

Carolina Messenger
A. BONTZ, Editor
 PUBLISHED WEEKLY
 THURSDAY - NOVEMBER 28, 1872
 THE CIRCULATION OF THE CAROLINA MESSENGER IS NOW LARGER THAN THAT OF ANY OTHER PAPER PUBLISHED IN EASTERN CAROLINA.

Senatorial.
 The election of U. S. Senator, by the Legislature, was to have come off last Tuesday. At the time of this writing, we know not how the matter stands, but we have no idea that an election has as yet been effected. Hence we have a word to say in the interest of party fealty and organization, believing that our party is the only and chief dependence for the perpetuation of a free, honest, uncorruptible republican government.

The Legislature is in a pitiable muddle. The Conservative and Democratic party are masters of the situation, and should acquit themselves as such. It is a pitiable spectacle to see such men as Governor Vance and Judge Merrimon seemingly begging for honors and offices. We wish we could gratify both of them. Between them we would not give a copper for choice. Equally pure, upright, honorable, uncorruptible, they would equally reflect honor on themselves and on North Carolina as Senators in the Congress of the United States. But they ought not to be allowed to distract and disorganize the party which is the only hope of the country. They are true and good and distinguished men - have eminently served their party, in their respective spheres; but neither nor both of them should be allowed to hold the favors of their party in their breeches pockets. Let personal rivalry between them cease. There are fifty men in the State as good and true as either of them. Let the Conservative and Democratic representatives of the people stick to their colors - the interests of the party and country and let no personal considerations divide or distract them.

Either Vance or Merrimon is good enough for us - for every wise and good member of the Democratic party, but any one of a hundred other citizens of the State, and distinguished members of the party would be equally as acceptable as either of them. Let us have peace. - These thoughts are expressed hastily, and we do sincerely hope that others interested will take the same view of this vexed question.

Governor Caldwell's Annual Message.

This State paper, so-called, was delivered before the Legislature on last Thursday, the 20th inst. Coming from the Governor of North Carolina, it is a remarkable production. Most of our State newspapers have expressed their opinion about it - the Conservative portion of them regarding it as the emanation of a bitter, partisan spirit, got up in very bad taste and having nothing to commend it to their favorable consideration.

Not wishing to follow in the footsteps of those Democratic writers, and hoping to find something in it calculated to repress political animosities, allay partisan bitterness and best mutual confidence and friendship, in the hearts and minds of the two races that now compose our citizens, we resolved to read and judge it for ourselves. It is an unusually long document, covering nearly fourteen columns of the Daily News, but we read it carefully from the first word to the last period, and feel bound in all candor to confess our disappointment. To attempt a review of this "Message," in detail, would be a fruitless task - tending neither to edify nor instruct the reader. We shall therefore glance at only some of its most prominent points: The Governor takes up two columns in discussing what he is pleased to call "OUR INTERNAL RELATIONS," and reminds the Legislature that the "Relations of the State with the National Government have been in some respects changed and become more delicate than formerly." And adds: "Cutting good order and quiet are restored and assured." * * * until the State and its people are manifestly in full accord with the National Government there will continue to exist apprehensions of possible trouble, affecting the interests of capital and producing a disinclination to invest in our securities or to seek a residence among us. The Governor wisely tells the Legislature that "A NEW ORDER OF THINGS IS ESTABLISHED," and that "BY THE FOURTEENTH AMENDMENT," &c. "Every citizen of North Carolina is expressly declared to be a citizen of the United States, and the National Government is expressly invested with power to protect him in his rights as such." And further says his Excellency: "The State Government cannot take those rights from him nor prevent his practical enjoyment of them without making a case for the interference of the National authority."

"But hear him again."

"We cannot deny that a failure of the State authorities, in too many glaring instances, to protect citizens, mostly of a certain class, from systematic and organized outrages upon their persons, and their rights, has furnished occasion for the interposition of the National legislation on subjects that the State would more properly, and better, control."

And again: "But the National Government is naturally watchful of any encroachments, and full failure on the part of the State authorities to conform to the results of the late unfortunate conflict, and to do whatever may seem to be necessary to avoid, directly or indirectly, the practical enforcement of the policy which it has adopted for its protection in the future, and for its interests and welfare as present, it certainly degrades the people and the governments of those States, as to the disposition and purpose to respect and enforce the rights of that class of citizens who have been raised, by its authority, to the absolute slavery to fill and complete American citizenship. We may add to this that the conduct and language of too many of the other class of our people, have given cause for the belief that the national safety is seriously involved in upholding and enforcing the practical and untrammelled enjoyment, and exercise by the colored citizens in the South, of the new rights and powers conferred on them."

That we may do Governor Caldwell no injustice we have given the foregoing extracts from his message, in his words, and all that he says of our "Liberal Relations" partakes of the spirit of these extracts. What shall we say of that spirit? Let the reader turn back and read these extracts again. Ponder them well. As we read them, they constitute a slander and a wanton libel on the good people of the old North State. Whatever the intention of their author, their effect seems to establish the fact that lawlessness, anarchy and disorder still run riot in our State - that there is still the intent in hearts and minds of the Democratic party to oppress the colored race and deprive them of their rights as citizens. His Excellency even goes so far as to assert that "THERE IS CAUSE FOR THE BELIEF THAT THE NATIONAL SAFETY IS SERIOUSLY INVOLVED IN UPHOLDING AND ENFORCING THE NEW RIGHTS."

In the name of heaven, what does our Governor mean? Does he not know that "good order and quiet are as fully and completely assured, in North Carolina, as in any State in the Union. We do not refer to the past. Ku Klux is dead and buried. In what part of the State do disorder and dissipation exhibit themselves? Where appears the necessity for the "interposition" of the National authority? Peace and good order everywhere prevail, as is known to every citizen of the State, the impression to the contrary sought to be made by his Excellency notwithstanding.

Instead of sending the impression abroad that "good order and quiet are restored and assured in North Carolina - it was his plain duty, as it was manifest to him, to combat and refute such a detestable slander. He affects to want capital and labor to flow into this State, but tells them, in effect, they must not come here till good order and quiet are restored and assured.

In this wonderful document, our Governor cracks the national whip "over the heads of his political adversaries, hoping to terrify where he cannot intimidate. While the Governors of New York, Pennsylvania and Ohio - while all the leading presses are deprecating or denouncing "Federal Interposition" in purely State affairs, our most excellent Governor is justifying and invoking it! But what does our Governor mean when he says: "I thought now to be manifest to every one, that the time has arrived, when this State may fully reassert itself as one of the efficient, co-operative members of the Union."

"Reassert itself!" We thought North Carolina was already re-instated as a "member of the Union. How is it, Governor? What is further to be done to bring about this re-instatement? Do tell us!

Denunciation of the spirit and temper of this long, wordy message can effect no good. In every instance it unmasks, the bitter passion, passing not a single quality or characteristic of the Statesman, the patriot or the philanthropist.

It would be fruitless to follow his Excellency, through the remaining heads of his message.

ON THE STATE DEBT
 he takes up nearly three columns without seeming to know what he is driving at - or if he knows, he is afraid or unwilling to make it public. He opposes repudiation, which, to a certain extent, is all very well.

EDUCATION
 is discussed, at some length, but no plan for improvement or efficiency is suggested. As it exists at present, the system is a pitiable farce.

"THE ELECTION LAW" and "Legislative appointment receive a full share of the Governor's attention. Wherein is displayed more arrogance than respect for his high office and those whom he addresses would seem to justify or demand.

The Penitentiary, Charitable, Asylums, Internal Improvements, and Swamp Lands, receive due notice, and the subject of encouraging.

 is highly commended.

We have, thus rapidly, over this message - one of the strangest productions that ever emanated from a Governor's pen. It does a grievous wrong to the people of North Carolina, as a people, at this day, as obedient to the laws, as quiet as order, as peaceable as any people under the sun. Why Governor Caldwell should undertake to represent them otherwise and thus slander their good name, and namelessly expose them to the vengeance and "interposition of the National Government," is a thing now every where deprecated and denounced, is best known to himself. He utters one sentiment for which we thank him, and in which we heartily join him. His Excellency says: "My God speed the day when we shall all dwell together in unity and love and unwavering party rage!" We like his words. We wish every man of them had the good sense to do as he says.

Had the Governor dictated his message in the spirit of that prayer, what a different document it would have been!

North Carolina Legislature.
 Session of the Senate and House of Representatives, commenced on Friday, Nov. 22, 1872.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.
 The Speaker announced the committee on privileges and elections, as follows: Messrs. Johnson, Jones, of Caldwell, Craige, Shackelford, Whitmore, Norman, Dula, Guyther, Stowe, Rhoads, Morring, Settle and Badger.

The following bills and resolutions were offered, and referred to appropriate committees:

By Mr. Brown, a resolution asking our Senators and Representatives in Congress to use their influence to reduce the liquor tax, and also to reduce the board of manufacturers.

By Mr. Blythe, the following: "Whereas, serious apprehensions are now entertained that the Supreme Court of the United States will, at no distant day, declare our Homestead Law to be unconstitutional and void as to all debt, thereby placing thousands of the debtor class entirely at the mercy of their creditors: Therefore be it resolved by the House of Representatives, the Senate concurring, that our Senators and Representatives in Congress are earnestly solicited to use their influence to have the Bankrupt Law so amended as to place it within the reach of the poor as well as the rich."

By Mr. Morring - A bill to provide for the election of Judges by the voters of the respective Judicial Districts and vacancies filled accordingly.

By Mr. Badger offered a resolution that W. W. Holden be relieved of the disqualifications for holding office in the State, imposed upon him by the High Court of Impeachment; placed on calendar.

Mr. Jagner asked for a suspension of the rules, in order to offer a bill for the relief of the tax collector of Johnston county. The following amendments were added: John A. Reid, Sheriff of Halifax, J. B. Cherry, of Clay, T. F. Lee, of Wake, Jas. N. Young, of Buncombe, Henry White, of Perquimans, J. B. Pea, of Swain, A. D. Tuck, of Madison, J. M. Wall, of Anson, S. Hill, of Cherokee, W. V. Richardson, of Columbus. Pending other amendments, on motion, of Mr. Anderson, the whole matter was referred to the committee on Propositions and Grievances.

Mr. Gorman offered a resolution to authorize the keeper of the capitol to purchase three stands of the National ensigns for the use of the capitol, and during the session of the Legislature to have one hoisted over the capitol each day. - Placed on calendar.

Adjourned till 10 o'clock to-morrow morning.

SENATE.
 Senate called to order at 11 o'clock, a. m. President Morehead in the chair.

Mr. Murray - A resolution of instruction to the Committee on Education. That the system of common schools be examined into. Passed.

The President submitted to the Senate a communication from the President of the Penitentiary Board of Directors, accompanied with the annual report of that Board, which had been sent to the Governor, but refused by him.

The question of reading the communication was discussed by Messrs. Waring, Grandy, King, Stille and Harris.

The reading of the communication was ordered, which communication was from Mr. A. B. Bedoe, President of the Board of Directors of the Penitentiary, addressed to the General Assembly, and explained at length why the Governor had failed to transmit to this Assembly the report of the said institution. Mr. Bedoe stated that on the 13th inst. he caused to be transmitted to the Governor the annual report of the Board. That on the ensuing day the report was returned to him with a verbal message from the Governor, "that the report was not properly addressed, that it was not accompanied with a note transmitting it to him, and that he objected to the subject matter of the report, and did not consider it respectful to him," but failed to state in what particular. On the 15th the report was again returned to the Board. The letter to the General Assembly states that the Board intended no discourtesy to the Governor, begged to be allowed to say that they do not recognize the right of the Governor to dictate their reports, only considering the Governor the medium through which to transmit them to the General Assembly, and they believed they had fully complied with the constitutional requirements. Having failed to reach the General Assembly through the regular channel, occasioned the sending of these documents to the President of the Senate.

The letter of Mr. Bedoe concludes: "It is believed an investigation of the Penitentiary and of the Governor's 'refuse to accept' will develop the facts that much of the misadministration of the convicts, and responsibility for the consequences resulting therefrom, is traceable to the Governor and others who lend a too willing ear to the misrepresentations of unscrupulous persons."

HOUSE.
 Friday, Nov. 22.
 The House met at 10 o'clock.
 The Speaker announced the following committees:

Committee on Finance - Messrs. Gidney, Morrison, McGehee, Rhoads, Richardson, Carter, Guyther, Lutterloh, Hous-ton Brooks and Moss.

Committee on Propositions and Grievances - Messrs. Outlaw, Mitchell, Bryant, of Pitt, Da. du. Carter, Freeman, Hinnant, Cray, Bullard and C. P. Linn.

Committee on Engraved Bills - Messrs. Morring, Bryson, of Jackson, Heaton, Aderson, of Dare, Sharpe, Warlick, Joyner, Blythe, Turner, Bryson, of Alleghany and Woodhouse.

House Committee on Joint Rules - Messrs. Gorman, McNeil and Clark.

Mr. Burnett, from the judiciary committee, submitted a report upon the bill providing for the election of Superior Court Judges by the people of their respective Judicial Districts.

Mr. Anderson, by consent of the House, introduced a bill to prohibit the sale of intoxicating liquors within one mile of any religious congregation or worshiping assembly in this State.

On motion of Mr. Norman, a bill providing for the election of Judges by voters of the Judicial District, was taken up, and after a lengthy discussion, participated in by Messrs. Norman, Badger, McGehee, Brown, of Davidson, Trivett, Jones, of Caldwell, Bennett, Johnson, and Ferguson, the bill passed its second reading by a vote of 69 yeas, 80 nays.
