

THE PROSPECT FOR Fayetteville again brightens. The contract for a rail road to Shoe Heel is now made and the work is to be put through at once to completion.

By this road Fayetteville will have easy communication with the Pee Dee country, which contains the best and most successful farmers in the two States of North and South Carolina.

We expect that most of the produce of this Pee Dee section will be shipped to or by Fayetteville. The real secret of Fayetteville's great advantage as a market is its water transportation.

These great works should have been built long ago, and we would have to-day a city of 25,000 inhabitants. Our road now to Egypt, in the centre of the iron, coal, and flour section.

During the ten years from 1863 to 1873, eight fire insurance companies of Boston, with an aggregate capital of $2,200,000, realized a net profit of $376,553, a fraction over 17 per cent.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 13, 1874. GRANT AND THE THIRD TERM. In order that I might furnish the patrons of the Associated Press Letters with the most reliable information concerning the third term movement...

The President thinks that it was clearly within the power of the Democrats to have carried New York, and had they done so their success in the Presidential canvass would have been assured; that opportunity he regards as now hopelessly lost to them.

Commissioner Foster has been snatching the bogus insurance companies of this city, "bald-headed," as the boy of the period expresses it, and the Peoples' Insurance Company and Central have been compelled to "step down and out."

The Illinois commission has just completed its examination of the State of this city, and is well pleased with its condition. The exhibition which opened in this city on the 6th of October, under the auspices of the Franklin Institute...

Another great railroad enterprise in the far west is announced. A company has been organized at Portland Oregon, with a capital of $7,500,000 for the construction of a railroad from Winnemucca to the Columbia river...

reader than descriptions of the most wonderful pieces of machine industry on exhibition here. I purpose giving short sketches of the most valuable and worthy of them in subsequent letters.

SHERMAN'S $60,000 HOUSE. Sometime before the first election of Gen. Grant to the Presidency, certain of his friends purchased a grand house in Washington and presented it to him. When he became President he sold that house to a citizen of Washington for $40,000 and received $1,000 on account as purchase money.

Infamous Radical Outrages in Alabama. MONTGOMERY, Ala., October 17.—Col. Thomas B. Whitmore, Chairman of the Executive Committee of the Democratic Conservative party of Sumter county, a distinguished lawyer and a prominent citizen of Alabama, was arrested at Livingston today on the charge of conspiracy to injure Detective Hester. A Democratic meeting had been advertised, and as it was about to assemble this arrest was made.

Forty-four Congressmen were elected on Tuesday, and more than half of them Democrats. That was a good day's work for the country. Gen. McGowan, in accepting the nomination for Congress for the Third (S. C.) District, declares himself as "a moderate Conservative," who has been, "ever since the war, in favor of peace and fraternity between the sections, and justice and kindness between the races."

COLUMBUS, Oct. 15.—At the Democratic headquarters, up to 11 o'clock p. m., the official and unofficial returns have been received from seventy-eight counties, which show a net Democratic gain over last year of 17,012. This leaves ten counties yet to hear from. Granting that these counties have given the same majorities as last year, the Democratic majority in the State will be about 18,000.

In the seven districts which have gone Republican the majority is 8,000, divided as follows: Eighth District, 300; Tenth, 120; Fifteenth, 800; Sixteenth, 1,200; Seventeenth, 250; Eighteenth, 1,200; Nineteenth, 3,500. This leaves a Democratic majority in the Twenty districts of 26,000.

Indianaapolis, Oct. 16.—Fuller and more complete returns from all the legislative districts in the State show the following result: The Senate stands—Democrats 23, Republicans 24, and Independents 3. In the House the Democratic majority on the State ticket will probably reach 18,000. [Counting that the Independents will vote with the Democrats, as they certainly will, the Democrats will have a large majority in the Legislature.]

DeBouque, Iowa, Oct. 15.—The Democrats have elected L. L. Ainsworth to Congress in this (the third DeBouque) District by a majority of 19. Official returns have been received from every county in the District except one township in Buchanan county, which, it is reported, cannot change the result. Ainsworth (Dem.) has 1,457 majority in DeBouque county and 598 in Clayton. Granger (Rep.) has 57 majority in Attamakee, 557 in Wineshick, 668 in Fayette, 230 in Buchanan, and 440 in Delaware, giving him 19 majority. The above figures are correct, and cannot be changed to affect the result. This is the first time a Democrat has been elected to Congress from Iowa since 1852.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—West Virginia sends a clear Democratic delegation to Congress.

EFFECT OF THE NEWS IN WASHINGTON. WASHINGTON, Oct. 14.—The result of the elections yesterday has been the cause of no little surprise and consternation among the officials here. The Department of Justice especially seemed to be pervaded by the gloomiest of feelings. The Attorney-General concluded that he might as well close his "outrage" manufactory, and went off to a wedding in the hope of soothing his perturbed spirits.

COMMENTS OF THE PRESS. The following is from the New York World: For the first time in many years we are able to congratulate the readers of The World and all who think with it the same things concerning the Republic, upon sweeping victories at the polls for the Democratic party.

The news of this magnificent Democratic triumph, presaging the wider and still more complete victories of the Democracy in November, will send joy to the hearts of millions in every part of our land. It will breathe life into the disordered industries and the sinking commerce of the Atlantic States; it will inspire with fresh courage the despairing agriculturists of the great West, robbed so long by rag money and a ruinous tariff of all the rewards of steady labor under benevolent seasons upon a teeming soil; it will stanch the bleeding wounds and bind up the shattered limbs and pour measureless joy into the broken heart of the prostrate South, now, at length, ere long, to be restored to the Union of States, and restored to the true equality of their self-government, their liberties and laws.

In one of the October-States it seems clear that the Democrats have made heavy gains. Ohio loses three Administration Congressmen and probably the State ticket. The change in Cleveland amounts to a gain. Two years ago Mr. Parsons was elected by a majority of 2,734. Henry B. Payne now defeats him by a majority roughly reported in the offices of the Republican newspapers of Cleveland at 2,000. The gain is one to independent politics. Mr. Payne is a gentleman of the highest character, recognized for a quarter of a century as the leading lawyer of the Reserve, and a man of such sturdy honesty of political conviction as to spit upon the inflation squarely for the earliest return to specie payments. He will be a leading Congressman, and on the right side on all vital questions.

The changes in Congress resulting from the elections so far held this year may be estimated from yet imperfect returns, as follows: Indiana will be represented in the XLIVth Congress by 5 Republicans and 8 Democrats, the latter gaining 2; Ohio, 7 Republicans, 13 Democrats, the latter gaining 6; Oregon will have a Republican in place of her present Democratic Representative. Total net gain of the Democrats, 12. There is no change of the representation of Iowa, Maine, Nebraska, Vermont and West Virginia.

The following is the Democratic pyramid thus far in 1874 of the State elections, according to their majorities: OHIO. GEORGIA. MONTANA. INDIANA. COLORADO. ARKANSAS. KENTUCKY. TENNESSEE. CONNECTICUT. NEW HAMPSHIRE. NORTH CAROLINA.

DIED. OFFIN.—CORNELIA T. COFFIN, late wife of Dehuad Coffin, Moore county, N. C., was born December 25th, 1828, and died September 30th, 1874.

CAMERON.—In Harriet county, October 14, Mrs. MARY CAMERON, wife of Mr. James Cameron, in the 47th year of her age. In early girlhood Mrs. Cameron connected herself with the Baptist Presbyterian Church, and for the last twenty years or more has been a faithful, consistent and zealous member of Barbecue Church. In the death of this most excellent woman our Church and community has sustained a great loss.
