

HOW TO FATTEN A POOR HORSE.

Many good horses devour large quantities of grain and hay, and still continue thin and poor. The food eaten is not properly assimilated. If the usual feed has been unground grain and hay, nothing but a change will effect any desirable alteration in the appearance of the animal. In case oil meal cannot be obtained readily, mingle a bushel of flax seed with a bushel of barley, one of oats, and another bushel of Indian corn, and let it be ground into fine meal. This will be a fair proportion for all his feed. Of the meal of barley, oats and corn in equal quantities, they first be procured, and one-fourth part of oil cake mingled with it, when the meal is sprinkled on cut feed. Feed two or three quarts of the mix three times daily, mingled with a peck of cut hay and straw. If the horse will eat that amount greedily, let the quantity be gradually increased until he will eat four or six quarts at every feeding, three times a day. So long as the animal will eat his allowance, the quantity may be increased a little every day. But a good practice of allowing a horse to stand at a rack well filled with hay. In order to fatten a horse that has come down in flesh, the groom should be very particular to feed the animal no more than he will eat up clean and lick the manger for more.

Two Irishmen, stopping at the Island House, Toledo, lit their gas, and, with windows open sat down to enjoy a chat.

The hungriest of Toledo musquitoes soon flocked in and drove them desperate. The clerk, who was summoned to devise some defence against them, told them to close the windows and put out the gas.

They acted on the suggestion, and placed themselves between the sheets. Just as they began to doze a lightning bug, which had strayed into the room, caught the eye of one of the travelers. He roused his companion with a punch. "Jamie, Jamie, it's no use! Here's one of the cratars sarchin' for us wid a lantern!"

Scrofula, or King's Evil, is a constitutional disease, a corruption of the blood, by which this fluid becomes vitiated, weak, and poor. Being in the circulation, it pervades the whole body, and may burst out in disease on any part of it. No organ is free from its attacks, nor is there one which it may not destroy. The scrofulous taint is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, disordered or unhealthful food, impure air, filth and filthy habits, the depressing vice, and, above all, by the venereal infection. What ever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation." Indeed, it seems to be the rod of Him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children."

Its effects commence by deposition from the blood of corrupt or ulcerous matter, which, in the lungs, liver, and internal organs, is termed tubercles; in the glands, swellings; and on the surface, eruptions or sores. This foul corruption, which renders in the blood, depresses the energies of life, so that scrofulous constitutions not only suffer from scrofulous complaints, but they have far less power to withstand the attacks of other diseases; consequently vast numbers perish by disorders which, although not scrofulous in their nature, are still rendered fatal by this taint in the system. Most of the consumption which decimates the human family has its origin directly in this scrofulous contamination; and many destructive diseases of the liver, kidneys, brain, and, indeed, of all the organs, arise from or are aggravated by the same cause.

One-quarter of all our people are scrofulous; their persons are invaded by this lurking infection, and their health is undermined by it. To cleanse it from the system we must renovate the blood by an alterative medicine, and invigorate it by healthy food and exercise. Such a medicine we supply in the most effectual remedy which the medical skill of our times can devise for this everywhere prevailing and fatal malady. It is combined from the most active remedies that have been discovered for the expurgation of this foul matter from the blood, and the rescue of the system from its destructive consequences. It should be employed for the cure of only Scrofula, but also those other affections which arise from it, such as Eruptive SKIN DISEASES, ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, ITCH, OR BRUISES, PIMPLES, PUSTULES, SORES, SCALDS, BRUISES, TUMORS, FETTER, SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, RINGWORM, RHEUMATISM, SYMPLECTIC AND MEMORIAL DISEASES, DROPSY, DYSPEPSIA, DEBILITY, and ALL COMPLAINTS ARISING FROM VITIALIZED OR IMPURE BLOOD. The popular belief in the "purity of the blood" is founded in truth. It is the basis of the restoration of the blood.

We are prepared to supply this medicine in quantities which, while it cures, restores the system to its normal condition, and prevents the return of the disease. This "CURE" expels the miasmatic poison of AYER'S Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla, and restores the system to its normal condition. It is not only the best remedy ever yet discovered for this class of complaints, but also the cheapest. The large quantity we supply for a dollar brings within the reach of every body; and in bilious districts, where FEVER AND AGUE prevails, every body should have it and use it freely both for cure and protection. A great superiority of this remedy over any other ever discovered for the speedy and certain cure of Intermittents is that it contains no Quinine or mineral, consequently it produces no quinine or other injurious effects whatever upon the constitution. Those cured by it are left as healthy as if they had never had the disease.

Fever and Ague is not alone the consequence of the miasmatic poison. A great variety of disorders arise from its irritation, among which are Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Hemiplegia, Blindness, Toothache, Earache, Colic, Asthma, Euphuism, Painful Affection of the Spleen, Hysteria, Pain in the Throat, Cuts, Paralysis and Derangement of the Stomach, all of which, when originating in this cause, put on the intermittent type, or become periodical. This "CURE" expels the poison from the blood, and consequently cures them all alike. It is an invaluable medicine for immigrants and persons travelling or temporarily residing in the malarious districts. If taken occasionally or daily while exposed to the infection, that will be exerted from the system, and cannot accumulate in sufficient quantity to ripen into disease. Hence it is even more valuable for protection than cure, and few will ever suffer from Intermittents if they avail themselves of the protection afforded by this medicine.

Prepared by J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass. Sold by DR. W. H. FENLAXSON and J. H. HARRIS, Druggists, Goldsboro', and all Druggists and Dealers everywhere.
