

BEAR BUTLER seems to have no friends in either party. Everybody kicks him. He is repudiated, and that's what's the matter. In prosperity and success he was a notable leader. How strange are the ways of the world!

A CORRESPONDENT of the Philadelphia Ledger says that strong feeling is expressed by some of the most prominent domestic leaders of New York in favor of an early conference with the recognized representative men of the party in other parts of the country, with a view of reconciling conflicting views on the financial question, and preventing an unbroken front in its support.

THE UNITED STATES SENATORSHIP of New York.—The New York correspondent of the Philadelphia Ledger says: "Concerning the United States Senatorship from this State, the friends of Judge Sanford E. Church are advancing the claims of that gentleman as superior to those of either Gov. Hoffman or Gov. Seymour. They say he is less of a strict party man than either of those gentlemen, and is freer from the unpopularity attaching to certain issues that had their origin during the war. For these and other reasons they look to him as the coming man."

SHALL JOHN CHINAMAN VOTE?—The question now is, "Shall John Chinaman vote?" It has been discovered in San Francisco that the revised statutes of the last Congress have authorized the naturalization of the Chinese and any other of the adult males of the yellow races. The old law of 1802 declares that "any alien, being a free white person," may be admitted to become a citizen, &c. In 1870 the provision was extended to cover "aliens of African nativity, and persons of African descent." The revision uses the words of the law of 1802, omitting "being a free white person," and inserts the law of 1870 about Africans. It is claimed that the law, as now standing, breaks down all barriers of race or descent, which California has hitherto successfully opposed.

Of all the Southern Governors Chamberlain, of South Carolina, is most doubtful as to how he will be. From his record he is a man who has not discontinued friends in the State. How far he participated in them is another matter. We would not be surprised, in view of the recent political revolution in the West, East and South, to see Mr. Chamberlain trim his sails to the breeze and repudiate the rogues and thieves that have fattened so long on the treasury of South Carolina.

MARRIED. Mr. John Henry Going to Miss Marie Bowler. An eye witness of the affair sums it up as follows: Bowler's now Going, and Going's "gone."—Brooklyn Argus.

Both are gone—left for "good old Ireland" at once—whether they are going, and will be going still. The number of Chinese students in Massachusetts and Connecticut is now upwards of 60, and will soon be 100. These "Emperor's boys," as they are called, are allowed about $700 a year for expenses by the home government.

It seems that between the Democrats and the Republicans there is a contest for the State Senatorship. The Democrats have 11 majority on the ballot in the next Legislature, and are securing a United States Senator. The Congressional delegation stands 5 Democrats and 2 Republicans.

The Democrats have a majority on joint ballot in the Legislature, securing a United States Senator. The Congressional delegation, according to the New York Times, stands 16 Democrats 16 Republicans and 1 Independent.

The salary of $40,000 per annum paid to President Jewett of the Erie Railway is the largest paid to any railroad officer in the United States, and it is believed larger than any paid to any railroad officer in the world. The Washington Republican calls it the broken and scattered fragments of the Radical party to rally to?

The Great Revolution

MASSACHUSETTS GONE DEMOCRATIC FOR THE FIRST TIME IN 15 YEARS!

BEAST, BUTLER DEFEATED BY A STRAIGHT-OUT DEMOCRAT!

NEW YORK FALLS INTO THE DEMOCRATIC COLUMN.

PENNSYLVANIA DEMOCRATIC, IN FACT, "FROM THE CENTRE ALL ROUND TO THE SEA" DEMOCRACY REIGNS SUPREME!

THE CORRUPT RADICAL PARTY DIGS ITS OWN GRAVE AND 1876 WILL BURY ITS ROTTEN CASCASS!

NOW FOR A DEMOCRATIC PRESIDENT!

KEEP THE BALL ROLLING!

The following are condensations of the recent political upheaval in the various States:

ALABAMA Gives 6,000 to 10,000 majority for the Democratic State ticket; certainly five and possibly seven Democratic Congressmen and a Democratic Legislature.

ARIZONA TERRITORY. Stevens, Independent, elected delegate to Congress.

ARKANSAS. Clean Democratic Congressional delegation.

FLORIDA. Full Republican delegation. The Democrats have a majority in the Legislature.

MISSOURI. This State furnishes a clean Democratic delegation, and the Democratic majority will be 40,000 to 60,000.

ILLINOIS. The count by Congressional districts give the Democrats 12 to 13 majority on the popular vote.

GEORGIA. Clean Democratic delegation.

KANSAS. The Republican State ticket has 5,000 majority, against 32,000 majority two years ago.

KENTUCKY. Clear Democratic delegation.

MARYLAND. Clean Democratic delegation.

MINNESOTA. Returns from remote parts are more favorable to the Republicans.

MASSACHUSETTS. The Democrats elect Governor by 7,000 majority, and the Republicans elect the balance of the State ticket. She sends three Democrats and one Independent to Congress. The Legislature is strongly anti-prohibition.

MICHIGAN. The Democrats have a large representation and possibly a majority on joint ballot in the Legislature. The Congressional delegation will probably stand 5 Republicans and 4 Democrats. Both parties claim the Governor.

NEVADA. Bradley, Dem., re-elected Governor. Sharon, Rep., will probably come to the United States Senate on account of the State Senator holding over.

NEW JERSEY. The Democrats have 11 majority on the ballot in the next Legislature, and are securing a United States Senator. The Congressional delegation stands 5 Democrats and 2 Republicans.

NEW YORK. The Democrats have a majority on joint ballot in the Legislature, securing a United States Senator. The Congressional delegation, according to the New York Times, stands 16 Democrats 16 Republicans and 1 Independent.

PENNSYLVANIA. Democratic majority of 1 on joint ballot, securing a United States Senator. Congress, 16 Democrats and 11 Republicans. Both McClure and Randall telegraph that the Democrats undoubtedly carry the State and Legislature.

VIRGINIA. The Congressional delegation from Virginia stands 7 Democrats and 2 Republicans, being a Democratic gain of 3 Congressmen.

WISCONSIN. The Republicans have a majority on joint ballot, which may give us Carpenter again. The Democrats have two and claim another Congressman. The Republican majority in the State is 6,000.

DELAWARE. The Radical spirit is thoroughly subdued, they having only one State Senator who holds over.

The following is the Tribune summary: Nine States—Delaware, Maryland, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, New Jersey, New York, Tennessee, West Virginia—have chosen Legislatures which will elect Democratic United States Senators. Five of these are now represented by Republicans. In five other States—Louisiana, Illinois, Massachusetts, Pennsylvania, Wisconsin—the legislature is either in doubt or have in it independent elements which will be likely to secure the election of anti-administration candidates. Present returns indicate that the Democrats will have a majority of between 50 and 60 in the next House of Representatives.

In Massachusetts the Democratic majority for Governor is about 8,000. There is a gain of 6 opposition Congressmen, with another district in doubt.

In Pennsylvania the result is doubtful. The Republicans admit a loss of 13,000 votes on the State ticket. The opposition has elected 14 Congressmen, a gain of 9.

The Democrats have elected their Governor in New Jersey by 8,000 majority. The opposition gains 3 Congressmen. The contest between Phelps and Cutler in the fifth district can only be decided by the official canvass.

The Republicans have a majority of 25 on joint ballot in the Wisconsin Legislature, but Senator Carpenter's re-election is by no means sure.

Delaware has elected a Democratic Governor, Congressmen and Legislature. The Kellogg clique is said to be trying to count in the administration State ticket in Louisiana, but the Conservatives claim the State by 12,000 majority. They have secured the Legislature and consequently a U. S. Senator, and have elected 4 Congressmen—a gain of 3.

Michigan has elected a Democratic Legislature, and has sent 3 or 4 opposition candidates to Congress—all gains.

Tennessee has elected a Democratic Governor by 30,000 majority, and has gained 5 opposition Congressmen.

Alabama has elected a Democratic Governor by about 10,000 majority, and has gained 2 opposition Congressmen.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—Tilden's majority for Governor will be about 40,000.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—The Democratic majority in the House of Representatives is now 77, with 17 members still to be chosen in New Hampshire, Connecticut, California and Mississippi, which elect next Spring. These States do not elect a Senator. The Radical majority in the Senate is pulled down to 8, possibly to 6.

What is Said of Our Victory. New York World. It is fitting that the voice of the victorious Democracy should rise in shouts of patriotic exultation as of old the children of Israel sang to wether the waters of the Red Sea had closed over the hosts of Pharaoh and his chosen captains: "The enemy said, I will pursue, I will overtake, I will divide the spoil; my last shall be satisfied upon them; I will draw my sword, my hand shall destroy them. Thou didst blow with thy wind, the sea covered them; they sank like lead in the mighty waters." The consummating anger of the people comes like the breath of Jehovah to blight the counsels and confound the designs of the infatuated leaders who for so many years have ruled the country only to ruin it. Under the weight of their excesses and the accumulated guilt of their political iniquities the cohorts of Radicalism have sunk like lead in the mighty waters. We can measure the greatness of our deliverance only by measuring the depth of degradation from which the insurrection of Patriotism has lifted the drowning honor of the country as by its locks.

Grant's profane banalities has been broken. His "Dixie Term" banner has been captured and reversed for a scuff and a hissing. The banners of his army, the spoilers of the South, have been compelled to slacken their hold where the prey has not been wrested from their teeth. The political sorcerers discover that Mortuism has lost its power for a delusion of the defenders of the Republic—the people at the ballot-box. Yet this is only the first great battle in a long campaign. It is won triumphantly. Yet there are others to be won.

Victory has been tied, with all her garlands on, to the standards of the Democracy by faithful hands which have successfully planted those standards in the forefront of this great battle.

Above all else—and for this we fervently thank the God of Peace—there is an end of the war and its bloody instructions. We shall hear no more of "war records." As the Herald said during the canvass, "war records" are now so dead that "Mr. Tilden would not lose fifty votes but he commanded the attack on Fort Sumter." This canvass shows that the Americans are a magnanimous, forgiving people; that when the rebellion was suppressed the rebels became once more our brothers and our fellow-citizens, and that in the progress of these States in the road to empire the test of political rewards must henceforward be merit, honesty, capacity, not what was done or said during the civil war; for, as all candid men must admit, many of the finest characters of this generation fought against the North. What shall we do with them? There is General Longstreet, for instance. He fought until the surrender of Lee, and was second in command to Lee at Appomattox; and yet he is as good a Republican as ever Roscoe Conkling could wish, and yet to-morrow he were to be a candidate, say for the Vice-Presidency, Mr. Conkling would speak and vote for him. And if Longstreet, why not men like Lee, Stonewall Jackson, Johnston, Breckinridge and Hunter? Are these men any worse Americans now for having fought against us five years ago? Are they to be despised because they have not joined the Republicans? Are they not better in every way than the murrain of carpet-baggers and "scallawags" that now overrun the South? Would not even Mr. Conkling prefer to see Mr. Breckinridge in the place of Kellogg, Hunter in the place of Moses, and Lee and Jackson, if they were alive, in the place of Fatterson and Clayton? Would he not feel that the country was better served by these gallant and honest rebels than by the miserable ruffian that now infests, depletes and dishonors the South? And is it not a matter for rejoicing that by the results of this very election the dead past has buried its dead, that Americans are brothers to Americans once more, that all the hatreds and sorrows of the rebellion are sleeping under the green hills and valleys of Virginia, and that even for the miserable purposes of a canvass in New York the eloquence of Roscoe Conkling cannot summon up the Mumbo Jumbo of rebellion.

From the Tribune of Wednesday. If there was any life left in the fiction of riotous White Leagues and general intimidation of the negroes which filled the Administration press for a month before the election, it must have been pretty thoroughly stamped out on Tuesday.

In this sudden change of temper we see the solution of the Southern problem made plain. As soon as political questions at the South are decided without reference to color, all pretenses for White Leagues and Black Leagues disappear and carpet-baggers loses its hold. It remains now for the Southern whites, wherever they are, to be restored to power, to cement the alliance by the most generous and considerate treatment of the allies who helped them to the victory. Let them show the negroes that while ascendancy does not mean oppression; it means nothing but honesty, good order, industry and peace.

MURDER.—Says the Raleigh Sentinel: Nathau Morgan, a negro boy of 17, is now in jail for the murder of his cousin, Josephus Morgan, who was a lad of 10. The murder occurred on the plantation of M. C. Hodge, Esq., Nathan enticed Josephus in the woods, mangled his skull with a rock, and mutilated his person as the kuklux did the five negroes who violated a lady in the county of Lenoir. We have rarely known such brutality committed by one so young.

The Warren triplets, the production of Mrs. Sallie A. Tucker, are on exhibition at the Charlotte Fair.

MARRIED. BLUE—OWEN. In Seventy-First Township at the residence of the bride's father, on the 4th inst., by Rev. W. L. Chaffin, of John Blair to Miss Fanny A. Owen, daughter of W. T. Owen.

COOPER—USSEY. On Sabbath, November 1st, 1874, at the residence of the bride's father, by Rev. J. Wheeler, Mc. Strayer, T. Cooper to Miss Martha C. Ussey, all of Rockingham.

BUCKETT—ZACHERY. At the residence of Mr. H. S. Wade, in this county, November 5th, 1874, by Rev. T. W. Guthrie, Mr. J. O. Ducket, of Newbury, S. C., Junior Editor of the Free Press, to Miss Jennett Zachery, of Montgomery county, N. C.

DIED. GARRETT. In Rockingham, N. C., November 4th, 1874, at 2 o'clock, by typhoid fever, Miss JUDITH HELEN GARRETT, in the 19th year of her age.

Hon. Lucian Bethune. The subject of this was born in Cumberland county, on the 15th of April, 1788, and died October 10th, 1874, in the 86th year of his age. He was endowed with remarkable powers of mind, which he was privileged to cultivate and develop beyond what was usual in his day. His high order of intellectual powers, combined with his sterling integrity of character and restitutive purposes, made him the man which he followed with delight to honor. Hence they honored him with a seat in the Senatorial branch of the Legislature in 1817, 1818 and 1823, 24, 25 and 27. In 1831 he was chosen to represent his district in Congress. Having spent eleven years of his life in public service, he retired to private life, and spent his remaining years in attending to his domestic duties, enjoying the confidence and highest esteem of a large circle of admiring friends who looked up to him as a wise counselor and true and faithful friend. Though often soiled he could not be induced to return to public life.

Special Notices. TO THE WEAKE, the Worm and the Wreny, the editor of the Boston Recorder says: "We can most unhesitatingly recommend the Peruvian Syrup, a protected solution of the protuberant iron, to all the weak, the worn, the weary, the having richly experienced its benefits. It possesses all the qualities claimed for it by its proprietor."
