The Philadelphia Ledger has the ollowing in regard to the recent co rence between Vanderbilt, Jewel ence of the officers of several of or leading railway companies at Ball more, last week, is variously inte preted as to its. results. The No York papers generally pronounce the meeting a failure in its purpose, by the givings out by railway officers this city are that all was accomplish that was desired, namely, that t Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Compashould join the other companies the determination to discontinue t payment of commissions on sales tickets and abolish all drawbacks freight. This the New York Centr Erie and Pennsylvania companies h already done. With regard to t general tariff rates and other featur of the Saratoga compact, the Bal more and Obio people did not su scribe to them, and the other comp nies did not think it material that should. The Baltimore and Ohio, it is reported, recommended the lines interested to abolish the "fast freight' and "transportation" lines with which and New York companies' officers pro fess to be satisfied with their conference and its result. The St. Louis Democrat, referring to this conference, says if President Garrett yields "the entire commerce and industry of the West will be at the mercy of a combination as determined and as aggressive as any the
