer, the principal, seems by nature qualified to train youth—and especially the unfortunate class, who are committed to his care. Beside a regular and thorough education, both the deaf and the deaf dumb are instructed in some useful trade and when they quit the institution they are prepared to take care of themselves—they are intelligent, and master of a trade."

All proposals left with the Rev. G. W. S. in office or at my office will receive attention.

Ladies suffering from dry skin, peculiar to their sex, can be restored to health by using Dr. Lawrence's "WOMAN'S FRIEND." It purifies the circulation and restores the system to a healthy condition.

PHALON'S "VITALIA" differs utterly from all the "dyes," "colorers," and "restorers" (?) in use. It acts on a totally different principle.
