"Do you know anything of the situan in Ohio or Illinois I' of 'I know that Ohio can be carried for Liberals. My impression is that that te was lost from sheer carelessness d inactivity. Certain as Indian is, I neve that Ohio is more certain still. In ary State I visited, I took especial ins to gather information regarding Obio defeat, and was surprised when scortained that in some small localities, least fifty Democrats remained away om the polls. I do not, however, wish say anything further concerning that ate. The late defeat has proved a lesn, and as far as I can see at present. hat should have been done in Septem r, is being done now."

"What is your opinion of Illinois ? ave you visited that State ?"

"Yes, I was there about two weeks to. We have a very large majority to refcome there. I can't say we are as rtain of carrying that State. The Libals are hopeful, and are making large lditions to their ranks every day. Nearail the representative men in the State e for Greeley, and my impression is that we do not carry the State, we will come ear enough to frighten Logan, Yates d the other Grant men."

This closed the interview with Mr. Mc onald, who has the reputation of being he of the shrewdest men in the West. Among the visitors at headquarters ere Congressman Roberts, of this city : C. Adams, of Vermont ; J. S. Thayer, New York ! J. McDonnell, of New rleans, (who states that the Radicals

Miraculous Eecano. 21107

Last week we published a statement that Martin Baynard was hanged at Hendersonville week before last for the murder of the Adair family 'nt the Rutherford Vindicator says Bay d was not hung, for he escaped from J i on the morning of the day set apart for is execution. He exchanged cloth with his wife in his cell, and in that y got off, leaving his wife in Jail.

The Hickory Tavern Eagle plains the escape flitts :

"Martin Baynard, who, (. h the Adairs) was convicted of the monder of the Weston family in Rutherford county, at Fall Term, 1871, of Henderson Superior Court, and sentenced by Judge Henry to be hanged on the 12th of last June, and who was respited by the Governor until last Friday, the 18th inst. made his escape on the morning of that day, from the Henderson Jail, under the ollowing circumstances : The Jailor had permitted Baynard's wife to visit him during his imprisonment, and she was permitted to remain with him during the night preceding the morning of his escape. As usual, the Jailor visited the cell of the condemned man about sunrise, when Baynard, disguised in his wife's clothes, with his handkerchief to his face, sobbing violently, walked out of the cell, and made his final escape.

The Jailor carried Bayuard his breakfast, as usual, about two hours atterward, when, to his great surprise, he discovered that Baynard's wife, dressed in her night clothing, was the only occupant of the
