RALLY! RALLY!!

. me to the Goldsboro Fair

The time for holding the first Annual ir of the Farmers' and Mechanics' As wirtion is almost upon us. It will ope the public on Tuesday October 22nd cost continues four days. That it will be a success we have every reason to hope, it the selfish management for which Association proper is not responsible. e invite the good citizens of all portionthe State to lay aside every barrier nich may in any manner impede the =p. ogress of the Fair and to unite with the scople of Goldsboro in making it a granelecess. Nor would we invite the people or our State alone, but we invite them of il! the States, and of every clime. Come to the Pair and exhibit such specimens of your production, manufacture and handiswork as are worthy of it, and, by all means, don't fail to attend yourself, if within your power. Come and help us.

The Fair is designed alike for the reflection of progress in every department of industrial life among the people of Nortl Carolina, and among those from other States who feel dispose I to aid us. Goldsboro, with the advantage of her geographical position and extraor linary railroad facilities, and above all, the centre of very fertile agricultural section, offers un urpassed facilities for a good Fair. Who does not remember that of 1860? It was a grand success; and that of 1872 will by far excel it.

No expense or trouble have been spar ed by the Association to make it ever way a creditable affair. The grounds ha been fitted up by heavy expenditures, and is, all points considered, the best equipped we know of. The premiums are the mos liberal, amounting to nearly $19,000. The Floral Hall, Grand Stan I buildings, Stock and Cattle Stalls and Exhibition halls are not surpassed in convenience or construc tion by those of any Fair Grounds in any - section of the State, and the credit of thi is mostly due our friend, Col. J. J. B. ker, under whose personal guidance the work has been so vigorously pushed ahead. The ground, too, is conveniently located in the suburbs of our town, a d immediately on the line of the Wilming ton and Weldon railroad with which it is conne and ly a side track. There will also be a telegraph office connecting with all principal offices in the United States the Hon. Horace Greeley is expected on: day during the Fair; his Excellency, Gilbert C. Walker, Governor of Virginia will deliver the address on Thursday the n l Major C. W. McClammy of New Hanover county, will deliver the charge to the Knights of the Tourna ment totake pla con Friday at 1 o'clock Horce rac' to plendid preniums wil also add to the attraction of the occasion Our hotel accommodations have been large ly increased, and every effort will be mad to provide for those who may come to stay her ove night. Come then with jour specimens, bains on your fine cattle, horses, swine, sheep, poultry, and other live stock, your firm productions, your articles of manu 'a ture, fruits, merchandise, curiosities, and ladies handiwork. Ample accommodations have been made for all. Brin; with you, your family and your sweeth ar and spend a few days in pleasant and profitable observations. We invite visito's from every section, and trust by the intercommunication thus brought about to advance the interest of our town, and the interest of agriculture and industrial enterprises of every class, to bene it the exhibitor, the viitor, our State and ounty. Tie ladies e. pecially are invited. Their presence in large numbers will add great y to the stccess of the Fair. The very best of order will be p eserved. Come to our Fair.

The Elections of Last Week.

We have not the time, even if we had the heart, to enter into the details of the most shameless and unblushing frauds and speak of Grant's administrat ou rascality by which the elections in Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana wers carried for the Ohio and Indiana wers carried for the "The city of Raleigh was alarmed about ne o'clock this morning by a terrible ex-

ments, and leaves us to stand and wonder | ing in the city. how such things can be perpetrated, and with inpunity, in a country said to be republican in its form of government. It is evident that the Northern people, the friends of Grant's administration, do not desire peace, and reconciliration with the South. They rejoice at our oppression and are only over anxions to keep the heel f the despotupon our necks. The South need not look there for sympathy. With a view to reconcile the two sections, to clasp hands across the bloody chasm, the Southern people, in a spirit in true keeping with their noted chivalry and magnimity, accepted the most objectionable of their former enemies for a standard bear er. They hoped at least to be met in like spirit by a majority of the Northern people. But, alas-villainy, money and an army of federal office-holders have triumphed over honesty and a pure ballot. Our olive branch is rejected. It is not to the results that we look to with alarm, but to the methods, those infamous, bold, desperate means by which these radical successes were so daringly achieved. It shows an absolute defiance of all attempts the depot, with hats in hand. to have a fair election. It is the beginning of centralization. Since the above was put in type we eurn that Hendricks, democrat, is certainly elected Governor of Indiana.

Hypocricy of Radicalism.

An intelligent southern cotemporary hinks-and correctly too-"that virulent personality and unmeasured scurrility and coarseness begin to be marked characterstics of the present political campaign .-Whether this is due the more depraved personal life and traits of our prominent politicians of our times, we are unable to de-

But luckily, such is not our sad condition. ower and honors of this republicy for There are enough other States to save the ome years past, have been confined to whole. The Tribune makes this clear : he very worst, the most immoral and dis olute of our citizens.

"It adds to the humiliation of this exosure to reflect that the proofs upon which have been long in the possession of he Government and of a great political arty, but have been designedly withheld rom the people.

"Only partisan differences-only peronal and selfish motives have at last imelled the discharge of a duty to morality and the people. This long concealment, only broken from such motives, very early brings the concealers in the category of accomplices and harberers of rime and vice, and gives their present estimony the character of a State's evilence'-of suborned witnesses and inform-

"We think it no injustice to the Adminstration at Washington, and its champons, thus to characterize the recent exposures, derived from the Government records, of the alleged immorality and misconduct of three prominent chiefs of the party, whom it has hitherto honored as valuable supporters and champions.

"They are Generals Banks, C. M. Clay and Gen. Kilpatrick. These are, at least, we may say, all who having held office or position in the Radical party, and do not support it in its present position, are charged with delinquencies, and threatened with similar exposures.

"As long as these men supported Gen. Frant, and yielded obedience to the manlates of the party, they were regarded with favor and confidence, in spite of whatever evidences may have been within the knowledge of the party and its belief, of their moral delinqueucles. The innocent, credulous people were deluded into a high esteem and confidence for these honored officials and representatives.' 'They believed them men of pure life. of strick morality and virtue. Were they not entrusted with high offices by the Government, by the chief of a great party, founded on moral ideas, and claiming to be the evantcourier of modern civiliza-

"And now, by virtue of a mere change of political position, these chiefs are revealed in their true light, as men who were gullty of gross immoralities, all the while they were idols of the people. "who are the guiltier parties in this de-ption and fraud? To whom attaches the For G. thief criminality for thus duping the people? Who have been the hypocritical ac-complices and aiders and abettors of the men who have brought dishonor upon the national character and disgrac d the high places in the Government.

"Will it be pretended that party fide ity prefers a license on moral and social depravity? Will the grossests immoraliies be pardoned in a Grant man, and held to popular destination and condemnation in an opponent of that official and his party? Let the facts answer."

There are volumes of truth in what is said above. Every distinguished Republi- Texas ..... can such as Summer, Banks, Trumbull, W. Doolittle and a host of others, who, ' obedient to the honest convictions, left the Republican ranks and united with Conservative Dear cracy and Liberal Republican in support of Gree'ey, has come under the lash of Grant's supporters. It matters no: how much they did either as statesmen and soldiers; how earnest and patriotic they were in aiding the Government in its struggles to suppress rebellion; or how invaluable their services, military or civic, the very moment they felt obliged to depart from Radical partizan tramels-even old Honest Horace Greeley himself-a storm of abuse was fulminated against them, unlimited and unrestricted regarding truth, until the vocabulary of English billingsgate become exhausted.

A Most Diabolical Outrage-Free Press Interrupted-The Sentinel Office Blown to Atoms.

The office of the Raleigh SENTINEL WAS on Thursday night last blown to atoms with powder. It is a most diabolical outrage and calls loudly for investigation. -The SENTINEL must and cannot be suppressed. Our cotemporary, the Raleigh NEWS, of the 11th inst., furnishes us the following particulars :

their villainy celipses all former achieve- plosion, which shook nearly every build- precedented fraud will be received by the MURPHREY & CO.'S COLUMN.

Soon the alarm of fire was given, and it with indifference, their demoralization was soon ascertained that the noise pro- and corruption have gone further and ceeded from the Raleigh SENTINEL. The reached a more dangerous stage than has firemen were promptly on the spot, as the been imagined.

Sentinel office adjoined the Engine House.

Upon examination the Sextinel press [Richard Sextinel press] room was found to be in ruins, the roof of the house being blown to pieces and scattered in every direction, the press room adjoining all knocked down and pibuilding, and the impression was universal that some fiend in human form had blown up the SEN. press by placing powder underneath. This opinion was fully confirmed by subsequent examination of the ruins. A small job press in the composing room, which escaped destruction, was examined and a paper of powder found under it with a slow match which had been lighted, but

This was proof conclusive that the outrage was planned by some enemy or enemics of the editor of the SEN.

It is said that about ten minutes before the explosion, a colored boy who lives near the office, saw two individuals running off from the spot in the direction of

In the Toledo District, we have elected Hurd, in the and in the fifteenth, Hudson. The Butler county District also appears to have been handsomely carried. The latest reports from Indiana promise well. We do not believe the State can be wrested from us, even by the enormous villanies attempted in colonization and

[New York Tribune. ] In Pennsylvania, the work was done in the precise form and manner prescribed. The majority in Philadelphia was put no to a monstrous figure, to cover all contingencies, and we have no doubt it will do it. The returns are undergoing changes in the reports; but Grant Republicans claim 20,000 now for Hartranft in a city which at the last test election gave only 11,494! Nobody doubts that this is fraud, unabashed, unconcealed, gigantic. Whether Peansylvanians choose to have the convict's candidate forced on them by such means, they must decide for them-

New York Sun

This majority [Hartranft's] is altogether the product of fraud. Such open, undisguised, shameless villainy was never before practiced in any American election. The evidence is given at large in another part of this paper. It will be pondered with sadness and alarm by all honest men. We will not here inquire how much un-from it! We have a reasonable chance for the November election, for then, when the fight is along the whole line, the Admin strati n cannot c ncentrate on any onseparate State with its colonists and money. But even granting that we are wrong here, it is manifest that a new complexion has been given to public affairs. The Lib eral movement means amnesty as opposed to the policy of hate, local liberty as opposed to the policy of centralization .-These grand and beneficient ideas have been fairly placed before the people of the North, and although the response has not been what we hoped, we are in possession of facts ample enough to warrant us in declaring that the safety of the Republic may be found in this direction.
