THE PROMISE KEPT.—The following from an exchange is worth reading.

A mother, on the green hills of Vermont, was holding by her right hand a son sixteen years old, mad with the love of the sea. And as she stood by the garden gate one morning; she said: "Edward, they tell me, for I never saw the ocean, that the great temptation of a seaman's life is to drink. Promise me, before you quit your mother's hand, that you will never drink."

"And," said he, (for he told me the story,) "I gave her the promise, and I went the broad globe over, Calcutta and the Mediterranean, San Francisco, the cape of Good Hope the North Pole and the South, I saw them all in forty years, and I never saw a glass filled with sparkling liquor that my mother's form by the gate did not rise before me; and to-day I am innocent of the taste of liquor."

Was not that sweet evidence of the power of a single word? Yet this was not half. "For," said he, "yesterday there came into my counting room a man of 40 years and asked me, 'Do you know me?' 'No.'

"Well," said he "I was once brought drunk into your presence on ship-board; you were a passenger; the captain kicked me aside; you took me to your berth and kept me there till I had slept off the intoxication; you then asked me if I had a mother. I said I had never known a word from her lips. You told me of yours at the garden gate, and to day I am master of one of the finest packets in New York; and I came to ask you to come and see me."

FAYETTEVILLE.—We learn from the Fayetteville Eagle that Bro. Brooks, State Lecturer, delivered an earnest and entertaining address in that town, on Monday evening the 16th
