To Your Tents.

On Tuesday next the people of these United States will be called upon to elect snother President. It is the most import at election ever held in this country .-On its result depends the future happiness prace and prosperity of the nation, and of the Southern people especially. If we would conquer, vote we must. If we would reap, we must sow. For seven long years, we have worn the galling chains of a heartless political party. Bad men upheld by bayonets have been at the head of our government, both State and National. The deluge of Radicalism has swept away every institution hallowed by time, and has wantonly descerated the very memories of our ancestors. The constitution has been blotted out, and our State governments have been converted into a pile of ruins. A facetious cabal, calling themselves the congress, have ususped the authorities and powers of our State authorities. Under mere pretences, peaceable citizens are being arrested by have renegales, styled federal Marshals, and federal Commissioners, who thus seek personal revenge, or to gorge the voracious, appetites of ravenous, yankee vul-

Well, such and worse-ineffably worse - is the situation at present; but the we so has not yet come, if this surging of barbarous fanactism be not deprived of its fury and its force, by the eternal rock of Conservative Dent sectory, aided by the libertylosing Liberal Republicans of the country. By the election of Greeley and Brown, we may hope for deliverance from such despotic bondage. For that happy consumation, the prospects are bright. All over the country their names have rekindled the fires of pure American liberty, which are burning with enthusiasm, never before experienced by the great American heart.

Let the Conservatives and Democrats of North Carolina spare no toil, nor time, on the day of the election, nor talent from now till the day of election, in adding constitutional fuel to that patriotic flame. Work! Work!! Victory is within our
