Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.
From Washington.
Washington, January 30.
Whatever may be the result of the next presidential election, there is one thing in the political world which is evidencing itself more thoroughly every day, and this is that the spirit in the Republican party is bound to have substantial and practical existence very soon. The Conservative Republicans in the Senate, where they talk without hesitation, manifest an eagerness to support either measure or men that now receive their opposition; and there must be downright expressions of future intentions very soon. During the present session the Democrats have had comparatively nothing to do in inaugurating opposition to the Administration. The bulk of it comes from conservative or liberal and anti-prospective Republicans, and it has been more open in the Senate, where their greater men have been, than in the House. As yet there have been no threats of reading them out of the party. Hints of such intentions were fashionable when the liberal-minded began to denounce acts of the Administration, but it was early discovered that such a policy would never result advantageously, and there has been heard of it thenceforward.

THE PHILADELPHIA STATE SENATORIAL ELECTION—DEFEAT OF McCLURE BY PHILIP VAN DYKE.—On Tuesday the election took place in Philadelphia to fill a vacancy in the State Senate from the fourth senatorial district. The State Senate stands at a tie, (18 Republicans; 18 Democrats), and the election was therefore of more than usual interest.

The Grave of Poe.
It was on a cold, dull, and dreary day last winter, while attending the funeral of Mrs. Maria Clemm, the aunt and mother in law of Edgar A. Poe, that I first saw the nameless grave of that gifted but most unfortunate poet. She had died the day before, and her last request was to be buried by the side of her "darling Eddie," in Westminster church yard, corner of Fayette and Greene streets, Baltimore. No stone has ever marked the place of his burial, though shortly after his death a marble was placed on it, which was accidentally broken in the stone cutter's shop, only a few days before it was to be erected. It bore the following inscription:

COLORED BAPTIST CHURCH.—We learn that the colored baptists of this town have purchased a lot in the rear of the Seminary and near Military Green for the purpose of building a church.—They have obtained letters of dismission or withdrawal from the white church, and have organized with 27 charter members, chosen officers, &c. We suppose that they will at once proceed to the erection of a suitable building for worship as we learn that they have raised sufficient funds for this purpose. It is to be called the "First Colored Baptist Church of Fayetteville."

How NEGROES ARE TREATED IN PHILADELPHIA.—A negro writes to Forney as follows: "The case of Mr. Douglas [Fred, at St. Louis] is not an isolated one, nor does it deserve the attention it has received. In this city a gentleman of culture, education, and character, who has enjoyed abroad all the privileges of a traveler and guest, was refused a ticket to the family circle of the Academy. Not three weeks ago the committee which waited on the President from this city in behalf of Mr. Sumner's bill were refused accommodations at the depot restaurant in Washington and only succeeded in being entertained by insisting upon just treatment. It has scarcely been three months since the Secretary of the American Legation at Port-au-Prince, the Hon. J. T. Holly, with his wife and three children, was refused a state room on the steamer running between New Haven and New York city. Even this insult to the American Government, which would have been resented by the Government had it happened in Europe to a white Secretary of Legation, was only on a par with the spirit of caste exhibited by some Christian (?) friends of Mr. Holly in this city who invited him, in the earnestness of their missionary zeal, to be their guest, and then placed him at a second table!"

THE SOUTH SINCE THE WAR.—One of the most important and interesting reports ever made by a committee of Congress, will be that of Representative Stevenson, of Ohio, on the financial operations, past and present, of the Southern States. The report will show the financial condition at the time of secession, and at the present; at reconstruction, and now; showing in addition, the losses by the war, the increase of the debt, up to the time of reconstruction; from that time to the present time; so, the cost of conducting the State Governments of the different periods, and, as near as possible, the amount of taxes levied, how the debt was increased; what frauds have been perpetrated, as well as the general resources and assets of each State.

We are glad to learn that there is to be one of two brick-yards started in or near town at an early day. We think that town will be benefited handsomely. The supply of bricks at the arsenal is exhausted or nearly so, and we learn that there is not enough to complete the factory now in course of construction, besides there are other factories and buildings that are to go up soon. Before and during the war there were two brick yards near town and we believe they found ready sales at good prices for all the bricks manufactured.

NOTICE—READ THIS.
I have just received the best lot of Double and Single GUNS ever offered for sale in this market. These Guns were made and imported expressly for my trade. They are fine finished English Guns with long barrels and small bores, and will be sold low for cash—lower than the same quality can be bought in the United States. They would be a handsome Christmas or New Year's gift. A large lot of fine repeating Pistols on hand. The best make of Powder, Shot and Caps, and Cartridges for all kinds of arms and small bores. Another lot of Boxing axes expected in a few days. Call and see for yourselves at WALTER WATSON'S GUN STORE, Next to Horn's Drug Store, Fayetteville, N. C. dec 21 oct 27-ly

COMPARATIVE VALUE OF LONDON AND NEW YORK REAL ESTATE.—A plot of land in London, opposite the Mansion House, the public residence of the Lord Mayor, a locality well known to all who have visited England, is said to have been recently let at a ground-rent almost equal to £1 per square foot per annum, which represents a capitalized value of about a million and a half sterling per acre, or $7,500,000. If here in New York, on our leading avenue of business, Broadway, we give $200,000 for a city lot 25 feet by 100 feet, we have paid, amply for our rights, and yet twelve times the area mentioned will be nearly an acre, and twelve times the purchase instanced will be but $2,400,000, less than a third of the value of the Mansion House plot.

Another movement is now being made looking to the nomination of Senator Sumner for President, with a prospect of success. The purpose is to bring in revenue reformers, civil service reformers, woman suffragists, civil rights and disaffected persons generally, as well as the few Democrats who may be found willing to join for the purpose, and with the hope of defeating the re-election of General Grant. This project is quite freely talked about, and has the appearance of earnestness, which at least gives it character and some strength.—Wash. Correspondence of the Baltimore Gazette.

TOWN RESIDENCE FOR SALE
By virtue of authority vested in me by a deed of trust, I will sell to the highest bidder on Thursday, the 7th day of March, 1872, at the Market House in Fayetteville, the former residence of Mrs. M. Hartman, situated on Robinson Street adjoining the residence of M. A. Baker, Esq. For terms apply to J. C. McRae, Esq. dec 7-2a SARAH CADE.

Two drachms of camphor, half a drachm of pure salpêtre, half a drachm of pure muriate of ammonia, and two ounces of phosphorus, in a glass tube or narrow phial, will make a pretty sure weather guide. In dry weather the solution will remain clear. On the approach of change, minute stars will rise up in the liquid; while stormy weather will be indicated by the very disturbed condition of the chemical combination.

AN EXECUTION AND A COMMENTARY.—Charleston, S. C., February 2.—Samuel White, (colored), was hung here today for the murder of W. B. Fidea last summer. White's accomplice, a negro named Bladen, and his sentence commuted to imprisonment for life while under the gallows.

THE LAW IN NORTH CAROLINA TO TAX SAMPLE-MERCHANTS.—Every drummer or travelling agent of any person who shall sell any spirituous liquors, vinous or malt liquors, goods, wares or merchandise, by sample or otherwise, whether delivered or to be delivered, except agricultural implements and fruit trees, and articles of his own growth or manufacture, shall, before making any such sale, obtain a license to sell one year from the public treasurer, by paying said treasurer an annual tax of fifty dollars, but shall not be liable to be taxed in any county because of his sales.

It seems that the diligent State officials of South Carolina have adopted the Tammany plan of protecting themselves by legislative measures against the laws. This a new law provides that civil or criminal suits cannot be brought against the present State officials committed more than six months before the charge is made.

It is a pity that the American Revolution could never have been achieved without Southern statesmen and soldiers, and it was Southern counsels which guided the government up to 1860. What has become of it since, we all know. It would be absurd to limit intellect to degrees of latitude but it seems pretty clear that the genius of the North does not lie in statesmanship.—Lynchburg News.

A GENTLEMAN just from New Orleans avers that, during the recent middle in that city one member of the Louisiana Legislature sold out six times, and that members sold out frequently and openly. In fact both sides had to keep some of their members locked up to prevent them going over to the opposite side "for a consideration." At one time, one of the parties had in their pool over $100,000 with which to buy over members from the other side.

EXTRAVAGANT FIRE.—A very interesting experiment in extinguishing fires was made at the foot of Wall street on Monday evening, in the presence of a large number of prominent citizens. For the purpose of demonstrating the usefulness and the capacity of the Babcock Fire Extinguisher, a small frame house, twelve feet by fourteen inside and fifteen feet high, was erected, and in this were placed twelve tar barrels, a wagon-load of shavings and kindling-wood, and over the whole were poured ten gallons of kerosene oil and benzine. To this most inflammable mass a match was applied, and in an instant a roaring fire was raging. The flames leaped up almost instantaneously many feet above the top of the house, and the assembled multitude shouted the idea of its being put out by any human agency. But a man soon appeared with one of Babcock's Extinguishers lashed to his back, and turning the stream of water and gas to the burning pile, in forty-five seconds he had entirely extinguished the fire. The feat was looked on almost as a miracle, and the old fireman present said if they had found such a fire as that burning in any building they would have made an attempt to put it out with one of these extinguishers. It is a most interesting and useful invention to save adjoining property.

The Extinguishers are comparatively new. They are different entirely from those exhibited here some years ago, in the manner in which the gas generated. In the old machines the cylinder was kept charged with the gas all the time and the consequence was the machines were strained under the pressure and rendered useless in the time of need. In the Babcock machine the gas is made instantaneously when it is wanted. All the ingredients are contained in the cylinder, and the simple lifting of a small rod precipitates one upon another, by which means the gas is evolved. In the machine used in Monday's experiment there was no gas until the fire was well going.—New York Evening Mail.

CARPET-BAGGERS.—According to the ideas of the editor of the Planter's Banner, if carpet-baggers had been known in the time of Mosebeth, the witches might have saved themselves an immense amount of trouble in going so far for some of the ingredients of their celebrated hell broth, and improved on it by resolving one of those port-potable animals. He says: "The devil first invented snakes, fogs, scorpions, tarantulas, coiled serpents, mosquitoes, lizards, owls, buzzards, hawks, vultures, eagles, stingers, garter snakes, chiggers and wasps; and to concentrate all the meanness and devilry in creation, he put these in a cauldron and boiled them down and produced a carpet-bagger, as the grand masterpiece of a Satan's hate. And Satan smiled when his eye first rested on his last born and favorite creation."

VALENTINE'S DAY.—Valentine was a pope, or bishop of Rome, that lived in the ninth century; who, on this day, established an annual custom of the poorer clergy drawing patrons by lots for the commenced year; and these patrons or benefactors, were called Valentines. After his death he was canonized for a saint, and his feast-day kept on the fourteenth day of February, which was thought to be his birthday. Mr. John Gordon, in his memoirs and account of the popes, says, "that Valentine was too good a man to be a good pope, and died forty days after his consecration, or installation; being choked with a fish-bone."

This custom, in Britain, evidently appears to have been copied by the clergy, in the days of popery, and is a very ancient custom, being almost of a thousand years standing. The birds too are supposed to choose their mates, and pair, on this day; which, no doubt, is an additional reason for our youth of both sexes who are approaching to matrimony, to ingenuously ply verses, pen and pencil, in honor of their selected and allotted lovers.

GOVERNOR SCOTT ESCAPES IMPROBEMENT BY A TIE VOTE.—In the South Carolina Assembly last week, the second attempt to impeach Governor Scott, instigated by the colored member Whipper, failed by a tie vote—40 to 40, when the Speaker gave the casting vote in the negative. The colored member Byas, shot by a correspondent of the Charleston News, was able to be in his seat to give his vote for the Governor.

Another movement is now being made looking to the nomination of Senator Sumner for President, with a prospect of success. The purpose is to bring in revenue reformers, civil service reformers, woman suffragists, civil rights and disaffected persons generally, as well as the few Democrats who may be found willing to join for the purpose, and with the hope of defeating the re-election of General Grant. This project is quite freely talked about, and has the appearance of earnestness, which at least gives it character and some strength.—Wash. Correspondence of the Baltimore Gazette.

We should prefer Grant twice over to Sumner. We regard Sumner as the deadliest foe of the South in the Republican party. Look at his bill in favor of mixed public schools.—Richmond Enquirer.

WASHINGTON, January 29.—The Senate is discussing the resolution to bring delinquent Ku Klux witnesses to the bar of the Senate.

In the House on the regular call, a bill was introduced removing the political disabilities of Martin J. Crawford, of Georgia, who has gone North to lecture. Upon his return the Vance-Abbott contest from North Carolina will be resumed.

GENERAL BUTLER has introduced a bill in Congress providing for woman suffrage. He evidently means to run again for Governor of Massachusetts.
