

GOLDSBORO, N. C.

THURSDAY, - SEPTEMBER 5, 1872.

THE CIRCULATION OF THE CAROLINA MESSENGER IS NOW LARGER THAN THAT OF ANY OTHER PAPER PUBLISHED IN EASTERN CAROLINA.

NATIONAL REFORM TICKET!

For President: HORACE GREELEY, Of New York; For Vice-President: B. GRATZ BROWN, Of Missouri. FOR ELECTORS: State at Large—E. W. Post, of Johnston, and Thomas J. Jarvis, of Tyrrel.

Greeley Club.

The Goldsboro Greeley Club meets, by appointment, at the Court House this (Thursday) evening, at 8 o'clock. Will our citizens turn out and manifest the interest which they feel in the great work before them?

The Goldsboro Greeley Club meets, by appointment, at the Court House this (Thursday) evening, at 8 o'clock. Will our citizens turn out and manifest the interest which they feel in the great work before them?

Radical Blood and Thunder Rivalry.

"W. H. B." considers himself some lives in Raleigh and writes for the Era. His last production—Aug. '74, is a smasher. It contains 22 sentences, in which the important "I" is ostentatiously paraded about 29 times; and its "I" is "We, Our Us" about ten or a dozen times.

We have hitherto refrained from noticing the Blood-and-Thunder rivalry of the Era and its bombastic scribbles. That paper advises Caldwell to resist, VI ET ARMIS in the event of Merrimon's being declared Governor by the Legislature, should he contest the election before that tribunal.

Point these fellows to their Radical brothers, just over the border in South Carolina, where the demon of Radicalism unchained and unchecked is playing his rascally pranks. What these pranks are the fact now engaged in them openly declares now that the party is divided and at open war over the offices and the spoils.

vi in us, all that is pure and patriotic, all that is learned and intelligent in South Carolina is ruled and ruled by fraud, peculation and all sorts of rascality, and such would be the fate of North Carolina, but for the timely check put upon Radicalism at the ballot-box in 1870, and again so happily applied in 1872. "Forewarned, forearmed!"

Goldsboro.

Our town has on its best looks just now. The mason's trowel and the carpenter's hammer, are heard on all sides. No matter in what direction we turn, new stores, new buildings and improvements greet our eyes.

As a cotton market Goldsboro offers inducements to our planters. We have some five or six cotton buying houses in the place, and there exists just enough rivalry between them to keep the price at the top of the market.

Table showing cotton market data for September 1872, including dates and bales.

The number of bales shipped during March and April increase the total to about 15,000 bales. This is an increase of several thousand bales over 1870-71.

It is reasonable to suppose that a comparative increase will be reached during the season now about to open. We see no reason why there should not, and trust that our business men will make every exertion in that direction.

What Goldsboro needs just now is a railroad through the counties of Greene and Pitt to Washington. Such a road would add no little to the prosperity of our place, and its advantage to the farmers and planters, in the counties through which the road would pass, can hardly be estimated.

The Crops. The unusually dry season in this section seems to have done serious damage to the crops. We have recently conversed with farmers from the different portions of this and adjoining counties and we think it safe to conclude that the consequences of the drought are quite serious.

From the Southern States the reports are also discouraging. In some parts of the South there are complaints of drought in others excessive rains and freshets; and again from other portions comes the cry that the caterpillars and army worms are playing havoc with the cotton crop.

Our advices from Georgia are very conflicting. In some portions of the State the crop promises an increase on last year's production; in others less. Reports from South Carolina represent the crop as being generally well belled with early cotton which promises an increased yield over 1871.

Greeley's Prospects Bright and Brightening—Posting the Books.

The New York Herald seems to have well-informed correspondents in every State in the Union, and they are especially busy in those States where the political cauldron boils hottest.

As a reason for this he says: "Not only is the German defection general, but there is a universal defection of primary abolitionists."

Another universal defection to General Grant is that of the Jews, or Israelites. They passed over the military order of General Grant four years ago, dismissing them from the army, but are intensely incensed at a speech of Henry Wilson made in the case of Joseph P. Benjamin.

The vote of Milwaukee is about thirteen thousand; of the republican majority there is 4,000. Bets are now made that Greeley will get 7,000 majority—taking twenty-five per cent. of the native republicans and nearly the solid German vote.

There is no mistake about it. The feeling in favor of Greeley who is regarded by more of a republican than Grant—is spreading extensively throughout the State—but whether there will be a stampede the other way before November, depends altogether upon the manner in which the campaign is managed by the Greeley manipulators in New York.

The Louisville Convention.

This body assembled on Tuesday last in Louisville, Ky. Blanton Duncan called the Convention to order. James Lyons, of Virginia, was elected President of the Convention. Their ticket nominated is O'Connor, of New York, for President, and John Quincy Adams, of Massachusetts, for Vice President.

PINE STRAWS.

We learn from the Greenville Spectator that a negro named Freeman Green committed a diabolical outrage upon one Nancy Perkins (colored), on Fiddlet last and attempted a repetition on Tuesday, threatening to stab her.
